(Our Own Correspondent)

On Wednesday, October 12, the Holdfast W.F.W.O., held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Alex. Carson. Despite the disagreeable day, 29 members and visitors were present. The president, Mrs. Wm. Beaton, presided and opened by singing the Club Song. After devotional exercises, the Secretary, Miss Mae Stewart, called the Roll, and each member answered by "How to Make Poultry Dressing", and many different and useful ways were given.

Mrs. Edgar Patterson gave a humorous reading, "The Pot of Beans," which caused much fun. Mrs. Wm. Beaton also gave a reading, "The Empty Purse" After which an interesting debate took place. "Resolved that the Pioneer Women, Contributed More to Welfare and Home and Community Than does the Modern Woman." Mrs. Dan. Campbell, Mrs. J. J. Lyness upheld the affirmative side and Mrs. John Nichol, Jr., and Miss Lottie Whittaker the negative. It proved very interesting from beginning to end and was thoroughly enjoyed. Mrs. Allie Muir, Mrs. A. L. Hincks, and Miss Gladys Matheson, were appointed judges for the debate and gave their decision in favor of the affirmative side by one point. Miss Lily Campbell gave a reading "What Would You Like to Be?" Mrs. E. Patterson put on a nut contest, which provided much fun, Mrs. Billie Campbell won first prize, a pretty vase.

The annual fowl supper and program under the Willing Helpers, was held on Friday last, and was a decided success. The night was ideal, and the Hall was packed to the doors. The tables were laden with all good things, and a generous plate of fowl was dished up for everybody, an abundance left over of everything. After the supper was over the tables were cleared away and a splendid program was listened to.
