FLESHERTON.

A beautiful home wedding, interesting to many of our readers in this locality because of intimate acquaintance with the contracting parties, took place on Wednesday evening of last week at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Henderson, 220 Carlton street, Toronto, when Miss Belle Henderson, youngest daughter of the late J. W. Henderson, Esq., was married to Dr. Fred W. Murray, a popular young dentist, of Toronto. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. K. N. Henderson, of this place. The bridal party," says a Globe reporter, "passed to their places before a high bank of ferns and palms, under a canopy of of ferns, through an aisle formed of white satin ribbons held by the ushers, Mr. Harold Carnahan and Dr. Edgar T. Paul. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James Allen, of Sherbourne Methodist church, and appropriate music was played by Miss Gertie Oliver. The bride's gown was of white duchesse satin draped with chiffon flounces. The bodice and sleeves were finely tucked, with a yoke of embroidered chiffon draped with point lace. Her veil was fastened with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Her maid of honor was Miss Jennie Doane, whose dainty gown was of white organdie with insertion of valenciennes lace, and a girle and sash ends of satin ribbon. Her bouquet was of pink roses. The little bridesmaids were Miss Blossom Hansford and Miss Maud Henderson, nieces of the bride, whose pretty frocks were of white muslin, and their bouquets were of pink carnations. The groomsmen were Mr. W. J. A. Carnahan. The reception was held afterwards in the library, and then a dejeuner was served by caterer Webb. The bride's table was decorated in white, and the tables for the guests were done in pink and white." A number of toasts were proposed and responded to in a felicitous manner and the guests, of whom there were a out sixty present were further entertained by the popular singer, Mr. W. J. A. Carnahan, who rendered several of his most pleasing songs. Among the guest present were Mr. and Mrs. Donough, Mr. and Mrs. Doherty, Buffalo; Alderman and Mrs. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Coatsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Chapman, Dr. T. Henderson, Dr. R. H. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Sterling, Mr. and Mrs. S. Henderson, Dr. and Mrs. Emerson Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hansford, Mr. and Mrs. O'Malley, Toronto; Dr. C. C. Murray and Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Henderson, Flesherton. The bride's travelling gown was of green cloth, with a bodice of white silk. Her hat of tuscany straw was trimmed with pastelle ribbons. Dr. and Mrs. Murray left on the 11 p. m. train for the Pan American city and other points in the United States. Upon their return they will settle in their new home on Carleton street. The young couple were the recipients of a magnificent array of wedding presents among them being a handsome piece of silverware from the Elm street Methodist church choir of which the Dr. is a member. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful sunburst of pearls. The Chronicle correspondent tendered congratulations.

