His companion seeing that all was up, fled and got the patrol, who came promptly to the rescue, but not before he had received several cuts on the lip. When the natives saw the patrol coming they lest heart, and the Sergeant got up and fought his way through them. He ran to the post hospital and had his wounds dressed by Major Fisher. He seemed to be doing nicely up to the 12th day when he took a relapse. The wound THE EDITOR : became poisoned and the result was he contracted lock-jaw, from which he never recovered. His funeral was conducted in true military style, being led by the 19th Infantry band to the Mabolo cemetery. His remains were drawn on a gun carriage and his horse draped in black, and having resting place. This was one of the most impressive and largely attended funerals ever seen in Cebu, the Sergeant being well liked by all who knew him. The native who killed him was afterwards caught, but had hardly

Gram=o=Phone

This is the machine that talks-sings-plays every instrument-reproduces Sousa's Band-string orhcestras-Negro Minstrels, Church Choirs, etc. It reproduces the violin, piano, flute, cornet, trombone, banjo, mandolin, piccolo and every other instrument. The Berliner Gram-o-phone is louder-clearer, simpler and better than any other talking machine at any price. It sings every kind of song, sacred, comic, sentimental, patriotic, "Coon" songs, English, French and Scotch Songs, selections from Grand and Comic Operas, plays cake walks, waltzes, two-steps, marches, in fact everything that can be played on any instrument or number of instruments can be reproduced on the Berliner Gram-o-phone with the wonderful indestruct-
