Celebrate 95th Birthday, Sunday

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mr and Mrs Raymond Copeland and family of Chesley, on Sunday, May 4, in honor of Mr John B. Moore, formerly of Clarksburg, who was celebrating his 95th birthday.

Mr Moore was born on May 6, 1874, at McWilliam Station. He is enjoying good health and loves to be outdoors.

Mr Moore received many useful gifts and flowers, as well as numerous cards and telephone calls. Assisting him with the gifts was his daughter, Violet, Mrs Ernest Smart, Happy Birthday was sung.

Myrtle Wiley was in charge of the guest book. A buffet luncheon was served by granddaughters, Myrtle Wiley, Eleanor, Anne and Margaret Copeland and Kathleen Smart. Later a beautiful birthday cake with lighted candles was served to the guests.

Mr Moore expressed appreciation to the guests for the pleasant surprise to him for his 95th birthday, and was grateful he was enjoying such good health. Relatives and friends were present from Kitchener, Durham,

Cards of Thanks

McVicar - I wish to extend my thanks to family, neighbours, church organizations, and friends for cards, letters, flowers, visits and kind inquiries. Also to doctors and staff of Durham and Owen Sound Hospitals. Your thoughtfulness will not soon be forgotten.
- Etta McVicar.

VanGeem - We wish to thank all our friends who sent flowers, gifts and cards of congratulations on the arrival of our son. Your kindness is sincerely appreciated.
- Kees and Judy.

MacLean - To all those who expressed their sympathy in so many beautiful and practical ways during our recent bereavement, we extend our heartfelt thanks. Our special thanks go to our neighbours, who are indeed special in all ways, to the Legion for their sympathy and the impressive ceremony which they performed, to the ladies of the Baptist Church for the easing cup of tea served after the services, to Mr Russell McTavish for his kindness and for all the ways in which he was of very real help to all the family, and to Rev. Byron Cobham for his sympathy and the help and comfort which we received from his service.
- Mrs James MacLean and family.

Dobson - I wish to sincerely thank friends and neighbours for cards, treats, and visits received during my stay in Durham Hospital. Special thanks to Mrs Copper, Dr. Ennis, nurses and staff for their wonderful care.
- Mannie Dobson.

Vasey - The recent bereavement which has visited our home has brought to us a greater appreciation of our friends. Such kindnesses and neighbourly thoughtfulness can never be forgotten.
- The Vasey Family.

Barrie, Meaford, Fairmount, Markdale, Rosedale, Chesley, Williamsford, Swinton Park, and Flesherton.
Mr Moore's son, Robert, resides at Swinton Park, and daughter, Violet, Mrs Ernest Smart, in Markdale. His brother, Thomas Moore of Durham, is in his 93rd year. There are seven grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren.
