FLESHERTON.

A pleasant matrimonial event attended by nearly one hundred invited guests, took place on Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Stewart, west back line, when their second youngest daughter, Miss Bella, was joined in wedlock to Mr. Peter V. Thibeau, near Markdale. The nuptial knot was tied by L. W. Thom, of this place. The bridegroom's brother, Mr. Richard Thibeau, and the bride's sister, Miss Lou Stewart, discharged the duties of groomsmen and bridesmaid. The bride looked prettily in a beautiful gown of cream cloth trimmed with cream silk and chiffon. The bridesmaid was prettily attired in swiss muslin. The bride's travelling dress was brown cloth, trimmed with sable. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served and social enjoyment was indulged in by company past the midnight hour. The happy couple left on the morning train for a honeymoon tour through Western Ontario and Michigan. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and valuable presents.

Mr. Wm. Petch, of this place, who has been an invalid since early last spring, and during the fall under considerable expense in the hospital with no improvement, will be remembered by his friends at a benefit concert in the town hall on Tuesday evening next. An excellent program will be furnished by our best local talent, and we are confident the community, who sympathize much with Mr. Petch in his affliction, will pay a liberal patronage.

Mr. Frank Cole, says the Markham Economist, "an employee for the past two or three years of the Speight Wagon Company, left on Tuesday for Cobourg where he has secured a situation in the car shops. Frank has been an active member of the band, Fire Brigade, and an ardent Odd Fellow, during his stay here, and his genial sunny manner and upright character has won him many friends during his stay in Markham. Before leaving he was presented by his fellow members of the Citizens' Band with a fine pipe, by the Fire Brigade with a gold mounted cane, by his brother Odd Fellows with a beautiful locket with the links in turquoise, suitably engraved, and by the ladies of the Epworth League with an ice cake, all accompanied by eulogistic addresses. Mr. Cole carries with him to Cobourg the best wishes of many Markham friends." Frank is the youngest and stalwart son of Mr. F. G. Cole, of this place, and has many friends here who will be pleased to learn of his being thus named, locked, piped and given the cake, marked tokens of his popularity abroad.

Rev. J. Ward, B. D., of this place, has been invited by his Quarterly Board to return the fourth year to this circuit.

Assessor Bellamy is at his annual task, and spent Friday and Saturday last on duty in town.

Mr. T. J. Sheppard, Miss Joy and Mrs. Blackburn made an attempt to reach Swinton Park for the Methodist entertainment on Monday evening, but met with an upset on the way and were compelled to return home. Mr. Sheppard had a narrow escape from injury, for while endeavoring to release the horse the animal rolled bodily over him.

Miss Hattie Cole closed her visit at home, and returned to Toronto on Monday.

Miss Mamie Ayers, of Point Edward, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Blackburn.

Mr. E. J. McEwan, of Toronto, is assisting Mr. Lamont in special services at Salem.

Mr. Geo. Becroft, who is removing from the 3rd line, was, on Friday evening last, waited upon by a number of his neighbors and presented with a fur robe and Bible as a token of their esteem.

Mr. Jerry Thompson, 4th line, Armesia, has purchased the old Thompson homestead, 3rd line, and will move on shortly.

HENRY'S CORNERS.

Mr. Editor, I notice your correspondent at the Corners has been either dead or awfully lazy during the past year or so and I thought I would send you in a few items for which if you see fit to publish I will expect a cheque of $10 by return mail. Being that I am an A. I man I know you'll think the demand very reasonable, and more especially so when I inform you that by admitting me to the staff your subscribers will all be likely to drop off during the next year.

Mrs. Wm. Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry, is very ill at Qu Appelle, N. W. T., and her sisters Mrs. Wm. Brown and Miss Agnes Henry have gone to see her. We hope to hear of her speedy recovery soon.

A HORRIBLE OUTBREAK

"Of large sores on my little daughter's head developed into a case of scald head," writes C. D. Isbill, of Morganton, Tenn., but Buckled's Arnica Salve completely cured her. It's a guaranteed cure for Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Sores, Ulcers and Piles. Only 25 cents at all druggists. 1m

Mrs. Robert Matthews is just recovering from a severe attack of pleurisy.

Mr. J. G. Johnston has ceased to run his chopper for the past few weeks, cause unknown.

Mr. David Daily is home from Hillman, Michigan, for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry are recovering from a severe attack of la grippe.

Miss Agnes Hunter is visiting her friend, Mrs. Dan Ferguson, of Proton.

Mrs. Andrew Hunter visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aitkens at Holstein over Sunday.

We regret that Mr. John Legate has been seriously afflicted for the past month from a species of paralysis by which he has lost the use of both legs. We are glad to learn however that he is slowly recovering and hope will be in his usual health and strength soon.

I will send you a better budget next week, Mr. Editor, if the $10 cheque reaches me in time.

VANDELEUR

Orange Blossoms.—On Wednesday evening, Feb. 20th, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Heath, of the Town Line, was the scene of a pretty gathering convened together to witness the marriage of their daughter Sarah Ann to Mr. Wm. Henry Foster, of the Back Line. At 7:30 p. m. the Rev. Mr. [unclear] in the presence of over 100 guests securely tied the marriage knot. The bride was attired in white silk and was assisted by her sister, Miss Elizabeth, while the groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. A. Foster, of Markdale. After receiving the congratulations of the company all repaired to the diningroom where a sumptuous repast was partaken of. The rest of the evening was spent in social conversation, games, music, etc. The bride was the recipient of a large number of costly, useful and ornamental presents. Mr. and Mrs. Foster will reside on the farm lately purchased by the groom from Mr. E. Smith. To the young couple we extend our best wishes and trust that success will attend them.

