The A. Y. P. A. held a social evening and corn roast at Brigham's Grove on Monday evening.

Because of the resignation of Mr. Walter Kennedy from the presidency the meeting was held without a leader until Mr. McCall voluntarily took charge and opened with a prayer, after which the new secretary, Miss Mary Hazlett, read the minutes of the previous meeting. Some business was attended to, and negotiations were made which lead to the unanimous election of Mr. McCall for president. Under his leadership the A. Y. P. A. is destined to flourish in a christian way. Mr. McCall gave an address containing timely advice and suggestions, which if carried out will set our A. Y. P. A. upon a firm foundation, and build it into a christian fortress. A closing prayer by Mr. McCall brought the meeting to a close. The next meeting will be held on Friday evening, Sept. 23 at which all concerned are urgently requested to attend. A rally service will be held, conducted by Mr. McCall.
