DURHAM CHRONICLE

IS PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING AT THE CHRONICLE PRINTING HOUSE, CARAFRAXA STREET DURHAM, ONT.

IRSCRIPTION THE CHRONICLE will be sent to any address, free of postage, for $1.00 per . . year, payable in advance-$1.50 may e charged if not so paid. The date to which every subscription is paid is denoted by the number on the eddress label. No paper discontinued until all arrear. are paid, except at the option of the proprietor.

DVERTISING For transient advertisements 8 cents po ine for the first insertion; 3 cents p . . line each subsequenc insertion-minic seasure. Professional cards, not exceeding one incl 4.00 per annum. Advertisements without specif directions will be published till forbid and charged an ordingly Transient notices-"Lost," "Found, For Sale," etc .- 50 cents for first insertion, 25 cent for each subsequent insertion.

All advertisements ordered by strangers must be pair or in advance. Contract rates for yearly advertisements furnished application to the office. All advertise nexts, to ensure insertion in curren

THE JOB :: Is completely stocked with week, should be brought in not later than Tunspa

DEPARTMENT all NEW TYPE, thus affording facilities for turning out First-class work. . . .

____ W. IRWIN, EDITOR AND I ROPRIETOR.

The Chronicle Contains

Each week an epitome of the world's news, articles on the household and farm, and serials by the most popular authors.

Its Local News is Complete and market reports accurate

THE PERFECT TEA

FINEST TEA

FROM THE TEA PLANT TO THE TEA CUP IN ITS NATIVE PURITY.

"Monsoon" Tea is packed under the supervision of the Tea growers, and is advertised and sold by there as a sample of the best qualities of Indian and Ceylod Teas. For that reason they see that none but the very fresh leaves go into Monsoon packages. That is why "Monsoon, the perfect Tea, can bl r'd at the same price as inferior tea.

oft is put up in sealed caddles of 16 lb., r ib, and ibs., and sold in three flavours at joc., soc. and 600 If your grocer does not keep it, toil him to write STEEL, HAYTEP & CO., 12 and 13 Front St

DURHAM

GRISTING AND CHOPPING DONE on shortest notice and satisfaction guaranteed.

FLOUR; OATMEAL and FEED

CHESAWMILL

We ar now prepared to do all kinds of custom work.

UMBER, SHINGLES AND LATHS alway on hand.

N., G. & J. MCKECHNIE.

the oldest, simplest, safest and remedy for the relief and cure Marrhosa, Dysentery, Cramps, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, lera Infantum, Summer Com-Canker of the Mouth or and all fluxes of the of infants or adults. imitations, many of which

EDITORIAL NOTES

"Success" is a talismanic word, with a sound as cheerful as the ring of a gold coin. Nearly everybody is interested in discussions as to the conditions governing successful achievements, as is evidenced by the great number of articles on the subject that are all the while appearing in the magazines. Truly if good advice could of itself bring fame and honors every reading boy should by this time be on the road to success. Success however, is a relative matter. What may be success for one may be comparative failure for another. This principle holds good not merely pecuniary matters, where the ric man fails for want of a sum which would make a poor man, in his cwi estimation at least, very rich, but also through a very wide range of human interests. For one man, with a certain calibre of mind, to master given facts is to succeed, while for a Newton or a Kepler to acquire the same facts would be only to begin to succeed. And so it goes-the success in every case requiring to be estimated not simply as regards its content of gain but also relatively to the less or more that that particular man might have accomplished in the increase proportionately.

tury things, but we have even more One night, in a desperate fit of Gertie, eagerly. world is growing fast, driving ahead wiser man. world, old empires are disintegrating, been spared him. and new opportunities of evangeliza-tained in the past, will suit the new tempest-tossed life. he must, as regards the practical results of his work and the far reaching character of his influence, achieve the flight must be longer and the vision just so much the clearer of the duties that lie on the farther hori-

A Princess Chemise.-Longcloth,

Heiress and Wife.

CHAPTER XXIL-Continued. "Youth is blind and will not see," had been too bitterly true with him. It was in his college days, when the world seemed all gayety, youth sunshine to him, he first met beautiful face that was to darken all of his after life. He was young and impulsive; he thought it was love that fill his heart for the beautifull friendless in that little college town. He never once asked who or what by storm; every young man at the young voice. lark it would be to steal a march on makes life worth the living." pursuit of fortune. The winning of short happy week he lived in a fool's pause involuntarity.

morrow's failure. As opportunities their little child Pluma, and, placing have done. increase the size of the success must her in her father's arms, bitter re- "I am sure I don't like it," Gertie "Eve, you are actually absurd!"

surpass anything that has been called did it matter to him where they pure spite." success in the Nineteenth Century, went? Life was the same to him in "I believe it," answered Bess, "You may as well tell me anyhow," same ability, were to go with the of civilization. We have already on Heaven only knew how weary he was for it outright."