Mr. Walter Verity left here last Tuesday the 26th, for Higate in the county of Essex where he has secured a situation on a farm for the summer months.

Mr. J. Allan, of Glenelg, accompanied by his sister spent a short time visiting friends around here week before last.

Miss Etna Douglass, of Beaverville, was the guest of her parents on Saturday and Sunday returning to her school duties on the following Monday.

Mr. G. Cooper has sold his farm to Mr. J. M. Davis and will shortly remove to the Boyd farm south of the Collingwood gravel.

We have had very stormy weather here lately and in consequence our roads are almost impassable, yet our mail carrier, Mr. Samuel Gilbert, has not missed a trip so far.

ALLAN PARK

The snow storm on Sunday caused some of your young men to stay at home. The roads were filled so full with snow they could not get through.

Mr. and Mrs. George Adlam are both having a hard attack of la grippe and bronchitis, but we are pleased to say under the skillful treatment of Dr. Gun they both are improving nicely.

Mr. Wm. Brigham has ground for the stone and brick on the most of the building of his new store.

We are sorry to say that Mrs. Ed. Hopkins is very low at present with inflammation of the lungs. We would be pleased to hear of her speedy recovery.

Mr. Moses Jacklin was around on his duty as assessor and we might say he is one of the best that ever called on us.

We might say, Mr. Editor, that one of your Chronicle scribes, not far from here, is thinking very seriously of coupling himself up. We will have to let him down easy as he is a little shy.

That young man from Mulock who took to himself a jaunt one Sunday night has never put in an appearance since. Guess he must have got snow bound.

We would like to advise those who own the telephone line from here to Durham to look after it and try and fix it as there has been several called at this office in search of doctors and could not communicate.

Mr. James Forsyth had a bee, hauling ice, the other day but as we were not one of the inviting ones we can not give particulars.

DORNOCH

Messrs. W. McCalmon and A. Little, of Varney, honored our village with a short visit the beginning of the week.

Miss Jennie Little, of Chatsworth, has been, for the past fortnight, the welcome guest of her many friends here.

Mr. Jacob Wolfe, of Pike Bay, is renewing former associations around here of late. Report has it that Revival meetings are being held in Williamstord this week, and our pastor, Rev. Mr. Graham, is assisting thereat.

A couple of weeks ago Mr. T. Potter, of the Welbeck Mills, sustained the misfortune of having his leg broken below the knee, but the plucky fellow is again around though with the assistance of a crutch.

Misses Katie and Jessie Stewart intend to leave the last of the week for Rochester, N. Y., to remain for an indefinite time.

Mr. Jas. Buchanan has been seriously ill during the last couple of weeks, and at time of writing is still very low.

Mrs. G. Turnbull, of Vickers, has been staying for a couple of weeks with her brothers and sisters, the Hill family, during their illness and trouble. She returned to her home last week.

Mr. Alex. Fletcher and a friend was visiting Euphrasia last week on a prospecting tour, and from Alex.'s smiling face it was a pleasant trip.

Assessor Jacklin was around here last week, and had the idea that the assessing business was not the most pleasant occupation.

Miss M. A. Stinson has been visiting friends in the vicinity of Durham the last couple of weeks.

A Magical Life Saver is Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. After years of pain and agony with distressing Heart Disease, it gives relief in 30 minutes. Thus Pety, of Aylmer, Que., writes: "I had suffered for five years with a severe form of Heart Disease. The slightest exertion produced faintness. Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart gave me instant relief, four bottles entirely cured me."—115 Sold by MacFarlane & Co.

ORCHARD

Mr. Chas. Robt, Councillor of Egrement, lost a fine team last week by a tree falling on them accidentally. [A short account is already given Ed.]

Mr. Neil McFee, of Normanby, who was born in Scotland July 3, 1799, is still hale and hearty though feeble, and confined to his bed for some time. It isn't every township that can boast of a centenarian.

Mrs. John Jack after visiting friends at a distance is home again under the parental roof, Mr. and Mrs. John Queen's.

Mr. John Collins has purchased a team and otherwise rigged himself out for farming.

Old Mr. McGowan has so far recovered as to be able to wait on himself, and has dispensed with the services of Mr. James Robertson whom Mr. Collins engaged at a dollar a day to attend to him.

The trustees of U. S. S. No. 2 have been able to get a few cords of wood in the School yard.

Mr. Jas. Hopkins, who formerly ran Colin Blyth's saw mill at Holstein for some time past. The mill has been rented to a firm at Wingham for the season's cut which has been excellent. The ice crop is good and many are availing themselves of getting in their summer's supply.

Farmers' Grey and Bruce Fire Insurance Company. Directors' Report.

JOHN LIVINGSTON, AGENT.

To the Members of the Grey and Bruce Mutual Fire Insurance Company: GENTLEMEN,—Your directors in again presenting their Report on the 23rd anniversary of the Company, would call your attention to the satisfactory progress still made by the company both in the increased number of members and volume of insurance. We would also congratulate you on the decrease of Losses in the past year which still further adds to the surplus which is made necessary for all Companies to hold to meet contingencies in the event of unusual losses. The present year presents even a more satisfactory record than the year preceding, our losses only amounting to $577.85, while the increase in business is also a satisfactory indication of the reputation in which the Company is held by policy holders generally. For further information you are referred to Auditors' Report and Financial Statement herewith submitted. I am, Gentlemen, on behalf of the Directors,

Respectfully yours,
JAMES BROCELBANK, PRESIDENT