Artemesia Council and J. I. Graham not being able to agree on valuation of a piece of land taken from the latter farm for road deviation in the Valley the matter was referred to the arbitrators who met here on the 14th inst. and after hearing much evidence, reserved their finding until Saturday of this week. Ex-Reeve, John Boland was chosen by the Council, Reeve J. M. Davis, of Euphrasia, by Mr. Graham and Ex-Reeve T. Gilray, of Euphrasia was third man. The Toronto papers last week reported a case of smallpox at Flesherton which is happily not true. The case in question is doubtless that of Kimberley reported through this the nearest telegraph office to that place. The volunteers of No. 6 Company arrived home from Niagara in good form on Saturday evening last and under the supervision of Chas. Munshaw and E. Hoy received the usual refreshments provided by the hospitable citizens of the place. Rev. J. Ward preached the annual sermon to the L. O. F. Court who attended the Methodist Church in a body on Sunday morning last. The band led the procession, rendering sacred selections. Mr. Ward gave his farewell address to a large congregation in the evening, and on Tuesday left with his family for their new home at Courtice. Messrs. M. Richardson and D. McTavish have had their residences greatly improved by having part of the exterior tuckpointed. Editor Thurston, of this place has an excellent camera and is in his spare moments continually adding to his fine collection of photographic scenes. He has added two gems of the river and gorge, below Eugenia falls and one or two taken at Heron's mill in Osprey. A unique picture he succeeded in getting is a partridge comfortably settled on her nest in the woods. Rev. W. Sinclair leaves this week for his new circuit at Malton. Rev. J. Little, of Chatsworth, will preach anniversary sermons in the Presbyterian church on July 7th. Miss Annie Richardson, of Toronto is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Richardson. Mrs. Helen Rutledge and daughter Miss Maggie arrived last week from Montclair, N. J., to spend the summer here. Mrs. W. J. Douglass is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. VanDusen here. Mr. A. E. Smith, of Warkworth, and Miss Hames of have taken positions in Mr. R. J. Sproule's office here. Mrs. R. T. Whitten is visiting her parents at Heathcote. Mr. Geo. Mitchell spent Sunday and Monday in Toronto. Your cor. was on the shelf last week several shades off in color, but slowly returning to normal again. Dr. Christie though able to move about, has been for a week back much enfeebled and distressed with his chronic heart affection. Mr. John Wright, Sr., an invalid for years, but for some time able to get about on crutches, is again confined to his room and is suffering greatly with his diseased and helpless limb. His sister, Mrs. Winters, of Osprey, visited him last week. Mrs. A. M. Gibson's friends are pleased to see her recovering from her serious illness and hope to soon see her about again. Mrs. Runstedler, we are also pleased to report, is under Dr. Carter's care, recovering from her severe illness. Vaccination is common here now and many of the youngsters are nursing sore arms. Mrs. England, of Coldwater, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Breen. Mr. Andrew Blakely who been visiting here left last week for his home in Dakota and was accompanied to Owen Sound by his mother who is visiting her daughter there. Mr. and Mrs. W. Trimble entertained a few friends on Monday evening when the ordinance of baptism was administered to their little son by Rev. Mr. Ward before taking leave of this circuit.

Some of our young men washed their faces in cream soda to get the young ladies to take a fancy to them. We wish that new scribe who wrote last week would sign his name so you won't think, Mr. Editor, that we have lost some of our brains. [The other scribe's article is all right, see it elsewhere.—Ed.]

DIDN'T MARRY FOR MONEY. The Boston man, who lately married a sickly, rich, young woman, is happy now, for he got Dr. King's New Life Pills, which restored her to perfect health. Infalible for Jaundice, Biliousness, Malaria, Fever and Ague and all Liver and Stomach troubles. Gentle but effective. Only 25c at all drug stores. 1m.

BOOTHVILLE. The people who were complaining during the wet spell some weeks ago, look highly pleased over Saturday's shower. Mr. and Mrs. Noble Wilson are visiting at Port Hope. Mrs. John McQueen has just returned from visiting relatives at Southampton. Sam Lawrence, with a gang of come-or-I'll-fetch-you timber men, made a raid on the timber in F. Runciman's bush on Friday. Councillor McIntyre was in our Burgh on Tuesday to let the job of grading and graveling a portion of the sidewalk. John McQueen took the grading and John Campbell took the graveling. He also got those who had been getting sand on 22 cent to go over and fill up the pit they had left on the sidewalk. Miss Carrie Egan, of Sault Ste-Marie, Michigan, visited at F. Runciman's last week. Miss Gertie Wilson, of Swinton Park, gave her friends a call in this part on Thursday. While one of our young men was engaged in robbing a crow's nest the other day the old birds returned and if the tree on which he was clinging had not been rooted firmly in mother earth we are afraid he would now be classed with the star microbes. We believe there was a couple of gentlemen within five miles of this place who didn't know that it was an extravagant plan to tear the coat to patch the pants or they wouldn't have underrimed the roadbed on 22 cent, to cover a crossing. The other evening as one of our violinists was being driven out to play at a ball given in honor of Ted the 20th the horse took fright and ran away, with the result that the violin was broken. Dugald McCannel is now the proud father of four children since the arrival of a little daughter on the 12th inst. Well, Mr. Editor, the idea of taxing people according to their own valuation, may not be a new one but when your humble scribe spoke of something along that line, he had to duck his head to avoid the blow you gave the census man.