Twentieth Century hopes than we anger, she threw herself into the sex; "Tell them! Why, I look exceeding- Daisy Brooks an introduction to Rex and from three to ten times the have things. Our future is our rich- her body was never recovered. Then ly surprised, replying: 'I do not know Lyon." est possession. The years keep com- the master of Whitestone Hall re- to whom you refer. We have no com- A defiant look stole over Eve's mis- own and other people's, has done so ing with enlarging promises. The turned with his child, a sadder and pany at the house just now.' I mean chievous face.

some directions foolishly. Manners, been added last. The golden-haired blue eyes. If not your guest, may I strict orders from my marriageable opinions, and phraseologies are chang- young wife, the one sweet love whom ask who she is? I am certainly com- sisters not to.' Is that what you ideas young people from the country ing, if not life's central purposes and he had married last, was taken from pelled to answer so direct a thrust," mean?" powers. New means of communica- him; even her little child, tiny image continued Bess, angrily; "and I ask in "Eve," they both cried in chorus, are as a rule very far from correct. tion to be opened up throughout the of that fair young mother, had not well-feigned wonder: 'Surely you do 'don't be unsisterly; don't put a A city resident must wear expensive

How strange it was such a passion- paid companion ?" tion created almost every day by ate yearning always came over him "What do they say to that ?" asked "I shall not bind myself to such a > strange unaccountable fate urged him doesn't it ?" to ever seek for that one face even in "Mercy, no !" cried Bess, raising her anyhow ?"

order of things. The Twentieth No wonder he set his teeth hard to- "I don't see what every one can see "I don't choose to remain in such Century man in order to be as much gether as he listened to the cold words in that little pink-and-white baby-face polite society," said Eve, with a mockof a success as his predecessor of the of the proud, peerless beauty before of hers to rave over so !" cries Gertie, ing courtesy, skipping toward the door. Nineteenth Century, must be more of him, who bore every lineament of her hotly. "I can't imagine where in the "I may take a notion to write a little a success. As he will have new op- mother's dark, fatal beauty - this world people see her. I have as much note to Mr. Rex, inviting him over portunities, new inspirations, new daughter who scornfully spoke of the as told her she was not expected to to see our household fairy, just as the helpers, and new and improved tools, hour when he should die as of some come into the parlor or drawing-room spirit moves me." happy, long-looked-for event.

Those waving cotton-fields that do you suppose she said ?" much more than has been accomplish- the eye could reach, like a waving field ing with ennui. ed in the past. As life's range will of snow, laid waste beneath the fire be broader so its round-up must be fiend's scorching breath! Never- torted Gertie. "She seized my hand, way, three steps at a bound.

conscious young heiress lost all ever so much !" chances of reigning a regal queen, by fair means, of Whitestone Hall.

CHAPTER XXIII.

The servant who opened the door for Daisy looked earnestly at fair, pleading young face, framed in rings of golden hair, so pure and spiritual that it looked like an angel's with the soft white moonlight falling over it.

"You will not refuse me," she repeated, timidly. "I must speak to Mrs. Lyon."

"You have come too late," he plied, gently ; "Mrs. Lyon is dead." The man never forgot the despairing look of horror that deepened in the childish blue eyes raised to his. "Rex's mother dead !" she repeated, slowly, wondering if she had heard aright. "Oh, my poor Rex, my poor Rex !" How she longed to go to him and comfort him in that terrible hour, but she dared not intrude upon him.

"If there is any message you would like to leave," said the kind-hearted Parker, "I will take it to Mr. Rex." "No," said Daisy, shaking her head,

"I have no message to leave; perhaps I will come again-after this is all over," she made answer, hesitatingly; her brain was in a whirl; she wanted to get away all by herself think. "Please don't say any one was here," she said, quickly; "I-I don't want any one to know."

The sweet, plaintive voice, as sweet yards; lace, 8 yards; insertion, 61-2 ful, mysterious visitor, he would certainly respect her wishes.

"I shall not mention it if you do not ly." wish it." he said.

