The Corner Store.
Messrs. J. & J. Hunter have, this week, moved their goods into the new store at the corner, and at time of writing are busily engaged in getting things set to rights. The new premises will be a great improvement on the one in which they have been doing business for a number of years past, and now, we trust that, with better light and better accommodation, they may, if possible, be able to render better service. The stand is certainly a good one, and we believe the Hunter Bros. have conducted business in such a way in the past as to merit a good share of public confidence. The store is about 70 feet long, by about 20 feet wide, and an additional recess in the rear of Mr. Macfarlane's jewellery store, about 30 feet in length, gives them a total length of about 100 feet. The windows are fine plate glass, and the ceilings are metallic. The shelving and counters are all new, and the building is heated from a boiler in the basement, which is intended to supply steam pipes throughout the whole new block. The building belongs to Mr. McIntyre, to whom, more than once, we felt compelled to give credit for his enterprise for making such material improvements.

Rev. J. A. Magwood, of Holstein, delivered two very acceptable sermons in the Methodist Church here on Sunday last morning and evening, having exchanged work with the pastor, Rev. Wray Smith. The evening discourse was exceedingly practical and gave evidence of matured thought.
Mr. Pete McEwen, of Regina, is spending the winter with friends in the neighborhood of Orchard. He was absent nearly two years, and comes back quite in love with the country, intending to return in the early spring. He gave us a call Tuesday looking well. The crops around Regina, he says were good.
Mr. David Hicks B. A., who held the position of Classical teacher in the School here during the past term left on Monday morning last for Wardsville, County of Middlesex, to take charge of the classical department in the High School of that town. We knew Mr. Hicks a number of years ago, and the more intimate acquaintance formed since he came to this town forces us to express our desire that he may meet with abundant success in his new field of labor.
Mr. R. Gray, of Hamilton, gave us a brief call Monday. He gave us a two nights' moving picture, and phonographic entertainment the week previous to last tissue, but the mention of the matter wholly slipped our memory. Owing to some misplacement of the lenses the moving pictures were not successfully represented the first but everything went O. K. the next evening. He is giving exhibitions round the country this week and we believe that all who have not yet seen this wonderful invention should avail themselves of the opportunity now.

OBITUARIES.

REV. CHARLES CAMERON.
On Thursday, January 3rd, there passed away the Rev. Charles Cameron, one of the pioneer ministers of the county, and for a number of years a respected citizen of our town. Born in 1819 he had entered on the fifth score of years, and though up till within little more than a week of the time of his death he enjoyed a fair measure of health, his feeble step told of the frailties of declining years.
His early education, which was begun in Edinburgh where he took the full course of university lectures and one year in theology, was completed by his taking the two remaining sessions in theology in Knox College, Toronto. After a period spent in mission work in the newer districts, he was, in 1861, duly settled at Priceville and the Rocky Saugeen. Besides these two widely separated charges, he had other stations lying as far to the east and north of Priceville, so that a great part of his time was necessarily spent in the saddle. After seventeen years of such arduous pioneer work, he labored for shorter periods at Moose Creek, in the township of Roxborough, Co'swell, and Armow, retiring from the latter charge and from the active work of the ministry in 1888.
Representatives from Priceville the Rocky Saugeen, Dornoch and Chatsworth were at the funeral testifying by their presence to the respect in which he was held by those among whom his best years were spent. Revs. Matheson, Graham and Little assisted at the funeral services, while Rev. Mr. Ryan, of the church of the Baptist church, showed their respect by their presence. Mr. Farquharson, in a brief address, summed up the outstanding characteristics of the deceased as "Intense devotedness to what he felt to be his duty." "An eager desire to apprehend for himself from original sources the teaching of God's word and a love for the Saviour that was marked and testified to as long as there was power to speak." Such men may have their failings. Who has not? But very few are the men that leave the world better than they found it. Earnestly we may wish that the new century, with all its advantages, may go on producing men of a like stalwart and independent type.
MRS. JAMES ALLAN.
The death of Mrs. Mary Allan last Thursday morning terminated a very happy and useful life of more than the allotted span, she being 86 years. Up till the last she was blessed with the best of health and other essentials to happiness. She was born in the town of Milton, parish of Orr, Scotland, and at the age of twenty-two changed the name of Miss Mary Tait for that of Mrs. Jas. Allan. In the year 1854 with their family of small children they immigrated to Canada and took up their abode in the Tp. of Trafalgar where they resided for four years after which they removed to lot 15, con. 3 Egremont, on which they spent the remainder of their days. Mr. Allan predeceased her 15 years. She was the mother of six children, five sons and one daughter, Mrs. Nelson Main who has gone on before. The sons are John, farmer, James, County Com., David, Tp. Clerk, Thomas, Principal of Durham School, and William on the old homestead. They have always been faithful followers of the Presbyterian denomination, consequently the Rev. Mr. Campbell conducted the services both in the home and at the grave side in Maplewood cemetery where the remains were laid to rest. The funeral was one of the largest ever seen in this part.—Corner cor.

We regret to report this week the death of another of the old pioneer settlers, Mr. Wm. Porter, who passed away on the 5th to that land from which no traveller returns. The deceased was 80 years and 2 months old, was a native of Tyrone, Ireland. In 1845 he married Miss Mary Ann Kennedy, of Fermanagh, Ireland and emigrated to Canada, landing in Montreal in 1847. They moved to Cooksville thence to Toronto and in 1854 to Bentinck and settled on lot 19, con. 5, north of the Durham Road. A family of fifteen children, nine boys and six girls was the result of the union of whom there are six living. In religion he was an English Church man and in politics was a strong Conservative, he was also a member of the Orange Order. The deceased was a kind and obliging old gentleman and highly respected by all who knew him. He leaves a widow, one son and five daughters to mourn his departure, Abraham, of Hepworth, Mrs. J. Johnston, of Lam-lash, Mrs. Geo. Bailey, of Vickers, Mrs. Henry Jones, of Shallow Lake, Mrs. Jas. Smith, of Cheboygan, Mich., and Mrs. James Bell, of Wingham. His remains were followed to his last resting place in the Crispin cemetery, Hanover, on Tuesday by a large cortege of relatives and friends. We extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved family in their hour of sorrow.
The little son of Mr. John Hopkins was very sick with bronchitis, but under the skilful treatment of Dr. Jamieson the little fellow is improving nicely.
Mr. John Adlam and Miss Jane Ewen, of Aberdeen, were married last Wednesday, and Mr. Jas. Alexander and Miss C. We wish them all the compliments of the season.

CORNER CONCERNS.

The Gray Bros. are going to give one of their combination concerts on Wednesday night in the School, which is so highly spoken of. Part of the proceeds to go towards the Library fund.
An Orangeville farmer returning home Saturday evening from exchanging a thoroughbred bull for a rooster with a Glenelg farmer, must have thought the road south of Durham very rough for he was upsetting sleigh, bird and all about every sixty rods, and going at the rate of a mile every three minutes meant about 100 upsets every hour. Mr. Clark finally undertook to pilot him as far as Varney and show him what part of the road we use for travel.
Mr. Ben Crittenden was elected to the office of trustee at the annual meeting.
Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman, of Markdale, visited this part on Tuesday long enough to look at all their friends.
