The event in the life of Dr. E. C. Murray hinted at by us in our last writing took place on Thursday the 27th inst., and was none other than his happy union in wedlock with Agnes Ramage, George Roberts, 82 Armstrong Avenue, and eldest daughter of Mr. Wm. Henderson, of Mt. Zion, Artemesia. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents which had been appropriately decorated for the occasion. The nuptials were performed by Rev. T. R. White, of Eugenia, Murray, of Toronto, and the bride's sister, Miss Tena Henderson, discharged the duties of groomsman and bridesmaid. The bride wore a becoming travelling suit of grey cloth, trimmed with white satin and black velyet. The bridesmaid was also dressed in grey. On account of recent: bereavement only a few im-Mr. Henry Hill, Grocer, 1152 Duf- mediate relatives of the contracting wedging supper was served and an enjoyable season spent together after which the happy couple left for friends.
