Knox Corners

(Our Own Correspondent)

Our pastor gave a missionary sermon on Sunday from the text, "The fields are white already to harvest." Perhaps some of us are tired hearing about missions, or calls for money, and some may claim not to believe in missions. Perhaps if we could change places with those who are hungry for the gospel message in heathen lands, or those in the outlying parts of our own land, we might change our opinions. Mr. Honeyman gave some most interesting thoughts on the lights and shadows of his own experience at a home missionary in the West. The greatest argument for missions is the Master's closing command to His disciples ere He left them, namely, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature, and so I am with you always," which is for us today.

Mr. and Mrs. James Marshall and family of Walkerton spent an evening last week with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Smith visited on Monday with Mr. and Mrs. James Webster in Egremont.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace of town spent Sunday with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Ferguson and children of Egremont visited on Tuesday at Mr. David Marshall's.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Patterson visited on Sunday at the McAlister home.

SERIOUSLY ILL AT TORONTO HOME

T. H. McClocklin Had Paralytic Stroke Monday Evening and is Still in Serious Condition.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McClocklin were in Toronto all last week in attendance at the bedside of the former's brother, Mr. T. H. McClocklin, who took a paralytic stroke Monday night and who, up to the early part of this week had not regained full consciousness. Although in a serious condition his physician has stated that he was making satisfactory progress.

Mr. McClocklin has suffered from high blood pressure for the past three or four years and has been unable to work at his vocation as clerk, having been compelled to give up his position with the Robert Simpson Co. While his sudden illness was a shock to his relatives and family, it was not unexpected as he had been advised some time ago that his condition was serious.

It is to be hoped his condition will show improvement shortly.

Judge—"Do you know the meaning of an oath, Madam?"
Witness (proudly)—"Your honor! And me 'usbend shippin' before the mast these fifteen years."
