DURHAM, AUGUST 8TH, 1901.

DOWIE'S EFFIGY BURNED.

(Superior Wis. Sunday Leader.)

Chicago, July 6th.—Dowie was hanged in effigy Thursday night, and the dummy was made the target for missiles and contemptuous remarks of a holiday crowd on Indiana avenue near Sixteenth street.

JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE
Apostle of Dowieism

The idea of hanging Dowie in effigy occurred to a crowd of boys, who had grown tired of firecrackers and torpedoes. In ten minutes the boys had scattered to their nearby homes and returned, one with an old suit of clothes that included a frock coat, the kind usually worn by the healer on public occasions, the other with a slouch hat, the third with a pair of shoes.

For the face one youth brought a pillow slip on which was marked a fair imitation of the "healer" and his whiskers.

The effigy was rushed together in a hurry. A clothesline was borrowed from a neighboring yard, and a bare-footed youth was sent aloft to throw the rope over a telephone wire.

"Heave ho! All hands!" shouted the leader of the boys, and up soared the effigy until it dangled to the breeze 20 feet above the heads of the crowd, whose numbers had increased to 200 during the preparations. Then the fun began.

Roman candles were obtained for bomb-throwing purposes, and the dummy was made the target for the balls of fire.

Chicago, July 6.—Twenty-one disciples of John Alexander Dowie visited Evanston, a Chicago suburb, last night, and, despite the efforts of the entire police force of the place, a mob of 1,000 people drove them out of town.

Several days ago four of Dowie's missionaries were egged and driven out of Evanston, and last night's visit of the 21 was intended to convert the people of Evanston and show them the error of their ways.

The instant the Dowieites began their meeting last night they were assailed with eggs, vegetables and other missiles.

Several of the male Dowieites were knocked down, and both women and men were liberally bespattered with eggs and mud.

The Dowieites finally abandoned their meeting, and fled from the town, the police protecting them as they ran for the cars.

VARNEY.

Mrs. Wm. Clark is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Henry, for a few days.

Miss Lizzie Chatto, of London, is visiting Mrs. Wm. Mountain for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Eden were the guests of Egremont friends one day last week.

Miss Kate Barkley, of Collingwood, was the guest of her cousin, Mr. Robert Eden.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Saunders were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gadd one day last week.

Misses Aggie and Alice Dunn came home from Toronto to spend a month with their parents.

Miss Ella and James Gadd were visiting the parental home on Sunday last.

Mrs. Simons was the guest of Orchard friends a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Downs and daughters, Maud and Bertha, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bryans on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCalmon, Jr., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fee one day last week.

The Corner cor. had quite an experience of late. He has one of those bronchus and he thought he could ride it, but didn't like to try the job near the main road, so he took him to one of the back fields where he thought none of the neighbors could see him. He got on, but the little fellow began to buck, and ultimately jumped the fence, when the feather-worn seen to fly in all directions and Jim's voice was heard calling for Billy Allan to come and save him. Pete Black saw it all and you may bet on it being right.

TO SAVE HER CHILD.

From frightful disfigurement Mrs. Mannie Gallego, of La Grange, Ga., applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve to great sores on her head and face, and writes its quick cure exceeded all her hopes. It works wonders in Sores, Scalds, Skin Eruptions, Cuts, Burns, Swells and Piles. 25c. Cure guaranteed by all druggists. 1m.

TOP CLIFF.

The late rain has caused a delay in the ripening progress and grain is going to be better than expected, although the straw is rather short. There are quite a lot of damaged hay in the locality owing to the recent rains. Some are busy at the harvest while others will not commence for a week yet.

Mrs. Burnet who has been nursing her mother, Mrs. Jos. Hooper, for the last couple of months, left for her home at the Soo a few days ago.

A number of our young men will be leaving on the 6th inst. for Manitoba for the harvest there.

Mrs. Joseph Hooper's house was struck by lightning lately, and the inmates miraculously escaped being killed as the fluid came down the chimney and going through the house coming in contact with a piano shattered it all to pieces. Miss Hooper was stupified for a time but soon recovered.

