Knox Corners

(Our Own Correspondent) On Sunday our pastor spoke on the many blessings we ought to give thanks to God for. For comfortable homes, for there are many today who have none; for a bountiful harvest, plenty for man and beast; for our churches, where we may worship. It meant sacrifice for those who helped to build them, for a land where we have freedom to worship God. Many in Scotland and elsewhere paid for that liberty with their lives, and last, and best of all, we should be thankful for Jesus and the wonderful salvation He paid for on Calvary for all who will accept it. The choir sang "Count Your Blessings." Mr. and Mrs. Albert Marshall and Miss Barbara spent over the week-end with relatives in Toronto. Mr. William Carson accompanied them and visited with his son Norman and brother there. Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Watson and friends from London spent Thanksgiving at the Watson home. Watson visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kerr and attended the services at Var-

ney. Mrs. Alex. Smith is suffering from a broken rib, the result of a fall. We hope she will soon be her usual self again.

The W.M.S. met in the church on Wednesday of this week with a fair attendance. Mrs. Wallace took charge of the meeting in the absence of the president, and read of the work among the Chinese in Canada. The roll was answered by a verse on Thanksgiving. Plans were laid for a speaker for the Thankoffering meeting.

Stretching the Truth

The rather bored old professor of history was talking to the bright young lady at a dinner party. "Do you know my dear," he said "that Columbus travelled over two thousand five hundred miles on a galleon?" "Go on," she scoffed. "You don't believe all those stories you hear about American cars, do you?"
