Knox Corners

(Our Own Correspondent)

Not a very large congregation on Sunday, and not many of the choir present. Our pastor spoke on the sub-ject: "Work." He spoke from the old Testament story of Nehemiah. Like Daniel, the latter was a Hebrew in a strange land, and hearing of the deso-lation of Jerusalem he prayed that something might be done to build it up and restore the temple of God to its former glory, and his prayer was answered and the work began. There is a great work still to be done in the church at home and in missionary work abroad. God has bestowed a great honor on us as Christians in the chance to be co-workers with Him. Let us be up and doing for He has said: "Faith without works is dead."

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Watson visited on Sunday with relatives near Hol-stein.

Mr. and Mrs. David Marshall spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Mar-shall and family in Walkerton.

The Y.W.A. and Mission Band will meet in the church on Saturday after-noon at 2.30.

Mrs. Porter of town visited in the neighborhood on Sunday and attended service at Knox.

Mr. and Mrs. James Petty visited on Sunday with friends in Egremont.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson and Mr. Ronald Smith were visitors on Sun-day with Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Smith at Conn.

Mrs. James Picken and son Raymond returned to their home Saturday after two weeks spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stewart. Glad the little fellow is recovering nicely from the accident to his hand.

Mr. Andrew Marshall visited on Sun-day with Mr. John Sharp of Hampden. Sorry to hear that the latter is not improving very much.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wise and family at Allan Park.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Calder at Yeovil.

Mr. Watling, returned missionary from India, will address our W.M.S. Thankoffering meeting in the church on Monday, October 24. We hope there will be a good attendance.

CAMPER'S COLUMN

WHEN FRANK GETS ON THE BENCH

It is rumored the Editor of the Chron-icle is a candidate for Magisterial hon-ors.

We all shall have to watch our step, All evil impulse quench, Or we may feel the law's strong arm When Frank gets on the Bench.

No joy rides where the liquid joy May land us in a trench; All permits will be strictly vised When Frank gets on the Bench.

No quarrells with wify (though we feel Like calling her a wench, And smiting her both hip and thigh) When Frank gets on the Bench.

The wheels of commerce now are clog-ged; "Remove the monkey-wrench." In clarion tones this order, Frank, Will issue from the Bench.

Our town will blossom like a rose, No backyard filth or stench; All spic and span, a credit be, When Frank is on the Bench.

His lib'ral views regarding speed, With gloom the Chief will drench; For fees will dwindle to a mite When Frank is on the Bench.

There's one consoling thought we have; In English, Greek or French: Frank will not lecture us when we Appear before the Bench.

—Camper.

MEMBER OF BRUNSWICK TRIODIES VERY SUDDENLY

A despatch from his home city, Lon-don, tells of the death of one member of the Brunswick Trio, which supplied an excellent program here for the Dundalk Fair concert on Sept. 28th:

Irving B. ("Jock") Ballantyne, ten- or singer, who attained considerable fame in Canada, particularly in West-ern Ontario as a Scottish comedian, died suddenly in an automobile Sun-day night while being rushed to his home at 10 Evergreen Avenue. Mr. Ballantyne had been visiting friends when he was taken ill. Known inti-mately to thousands of music lovers Mr. Ballantyne was a member of a popular trio, and formerly supervised arrangements of a Scottish musical program for broadcast purposes. Mr. Ballantyne at one time toured the United States and Canada in the Keith vaudeville circuit, and achieved considerable popularity.

SHOCK GIVES SIGHT TO BABY BORN BLIND

Blind from birth, eleven-months-old Raymond Hanniver can now see for the first time, as the result of a shock caused by a burn.

Specialists who attended the baby at the Eye and Ear Hospital in Mel-bourne said he would remain blind all his life. Baby Raymond was sent home but a few nights later a spark shot from the blazing fire and burnt him on the leg.

He cried as children will do as the result of shock, but his mother noticed there was a new look in his eyes. The parents took their baby back to the hospital and were overjoyed to find as a result of tests by specialists that young Raymond could see. The spe-cialists are agreed that the effects of the shock will be permanent.

Revised Version

Trees

(Close to highways)
I think that I shall never see, Along the road, an unscrapped tree With bark intact, and painted white, That no car ever hit at night. For every tree that's near the road Has caused some auto to be towed. Sideswiping trees is done a lot. By drivers who are not so hot. God gave them eyes so they could see, Yet any fool can hit a tree.