The Sunday School picnic in connection with the Presbyterian church in Priceville was held in Mrs. Mathers' bush on Wednesday, 31st July and was well attended. The youngsters enjoyed themselves.

Died, at Toronto, on July 26, Miss Maggie McDonald at the age of about thirty-five years. Miss McDonald has been ailing for the last couple of years and her death was looked for at any time. She was a former resident of the village of Priceville, coming there with her father and mother some 25 or 30 years. She leaves an aged father, one sister and four brothers to mourn her death. She was buried on Sunday, the 28th July in the cemetery at Priceville. Rev. Mr. Matheson conducted the funeral services.

Mr. Neil McCannel and his mother-in-law, Mrs. McLean, of this place, visited friends at Dornoch last week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDougall on July 31st, a daughter.

A number of sheep were worried by dogs a week ago. Those having dogs in the habit of wandering away at night should look after them or else they may be sorry if they don't.

DORNOCH.

Miss Maggie McIntosh, of Toronto, is spending her holidays visiting her mother, who, we regret to say, is very unwell at present.

Miss Maggie McDonald, of Buffalo, who is visiting in Durham, spent a few weeks visiting her many friends in this vicinity.

Mr. G. A. Corlett, who has been injured in Detroit, is at present recruiting around the old homestead. His many friends wish him a safe recovery.

We congratulate C. McIntosh on his success in passing the Normal examination. Cameron has now a 1st-class certificate. We cordially congratulate him.

Mr. H. R. Riddell is the choice of Court Bannockburn No. 1265 I. O. F. at their annual meeting of Central Ontario, to be held in Orillia on the 23rd.

The exodus to the far famed North West has begun. The following leave the village to-day: D. McDonald, T. McIntosh, T. Ledingham, M. McKenna, T. Shewell, and others are speaking of going. We wish them a profitable trip.

The Corner Stone of the new Presbyterian church was well and truly laid on Tuesday of last week. The morning opened cloudy and threatening, and the managing committee were in doubts as to what to do, but by noon the weather cleared considerably, and the anxious looks of the members of the committee disappeared as the hour of opening drew nigh and as rig after rig appeared. The honor of laying the corner stone by the wish of the Com. was given to Rev. Mr. Somerville, of Owen Sound. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Graham, presided and the following gentlemen graced the platform: Rev. Mr. Somerville, of Owen Sound; Rev. Mr. McNab, of Kilsyth; Rev. Jas. Skene, of Hillsburg; Rev. Mr. Little, of Chatsworth; Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Muloch. The placing of the stone was a very impressive part. A silver trowel was placed in the hands by the chairman of the committee, and as the mason put the stone in position, the cavity being filled by the records of the church with several coins of realm with the local and current literature of the day, it was with due solemnity sealed for all time. A table loaded with all the delicacies of the season then awaited the visitors, after which a choice program of sweet music from the choir and speaking by the several Rev. gentlemen and others, and a choice recitation by Miss M. Wadsworth, of Toronto, one of the most interesting events in the history of the Dornoch Presbyterian congregation, was brought to a close. The tent was well patronized, and was under the management of A. Ledingham and H. R. Riddell, who seemed in their natural elements. Proceeds at gate and tent $171.00. A noticeable feature was the reading of the history of the church by Dr. Smith. In the last 29 years two men have held the position of Sec. of Comm., the late Robt. Ledingham and the present occupant, H. R. Riddell. Candidate Binnie received many handshakes, and was one of the valued speakers.

CORNER CONCERNS.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tucker spent last week with Belgrave friends and had the pleasure of attending a barn raising at Mrs. Tucker's brother's.

Jas. Hay has re-let the frame-work of his new barn to Mr. James Eden, and the work will now be done expeditiously and well. The raising takes place Wednesday.

Mr. J. Vessie has again started out with his steam thrasher. Fall wheat is reported to be turning out well, and spring grain much better than was anticipated.

