The Proof

Wife—"I've just been reading an article on electricity, and it seems that before long we shall be able to get everything we want by merely touching a button."
Husband—"You'll never be able to get anything that way."
Wife—"Why not?"
Husband—"Because nothing on earth would make you touch a button. Look at my shirt!"

Knox Corners

(Our Own Correspondent)
Mr. Andrew McMullen of Holstein took the services at Knox and Amos on Sunday, while Mr. Honeyman preached at Holstein and Fairbairn. Mr. McMullen took for his subject "Jesus rejected in His home town of Nazareth." Jesus preached to the people in the neighborhood where he was born and lived for thirty years but they would not believe He was the promised Messiah. He speaks to us today in different ways, by His word, if we will read it, by the public worship of God and in our own homes, by the trials and sorrows in our lives, and the narrow escapes from death. He will force salvation on no one, but we have our own will to accept or to reject Him. Mr. McMullen and Mr. Watson sang a duet.
The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed on Sunday next with preparatory services Friday evening.
