We noticed Tom Caldwell, a few evenings ago, bringing in a number of very fine colts, a couple of which are now in charge of Bob Scott. We don't know where they were purchased, but they are likely looking fellows and we presume all right or Tom would hardly have them.

We learn that some person or persons put a report in circulation that a case of Diphtheria had broken out at the home of Mr. J. H. Brown, milk vendor. On the strength of the very best authority, and at the request of Mr. Brown we contradict the report as there is no foundation for any such rumor.

EARLY on Monday morning last Mrs. Walter Tucker, of this town, died at the age of 77 years, after a short illness, which resulted from cold contracted a few weeks ago. Only a few months ago we had to undergo the painful duty of recording the death of her husband, who died after a prolonged illness. The deceased was a sister of the late postmaster, Mr. A. McKenzie, and Mr. Duncan McKenzie, of this town. The remains were interred Tuesday afternoon at the Durham cemetery.

The matter has never been mentioned to us in any way but we believe it would be a good idea to have a night mail from Toronto come by the Grand Trunk. As it is, the C. P. R. for Owen Sound and the G. T. R. for Durham leave Toronto about the same time the Grand Trunk reaching here about the same time the C. P. R. reaches Flesherston. With a closed mail from Toronto arriving by the last train the evening papers and considerable mail matter would reach us in time for distribution at eight o'clock next morning instead of being forced to wait until the arrival of stage from Flesherston, some three hours later. How do business men feel on the subject?

On Monday evening of this week the Baptist Young People's Union spent a very pleasant evening together with other friends in the Baptist church. An excellent program was carefully prepared by the members of the Union, which consisted of speaking, singing, recitations and readings. Mr. H. P. Ball, President of the Union, very ably occupied the chair. At the close of the program refreshments were served, and an enjoyable hour spent together, after which the choir gave a selection entitled "Until we Meet Again". The meeting closed with the benediction and a hearty shake of the hand from the members of the Union. The young people of the Baptist church are always to the front in sociability.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Editor Mitchell and Peter Zinn, of Hanover, gave us a call Wednesday.

The Rev. T. H. Farr, B. A., of Atwood, will conduct divine service at Allan's school-house on Sunday.

Mr. Fred Tyler and Jas. Allan, of Mt. Forest, attended the skating carnival.

Mr. Duncan Marshall, editor of the Clarksburg Reflector, spent a few days in town.

Mr. Strong, of Woodbridge, was in town last week and called in to see us for a few minutes.

T. P. Smith, Eye Specialist, will be at the Middaugh House, Wednesday March 20th.

Mr. Lavelle and family have taken up their abode in the new house recently built by Mr. Archie Little.

Mrs. Fulton and her sister, Miss McGillivray, of Muloch, were in town Monday and gave Ye Editor a brief call.

Mr. Joseph Allan and Mr. Thos. Idle, of Thornbury, visited their uncle, Mr. Adam Robertson, over Sunday.

Inspector Campbell addressed the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at Dromore on Thursday evening, Feb. 28th.

Miss Ayers, of Sarnia, daughter of Rev. W. Ayers, paid ye Editor and family a short visit last week, as she was going through to visit her sister, Mrs. Joseph Blackburn, of Flesherston. We are always pleased to meet an old pupil.

Mr. Hamilton Allen the popular blacksmith, of Hopeville, gave us a call on Friday, and gave us something more for which we are truly thankful. He was out in Glenelg visiting his aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Allen, who are both quite ill at present.

The Rev. Y. E. Boyagean, of Armentia, will preach in the Zion Methodist church on Sunday, at 2:30 p. m., and in the Durham Methodist church at 7 p. m. This is an excellent opportunity to hear of the suffering and persecution of the Armenia people.

Mr. Charles Leavens, who has been carrying on business here as harness maker for a number of years, leaves next week for Calgary where he has secured a good position. While we regret to lose good industrious citizens like Mr. and Mrs. Leavens, we are pleased to know that they are bettering their own conditions by their removal. We shall be pleased to hear of their success, and believe that the good wishes of the whole town go with them to their new home.

Pete McEwen, who has been down from the West during the past few months, returned Wednesday to Lumsden, Assa. We saw him Monday, and feel that he isn't sorrowing over the fact that he is about to leave. We ordinarily call the Western men "Mr." but that doesn't suit Pete, who thinks his old friends would wonder where he got the new name if such a handle was tacked on. He reports favorably of the West, with which he has had considerable experience. "They'll miss me when I'm gone," says Pete in answer our question as to whether he had any farewell remarks to make. We're kind of sorry to see him go, but as long as he takes THE CHRONICLE and keeps it paid up as regularly as he has done, we'll keep for him a kind spot in our memory.

THE LIBERALS are holding their Convention here this, Wednesday, afternoon. We can't very well go to it, and without an invitation it mightn't be right. However we'll give a report of what's totake place. Delegates will be present from different parts of the riding, and about as many aspirants for the parliamentary plum as there are delegates. The nominees will be H. H. Miller, Dr. Mearns, Gilbert McKechnie, George Binnie, J. D. Morgan, Duncan Marshall, Mayor Calder, Charlie Ramage and about fifteen others. Considerable time will be spent in a kind of mutual admiration fashion. The two governments will be lauded away up. Every one will express his willingness and determination to stand by the choice of the Convention, and thus united they'll be sure to sweep everything before them, and annihilate forever all future chances for the obnoxious Tories. The principal speeches will be made by H. H. Miller, Dr. Mearns and Duncan Marshall. Mayor Calder's speech will be very practical. He'll be able to show that he stands in well with the Government, and if elected some big scheme will be carried out sure, the chief one being the erection of a cement monument in Queen's Park in honor of the Durham Chronicle, the final touches being allowed to remain until the post mortem of the great family journal when a magnificent golden angel will be erected on the top to commemorate the virtues of the present Editor. He'll show also that he is to be general manager, boss the job and hire all the men to whom he'll give big wages and three glasses of beer daily. Hurrah for Calder!

OUR SIGN

Implies a good deal more than similar signs. Some wall paper "dealers" ought to call themselves wall paper agents. They have a small stock on hand and can get any paper they don't have. We have a great big stock on hand. We are dealers, not agents. We have everything desirable.

W. A. ANDERSON,
Mar. 5-2. Town Clerk

Independent Order of Foresters.

On Thursday evening the 28th ult. a very pleasant entertainment was given by Court Durham, No. 111 Independent Order of Foresters, in their Court Room. The feature of the evening was the attendance of a number of ladies, who graced the occasion by their presence and who seemed to enjoy the excellent programme provided.

Shortly after eight o'clock the Court was called to order by the Chief Ranger and duly opened with the usual ceremonies "for Entertainment." The programme was then entered upon, and consisted of recitations, speeches, songs, and gramophone selections, all of which were heartily given, and as heartily enjoyed by the audience present.

Mr. G. L. McCaul gave a recitation from "Bothwell" as the first number on the list and another recitation was also given by a dear little "tot" Miss Blanche Reed (to her doll,) which was much enjoyed and heartily applauded.

Miss Black also favored the company with a song which was sung in her usual artistic style.

Excellent addresses were also given by Rev. Wray R. Smith, of the Methodist Church, Durham, who is an ardent member of the Order.

W. A. Macfarlane handled the Gramophone in a masterly way and the selections given were well received and enjoyed by the company. Other brethren also contributed numbers and after the close of the Program all present adjourned to the interroom where a generous spread of oysters, cake and other delicacies was furnished, and partaken of, after which the meeting broke up, all retiring well pleased and satisfied with the evening's entertainment.