The sacred ordinance of Baptism was administered in the School-house on Sunday by the Rev. Mr. Ryan to William Thomas, the only son of Mr. Samuel Chapman. Rev. Mr. Ryan will exchange work on Sunday next with a Reverend gentleman whose name we have not learned.

Mr. John Latimer of your town has improved the appearance of the farms of Messrs. Wm. Allan and J. Mack, by erecting Anchor wire fences. He is a jolly good fellow, and a hustler to build fences, but says he wants no puff. He says he dare not put an ad in the CHRONICLE for fear of being over-crowded. His fence is in such demand, he says, he is unable now to meet the public cravings.

Death of Hector McQuarry.

(From the Barrie Examiner.)

Hector McQuarry, a resident of Barrie for 34 years, passed away at his residence, Clapperton street, on Thursday evening. Three years ago he had a very severe attack of typhoid, and this was followed a year later by a stroke of paralysis, from the effects of which he did not wholly recover. For the last two months he was confined to the house, and spent five weeks of this time in bed.

Deceased was the only son of the late Malcolm McQuarry of Bentinck Tp. He was born in King, near Bolton on July 20th, 66 years ago. His mother dying when he was quite young, he was adopted by a family living in Albion. After learning the blacksmithing trade in Bolton village he carried on a smithy at Centreville four years and in Tecumseh for two years, and moved to Barrie in 1867. Mr. McQuarry was an excellent mechanic in his line. Some years ago he patented, in the United States and Canada, a saw-mill dog and an axle gauge. The latter met with considerable success in the crowded market, and is used by many of the largest firms.

In 1856 he married Annie Maria Hudson, who died shortly after coming to Barrie. In 1870 he married Mrs. Melinda Lowe. She died in April, 1899. Three sons survive him, viz. Zion, Malcolm and Joseph. His step-daughters are Mrs. Alexander McDonald of Barrie, and Miss Esther M. McQuarrie who nursed him so faithfully through his illness. Three sisters survive him, Mrs. Grady, of Detroit, Mrs. McCormack, of Glenelg and Mrs. J. McQuarry, of Durham. In politics Mr. McQuarry was a Liberal and was known as a man who thought for himself on all subjects. Though of a retiring disposition, no man was more highly respected among the people who knew him best.

The funeral on Sunday morning was conducted by Mr. William Algie, of Alton, Ontario. The pallbearers were James Keenan, Thomas Morley, R. Marshall, W. C. Andrew, Alex. Kennedy and Henry Sewery.

Death of Mrs. Telford.

At Leith on Monday morning Elizabeth Murray, relict of the late William Patterson Telford, passed away. Mrs. Telford had gone to Leith to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Ross. She had reached the advanced age of 87, and for 4 year her health has been failing. After going to Leith she met with an unfortunate accident, breaking one of her legs, and this undoubtedly hastened the end. Her husband, who predeceased her fourteen years ago, was one of the most highly respected residents of the section, and is well remembered for his marked clerical attainments. Sixty years ago Mr. and Mrs. Telford left Roxburghshire, Scotland, where both were born, and arrived in Canada after wearysome weeks upon the Atlantic. They settled first in Galt, where they lived for seven years, and then removed to Sydenham. During the fifty-three years of deceased's residence in this section remarkable changes have taken place, and she watched the development of a wilderness, in all that the word implies, to a thriving town and a successful farming community. During the past decade she has resided with her son, Mr. W. P. Telford, Sr. Seven children survive: Mrs. Wm. Ross, Leith; Mr. W. P. Telford and Lieut.-Col. J. P. Telford, of Owen Sound; Mrs. Robert Clark and Miss Elizabeth Telford, of Owen Sound; Mrs. Wm. Gibson, Seattle, Wash.; and Mr. John P. Telford, of Durham. Mrs. Telford was a member of the Presbyterian church at Annan, and of Division street Presbyterian at Owen Sound. The remains were interred at Annan cemetery yesterday afternoon beside those of her late husband, the funeral being one of the largest seen in that section for some time.—O. S. Times.
