Of course the insurgents will not hold their ground, or even pretend to do so, but they keep us constantly on the move and at the present rate will wear us out in time It is one conto another, after imaginery foes, so strong tonics, bitters and hurtful nostrums. Comfar as we are concerned, for we do not know where they are except when we get a volley. When we get to where one volley came from. there is nothing in sight and the insurgents probably a mile away under some other cover.

When we came here first, and had on our outposts, a person could have a walk around the town, but now the only safe place is the main road from ing carried on About a week ago a detachment of the 41th Inf. was sur rounded and cut off. They put up a brave fight but when all but one were killed, the one remaining threw down his arms and surrendered. The insurgents cut his head off and mutilated him. We have got to stand this and not get a chance to retaliate. San Nicolas is known to be one of the worst insurgent towns on the island. The proper thing to do would be to loot and burn the place and after spending a few weeks near Holstein. drive men, women and children out of the district, then form a dead line for "amigos" and "insurgents. Give them thirty days to come in, then kill everything with life on the other side. It is amusing to hear some people talk about civilizating these people with Christianity. Of course you can do it, but not with Bible alone. You want to take a Bible and six-shooter, put the Bible in your pocket and use the gan After you have killed them off, I evening. think then is the time to bring the Bible into play.

I send you by this mail a copy of the "Manila Times," published in Manila and I believe the leading paper there. I know it won't be of much interest to you, but I guess it will be a novelty.
