Mrs Laughlin McDougall passed away Wednesday, April 30, in Centre Grey Hospital, Markdale, where she had been a patient for several weeks. She was in her 93rd year. Mrs McDougall was the former Caroline Anderson, daughter of the late Alexander and Mary Ann Anderson and was born in Ewardsburg Township in 1877. She moved with her parents to Proton Township in 1884 and lived in Proton and Osprey Townships until her marriage to Laughlin McDougall in 1910. The couple left for the west after their marriage and farmed at South Quepell, Saskatchewan, for 32 years. They had no children. In 1942 they returned to the Priceville area and Mr McDougall predeceased her the same year.
 Mrs McDougall spent most of her remaining years in Priceville area except for the last few years in the Ottowell Nursing home at Faversham. She is survived by one sister, Mrs Donald McKinnon, and several nieces and and nephews.

 Funeral services were from Fawcett's Funeral home in Fiesherston on Saturday, May 3, with burial at McNeill's Cemetery, Priceville.
 Pallbearers were all nephews of the deceased, Farquhar McKinnon, John McKinnon, Lambert Love, John Woollard, Tom Currie and Alex Wilson.
 The family of Mrs Minnie Smith honored their mother on her 70th birthday with a family gathering and a turkey dinner in Stothart Hall, Priceville. Guests present were Mr and Mrs Bob Irving, Thornhill; Mr and Mrs Lorne Foster, Aurora; Mr and Mrs Alex Smith and family; Roddy McEachern; Mr and Mrs Bob Clydesdale and Joan; Doug Hutchinson and Doug French.
 Mrs Gladwyn Wiley was hostess to the Women's Institute for their May meeting in Stothart Hall. Mrs Tom Currie presided in the absence of the president and Miss Muriel Spicer read the Scripture.
 Mrs Neil Aldcorn reported on the banquet recently catered to. The installation of new officers was held with Mrs Stewart Boice as leader.
 Mrs Neil Aldcorn was appointed alternate to the district director.
 The district annual to be held in Mulock was discussed and plans made to attend. Donations were made to the Pennies for Friendship and donation to be sent to the annual for the penny table.