"Thank you," she replied, simply; the matter," said Bess, coolly. "you are very kind. My life seems made up of disappointments," she continued, as she walked slowly home under the restless, sighing green

It seemed so indeed. She was so hadn't a dollar in the world !" young and inexperienced to be thrown world-cut off so entirely from all thusiasm. human sympathy. She entered the she was, or from whence she came, house quite unobserved. Eve-bright, stance," persisted Eve, absolutely rethis beautiful creature with the large, merry, dashing Eve-was singing like fusing to be silenced. "I dark, dreamy eyes that thrilled his a lark in the drawning-room, making wager a box of the best kid gloves heart into love. She carried the town the old house echo with her bright either one of you would marry him to- over a new waltz when I came up-college was deeply desperately in . "How happy she is !" thought Daisy, hadn't a penny in his pocket." love. But Basil, the handsomest and wistfully. "She has home, friends, wealthiest of them all, thought what a and love, while I have nothing that beauty then and there. He not only through the dim, shadowy hall, toward the very roots of their hair. They well thought it, but executed it, but it her own little room. She saw Gertie's knew in their hearts what she said was thought door was ajar as she passed it, and the perfectly true. one sound of her own name caused her to cess for a one-talent man, but not the spirit of his dreams. In that one pause. How many are there who us something. Come, now, for a five-talent man. Success is week she had spent his year's income would have passed on quietly, with no that you will do as we wish, that's a relative too in the sense that it is and all the money he could borrow, desire to know what was being said good girl." meant to be for all a progressive ex- then petulantly left him in anger. of themselves, when they heard their perience. The success of yesterday For two long years he never looked own names mentioned in such a sneer- what you want ?" said Eve, petulant- warned me not to talk to you of love makes way for the greater success upon her face again. One stormy ing manner? Daisy certainly meant ly. "You might want the man in the or lovers. I intend to have a great what it was yesterday becomes to- at Whitestone Hall beinging with her fully and enriously as any one would get his earthly brothers. for all I ing to tell you now." what it was yesterday becomes to- at Whitestone Hall, bringing with her fully and curiously, as any one would get his earthly brethren, for all I ing to tell you now."

criminations followed. Bitterly Basil was saying, spitefully. "It is an ac- cried Bess, sharply. "This is merely a Hurthurst repented that terrible mis- tual shame allowing Daisy Brooks to slight favor we wish you to do" take of his youth, that hasty marmage, remain here. Uncle Jet was a mean "If you warn her not to do a thing, It becomes evident then that a When the morning light dawned he old thing to send her here, where that is just what she will set her heart Twentieth Century success, to be took his wife and child from White- there were three marriageable young upon doing," said Gertie significantly. that only four men out of every hunworthy of the name, must greatly stone Hall-took them abroad. What ladies. I tell you he did it out of By this time Eve's curiosity was well dred who start in business reach suc-

The phrase "Twentieth Century" has one part of the world as another. For spiritedly. "Every one of my beaus she said; "for if you don't, and I ever same energy into farming, forty out now become a kind of a trade mark a year they led a weary life of it. either hints for an introduction or asks find out what it is, I'll do my very of every hundred would make good that beautiful, golden-haired little "If he asks me, I m to turn and walk the line of action that is to make in many directions furiously and in But the bitterest drop in his cup had fairy, with the rosy cheeks and large off, or I'm to say, 'No, sir, I am under 20th century farming more pleasant

When he saw a fair, golden-haired sister's ingenuity, and tossing her curl ing to spoil my pet scheme. I believe of the knowledge he needs to fit him the unexampled opportunities and young girl, with eyes of blue, the pain papers until every curl threatened to you two are actually witches and multiplied assisting agencies afford- in his heart almost stifled him. Some tumble down. "That settles it, guessed it. What put it into your

No relatively small achievement, the midst of crowds. It was a mad, eyebrows; "not a bit of it. The "Then you were actually thinking of though it be large as measured foolish fancy, yet it was the one con- more I say against her-in a sweet going against our interest in that somewhere in his up-bringing. against some standards that have ob- solation of Basil Hurlhurst's weary, way, of course - the more they are de. way," cried Gertie, white to the very when strangers were there, and what This was really more than Gertie's and said : 'Oh, Miss Gertrude, that is Then and there the proud, self- very kind of you, indeed! I thank you to be !" she cried, pantingly, as she "Pshaw I" cried Bess, contemptaously. "That was a trick to make you believe she did not want to be observed by our guests. She is a sly, ered voice from the pillows. designing little creature, with her pretty face and soft, childish ways."

"But there is one point that serious. ly troubles me," said Gertie, fastening the pink satin bow on her tiny slipper more securely, and breaking off the thread with a nervous twitch. am seriously afraid, if Rex were to see her, that would be the end of our castle in the air. Daisy Brooks has just the face to attract a handsome, debonair young fellow like Rex."