A TERRORFUL EXPLOSION. "Of a gasoline stove burned a lady here frightfully," writes N. E. Palmer, of Kirkman, Ia. "The best doctors couldn't heal the running sore that followed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve entirely cured her." Infalible for Cuts, Corns, Sores, Boils, Bruises, Skin Diseases and Piles. 25c at all druggists. 1m.

ALLAN PARK. Don't forget our picnic on July 1st. Everybody welcome and everybody come. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Willis have gone off on a visiting trip to see their son Nelson, of Dancon City, B. C. We join in wishing the old couple a pleasant journey and a safe return. Mr. and Mrs. John Hopkins, Jr., and Mrs. R. Bratten, Sr., spent part of last week visiting friends in Southampton. Mrs. Henry Brigham is visiting at her daughter's, Mrs. James Livingstone's, of Paisley. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sumpton, of Paisley, are visiting friends in and around this part. Messrs. D. Adlam and T. Brigham are repairing and doing the framework for Mr. Wm. Brown's barn near Aberdeen. Our football team went up and had a match with the Muloch boys. The result was 3 goals to 0 in favor of our boys. The Muloch boys intend to play a match on picnic day, July 1st, with our boys. Some of our young people around here took in the Glenroaden picnic and report a pleasant time. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Forsyth spent last week visiting friends in Teeswater and other places. Mr. Wm. Brigham has got his new store in operation. Mr. John Brown raised an addition to his barn last week. Mr. L. Hible did the frame work. Mr. George Henderson, of Owen Sound, has raised his Tabernacle on the river bank near G. T. Kennedy's and is holding religious services every evening during the week and through the day on Sunday. If the cap we made for the Vicker's Scribe fits him as tight as the building that D. Adlam and T. Brigham framed for Mr. Leggate, his head will be getting a little sore pounding it on and off.

WILL BE AT THE Middaugh House DURHAM, on Wednesday, July 10, '01 ONE - DAY - ONLY. EXCHANGE ECHOES. The Orangeville Banner says of Crossley and Hunter: "The number of those who have professed conversion during the evangelists' stay in Orangeville is close to 400. Of these 217 describe themselves as Methodists, 100 as Presbyterians, 37 as Anglicans, 24 as Baptists, while Congregationalists, the Salvation Army and Roman Catholics were each represented amongst the remainder. T. H. Blacklock, editor and proprietor of the Dundalk Herald, was married in Listowel on Wednesday afternoon to Miss Bell Morrison of the town, by the Rev. Mr. Hardie, Presbyterian minister. The groom was braced up for the trying ordeal by Dr. J. H. Little, of Owen Sound, and Miss Blacklock, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. The bride is a very popular young lady and received a large number of valuable presents. Miss Morrison was for several years a teacher on the public school staff in Dundalk and her host of friends will be pleased to welcome her return to her former home. Mr. and Mrs. Blacklock will spend their honeymoon at the Pan American Exposition and on a trip to New York.—Shelburne Free Press.

On Tuesday of last week Mrs. Wm. McNichol, who lives below Alton, met with a thrilling experience. While going along the road a big, able-bodied tramp accosted her and attempted to outrage her. The woman's screams brought her husband to the spot before the fiend could accomplish his purpose. Fortunately Mr. McNichol was ploughing in a near by field and had a gun to shoot ground hogs. He followed the villain down the railway track to where the section men were working and forced him to throw up his hands at the point of the gun. The tramp proved to be the same person who applied for lodging the previous night. He was arrested and taken to Brampton jail, and it is hoped he will be made an example of. He gave the name of James Ferguson.—Orangeville Sun.

A very happy event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Brown, when Miss Annie Doddsworth was united in wedlock to Mr. Fraser Gilray. The bride wore a dress of cream poplin trimmed with ribbon. The bride was attended by her sister, Minnie Doddsworth, wearing a dress of white dotted muslin over blue. The groom was attended by his brother, Tom Gilray. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Eastman, of Menford. After the guests' congratulations, they adjourned to the diningroom, where tea was waiting. The bride was the recipient of many useful and pretty presents. Some of the guests were from Collingwood, Redwing, and a cousin from Klineburg, York County. Before closing I congratulate the young couple, wishing them a long and happy life together.—Anon.
