

Larry Schafer Heads Accident Prevention Group

Larry Schafer of Kroehler Mfg. Co. Ltd., Durham, was elected chairman of the Industrial Accident Prevention Association, Georgian Bay Division, Southern Section, at the annual fall meeting of the section held at the Legion Hall, Walkerton, last Wednesday evening. Sixty-two persons, representing 15 manufacturing firms of the area and the I.A.P.A. of Toronto, were present at the meeting. Retiring chairman, Jules Van De Vyvere of Walkerton, conducted the meeting. Guest speaker was L. G. (Paddy) McIlroy, Staff Instructor of Toronto.

Other officers elected were: 1st vice chairman, Don Larson, Walkerton; 2nd vice chairman, Wm. Shaw, Walkerton; and secretary, Jack Pettford, Hanover. Members of the executive committee are: Chas. Nightingale, R. B. Gibson, J. R. Van De Vyvere, L. Beurems, W. Shaw, J. Jagelewski, W. Bogdon, all of Walkerton; Doug Johnson, Durham; Howard Krug, Chesley; Art Wright and Gary Hamer, Hanover; and Jack Rogers, I.A.P.A. Consultant of Toronto.

Ceylon

The September meeting of the Ceylon United Church Women was held in the church with a large attendance. Group five of the Fiesherston organization were guests. Mrs Mel Hogarth presided. The meeting opened with a hymn and the devotional period was taken by Mrs Hogarth. Each group separated and took their own business part of the meeting.

In the Ceylon group material was shown that was donated from Eatons and Simpson-Sears. Mrs Ostrander and Mrs Jaynes were appointed to price this material to be sold at a bazaar at the October meeting. An invitation was received to attend the fashion show in Stoddard Hall at Priceville.

Mrs Mel Hogarth introduced the guests, Mr and Mrs Jack Brachenbury of Fiesherston, who told and showed moving pictures of the trip they had taken last winter to California. They were thanked by Mrs Jaynes. Pot luck lunch was served by the Ceylon group.

Guests and callers over the weekend with Mr and Mrs Bob Greenman and family were Mrs Cathy Galbraith of Toronto; Mrs Annie Toone of Hanover; Mrs Emma Jeffkins, Barrie Island; Mr and Mrs W. Gerard; Mrs W. Gerard, Sr., and Sherrile and Stephen Mills, Scarborough.

Mr and Mrs Lloyd Cornfield, Brampton, were visitors with Mr and Mrs Jas. Sinclair, Sharon and Ann.

Mr and Mrs W. Shaw and family of Orangeville spent the weekend with Mr R. Rutledge. Guests with Mr and Mrs Geo. Jaynes were Mr and Mrs Peter LeBlanc and Jayne, Scarborough, Mrs Frances Cobbin and Ken Schooler of Mimico.

Mr and Mrs J. Stewart and family, Toronto, visited with Mrs L. D. Schutt on Sunday. Guests on the weekend at the J. Whittaker and S. Muir homes were Mr and Mrs Earl McLeod and Mr and Mrs Archie Huston, London.

Mrs Fred Marshall is out of the hospital and convalescing at the home of Mr and Mrs W. Marshall at Holland Centre.

Fashion Show Well Attended

Lucky draw winners were Miss Kim Schenk, Mrs Clarence McGirr, Mrs Earl Atkinson, Mrs Francis Fennell, Mrs Larry Vollett, and Mrs Lawrence Chapman. Mrs W. Prait conducted the draws, assisted by Miss Jennifer Player.

The proper method of applying make-up was demonstrated by Mrs Ross Brown, Beauty Counselor Representative, with Mrs Merv Dixon as her model. Music was supplied for the evening by Mrs Dan Neuman on the piano.

Former Area Resident Dies In London Hospital

Funeral services were held from the Kress Funeral Home, Durham, for a former area resident, William G. Caines, of Parkhill, who died Saturday at St. Joseph's Hospital in London. Mr Caines, who was 95, suffered a broken hip about two weeks ago. Mr Caines had lived in London during his earlier years and then moved to Glenelg Township. He later returned to London where he operated a garage business which he operated until his retirement. He was a member of the Shrine Order.

He is survived by his wife, the former Annie Davis, whom he married in Durham in 1921. A daughter died in infancy. Rev. A. H. Harrison of Trinity Anglican Church, Durham, conducted the funeral service on Tuesday afternoon.

Burial was made in the Trinity Anglican Cemetery in Glenelg Township.

John Schmitt, Elmwood, Dies

John Murray Schmitt of Elmwood died on Monday at the Hanover Hospital after a lengthy illness. He was 62.

Mr Schmitt was born March 15, 1906, in Bentinck Township, a son of the late Mr and Mrs Francis Schmitt. He farmed in Bentinck Township until 1963 when he retired. He moved to Elmwood two years ago. He was a member of the Missionary Church in Hanover.

Surviving are his wife, the former Ruby Louise Kobe; two sons and three daughters, John, Alan, Marilyn, Karen and Mary, all at home; and a sister, Mrs Howard (Annie) Gibbons of Kitchener. A brother, Roy, and a sister, Mrs A. (Alice) Redford,

Junior Farmers Hear Talk On O.P.P. Work

Constable McKenzie of the Mount Forest detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police spoke on September 12th at the Allan Park Junior Farmers' monthly meeting, held at the home of Miss Genevieve Wilby. President Bob Miller was in charge of the meeting. Thirteen members answered the roll call. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved on motions of Dave Krauter and Corleen Kaufman. A report was given by Dave Krauter about the Junior Farmer camp held at Geneva Park, Lake Couchiching, from September 2 to 9th.

Gwen Ebenau, Evelyn Krauter, Charles Gowing, and Tom Johnston were nominated to form a committee to make plans for the raising of club funds.

Announcements were made as follows: Wellington County Exchange on September 13, 14, and 15th; and the next Allan Park Junior Farmers meeting on October 10th at the home of Mr and Mrs Bob Kaufman.

Mr Bob Miller introduced the evening's speaker, Constable McKenzie of the Mount Forest detachment of the O.P.P. Constable McKenzie outlined his duties as a member of the detachment and proceeded to discuss the role of the police force. A very interesting and informative question and answer period followed. Mr Dave Krauter, on behalf of the members, thanked