"You can depend upon it he shall never see her," said Bess, decidedly Where there's a will there's a way." "I have never been actually jealous of any one before," said Gertie, flushing furiously, as she acknowledged the fact ; "but that Daisy has such a way of attracting people toward her! they quite forget your presence when she is around. 'When one rival leaves the field, another one is sure to come to the fore,' That's a true saying," said Gertie, meditatively. "You see, he did not marry the heiress of Whitehouse Hall. So he is still the market, to be captured by some lucky girl."

quietly without a struggle," talk of lovers and riches !" she cried, medicine now has. For old and young & Co., Toronto.

throwing berself down on the sofe. do hate to hear love weighed against riches, as if it were a purchasable article. According to your ideas, if a fellow was worth a hundred thou-

"For shame I" cried Eve, in a fury. "It's an actual sin to way. If a handsome man loves you, and you love him, why, you ought to marry him if he Gertie and the worldly-wise Bess the late conversation down-stairs. so entirely upon the cold, pitiless laughed at their younger sister's en-

"Now there's Rex Lyon, for inmorrow, if he were to ask you, if he stairs."

"Pshaw!" reiterated Gertie, and Bess murmured something about absurd ideas; but nevertheless both them all by marrying the dark-eyed Like a shadow, she flitted on sisters were blushing furiously fo

"Eve," said Bess, laying her hand coaxingly on the young rebel's one talent more may constitute suc- paradise, then a change came over! It was very natural for Daisy to "Gertie and I want you to promise worst, because you kept it from me."

want you to promise us not to give hands, less travel to the weary feet not mean Daisy Brooks, my mother's stumbling-block in our path; rather clothing, pay a good deal for unexremove it !"

wholesale. All this progress de- when he thought of his child! Gertie, laughing heartily at her elder promise!" cried Eve. . "You are try- spend years learning the rudiments." heads that I had any such intentions termined to form her acquaintance." lips, "you insolent little minx!"

warm, southern temper could bear. stretched out on all sides as far as "Cried, perhaps," said Bess, yawn- She actually flew at the offending Eve in her rage; but Eve was nimble "She did nothing of the kind," re- of foot and disappeared up the stair-

> "What a vixen our Gertie is growing reached the top step.

She saw a light in Daisy's room, and tapped quietly on the door. "Is that you, Eve ?" cried a smoth-

"Yes," replied Eve; "I'd like very in the popularity of trial by jury is much to come in. May I?"

For answer, Daisy opened the door, juries to disagree.

but Eve stood quite still on the three-

"What's the matter, Daisy, have you been crying f" "Why, your eyelids are red and sand, you would love him moderately : swollen, and your eyes glow like the but if he was worth half a million, stars. Has Gertie or Bess said anyyou could afford to love him immense- thing cross to you?" she inquired, smoothing back the soft golden curls "You have got a sensible idea of that clustered round the white brow.

"No," said Daisy, choking down hot hard sob; "only I am very unhappy Eve, and I feel just-just as if every one in the world hated me."

"How long have you been up here in your room f" asked Eve, suspiciously, fearing Daisy had by chance overheard truthfully. talking about downstairs, did you f"

she inquired, anxiously.

"Oh," said Eve, breathing freer, thinking to herself. "She has not heard what we said. I am thankful

"You must not talk like that, Daisy," she said, gayly, clasping her arms caressingly around the slender figure leaning against the casement 'I predict great things in store for ou-wonderful things. Do not start shall not tell you anything else, for it is getting dangerously near a certain "How can I promise before I know forbidden subject. You know you

MORE FARMERS.

It is stated on good authority hand a great many Twentieth Cen- of the woman the law called his wife! "What do you tell them?" questions "Well," said Gertie, eagerly, "we really happy on. Less work with the much to make work easier. That is for any position worth keeping. dividual aptitude and tastes must always be allowed for, but a boy born on a farm with no interest in what sees there must have had a bad taint "Last fall I was in a very serious con-

JURY TRIALS IN ENGLAND.

Is trial by jury becoming less popular? The London Law Journal thinks when I had used two boxes I was comthere is some ground for believing pletely cured. that it is. The proportion of actions to be tried without juries in the queen's bench division during present term is exceptionally large the jury cases number 295 and the nonjury cases 190. Even more striking is the want of faith in trial by jury displayed by litigants in the county courts. The total number of actions determined by these tribunals in 1899 was 732,094, and only 1,018 were tried with juries. The number of actions tried with juries in 1899 was, with the exception of 1897, the smallest for 16 years. Possibly this decline due to the increasing tendency of

Grippe Deadlier Than Smallpox."

Says Dr. Dillingham of the New York Health Board -The Dreadful After-Effects Most to Be Dread-

many cases in which the after effects of la grippe have proven fatal. How many people are now complaining of enervating effects of la grippe there is for nearly a year. special allments or lingering sufferings or weaknesses which are clearly the results of the debilitating effects

The best plan is to prevent la grippe if possible, or, once a victim, to apply ourself diligently to obtaining what Every reader of this paper can recall alike it can be used with perfect safety and with absolute assurance that the effects will be remarkably beneficial.

nothing so suitable for your use as nerve restorative and blood builder. The regular and persistent use this great food cure is bound to result cause it contains in condensed pill form, the most efficient restoratives

Dr. hase's Syrup of Linseed and Tur- no case is it more successful than in p n ine is a me e cough remedy. It is restoring and reinvigorating a eys. | ville, Ont. Before she could reply Eve popped far more. It thoroughly cures the tem wasted by la grippe. Whether

THE NEW METHOD TREATMENT, original with Drs. K. & K., will positively cure forever any form of Blood or Sexual disease. It is the resu't of 30 rears' experience in the treatment of

This terrible Blood Poison, the terror of mankind, yields readily to our NEW TREATMENT. Beware of Mercury, otash, etc. They may ruin your system. fearing Daisy had by chance overheard the late conversation down-stairs.

"Quite an hour," answered Daisy, truthfully.

"Then you did not hear what I was talking about downstairs, did you?" she inquired, anxiously.

"No," said Daisy, "you were playing the skin becomes healthy, and marriage is possible and safe.

Thousands of young and middle-aged men have their vigor and vitality sapped by early abuses, later excesses, mental worry, etc. No matter the cause, our New Method Treatment is the refuge.

tion. Ambition, life and energy are re-newed, and one feels himself a man among men. Every case is treated individually—no cure-all—hence our wonderful success. No matter what ails you, consult us confidentially. We can furnish bank bonds to guarantee to accomplish what we claim.

DRO. KENNEDY& KERGAN Cor. Michigan Ave. and Shelby St. DETROIT, MICH.

K&KK&KKKK&

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are just what every weak, nervous, run-down woman needs to make her strong and well. They cure those feelings of smothering pected and unavoidable expenses, and and sinking that come on at times, make must before he can earn a dollar the heart beat strong and regular, give sweet, refreshing sleep and banish headaches and nervousness. They infuse new life and energy into dispirited, health-shat-In- tered women, who have come to think there is no cure for them.

Read the words of encouragement in this letter from Mrs. Thos, Sommars, Clifhe ton, New London, P.E.I.

dition suffering from nervousness and weakness, I got so bad at last that I could hardly move around, and despaired of ever getting well. Seeing Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills highly recommended for such conditions I purchased a box. "Refore I had taken half of !

notice an improvement in my condition and "It was wonderful how these pills took away that dreadful feeling of nervousness and gave me strength. "I recommended them to my neighand they cured her, too. We all think there is nothing equal to Milburn's Heart and > R·I·P·A·N·S The modern standard Family Medicine: Cures the common every-day ills of humanity.

Ringworm.

"I had ringworm on my head

"I consulted three doctors but derived little or no benefit from their treatment.

"I then commenced to use Burdock Blood Bitters.

"Besides taking it internally "Well, if I am the lacky one, you flammation in the throat and bronchi- a few years, this famous discovery of I washed the affected parts with must forgive me, Gertie. All is fair langs, and prevents pneumonia or con- has become generally recognized by langs, and prevents pneumonia or con- has become generally recognized by finished I was completely his wealth is too tempting to see slip I is a great mistake to suppose that strengthener and blood builder. In cured." Elsie Slaght, Teetercambric, nainsook, sephyr, or silk as the silvery note of a forest bird, in through the long French window would be used for this garment. went straight to his heart.

in through the long French window cold as well, and seems to take the weakened by overwork, worry or dispute the weakened by overwork, worry or dispute the silvery note of a forest bird, in through the long French window cold as well, and seems to take the weakened by overwork, worry or dispute the silvery note of the silvery note of a forest bird, in through the long French window cold as well, and seems to take the weakened by overwork, worry or dispute the silvery note of the silvery note o ordinary cough mixture could ever new vigor and vitality Fifty cents a makes the blood rich and pure, drives all "Oh, I'm so tired of hearing you two attain the enormous sale which this box, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates foul material from the system and builds