TRAVERSTON

Miss Mary Reed, of Walkerton, spent a day or two with relatives here on her way home to Markdale. Two of our bright, young fellows leave this week for the harvest fields of Manitoba, namely, Messrs. John Allan, "Dick" Davis. By the way, a long-looked for letter arrived last week from Dave Davis, who is stationed at Krugersdorp, S. Africa. He has helped to erect Fort Canada, and reports having a good time and enjoys John Bull's bill of fare.

Misses Kate and Sarah Stewart, of Dornoch, accompanied by their brother, spent the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. John McNally.

Many a hearty handshake did Mrs. A. Rutherford, of Toronto, receive on Sunday. She is up on a visit to the old homestead of Mr. and Mrs. Jack.

Mr. Will Jack smiled to himself the other day when a person remarked that he had greatly improved his fields. Will knew it was the clean shave of his new binder that made the difference.

We forgot in our last budget to publicly congratulate Mr. C. C. McKechnie on the success of his two pupils at the recent entrance exam.

The heast supplied by Mr. Jim Morrison to the beef ring last week was a splendid one—dressed weight 432 lbs.

Miss Traynor, of Owen Sound who formerly taught in Sep. S. S. No 5 and was popular with all classes, and her sister, Miss Teanie, were the guests of Mrs. John Delany for a part of last week.

McNally Bros., of the 9th, have purchased a new separator, and having secured the services of Mr. John Cliff as engineer, are prepared for a good season's work. Mr. McNally's wheat threshed 40 bushels to the acre last week.

Our trustees for No. 5 are progressive fellows. They have let the contract of painting the school inside and out to Mr. C. Elvidge, of Durham.

The memorial service of Miss Kate McNally was held in Zion on Sunday. The church was full. The Floral Department of the Ep. League had tastefully draped and flowered the pulpit and altar. The service was a deeply impressive one, and the sermon by our pastor, Rev. Wray R. Smith, has never been excelled in Zion. It was tender and yet full of solemn warning.

The brief, pointed garagath that we wrote in our last budget appears to have struck a sore spot that needed and still requires both medical and municipal attention—what we usually state we are not only able to affirm, but prove. It is not the first time we have found an item in THE CHRONICLE to remove a public nuisance or redress a grievance, and we presume it will do the same this time. We have no objections to taking a dose of loaded literary physic when it is for the public weal. This certainly gratifying to learn that the pellucid waters of the Saugreen flow untainted through the town, despite the sewerage and the garbage that flows and is dumped in. We have a strong attachment for the old town, where, for a quarter of a century, we've dealt and found true hearts and good heads.

M'LESHERTON.

The Masonic picnic to Balmly Beach, Owen Sound, on Thursday last, was well patronized, and with ideal weather prevailing was a most enjoyable outing for the Masons and their friends.

A garden party under the auspices of the Methodist Ladies' Aid Society was announced to be held on the parsonage lawn on Friday evening last, but the weeping clouds made an out-door entertainment impracticable, and a parlour social was held instead. The menu throughout was excellent, and those present enjoyed a pleasant evening together with the new pastor and his wife.

Mr. David Jamieson, employed with Mr. John Whitten, framer, is, these days, nursing his left arm, having had the same dislocated at the elbow by a fall of 20 feet from a barn roof, which he was repairing last week for Mr. Jas. Fisher, 4th line.

Stepping on a mossy shingle was the cause of the tumble, which might have resulted much more seriously for Mr. Jamieson. A travelling menagerie exhibited on the commons here a couple of evenings last week. There were many freaks of nature and curios to look at in the showmen's collection.

On Sabbath morning last the quarterly love feast and Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in the Methodist church. The sermon and service throughout was impressive. In the evening the pastor delivered an excellent sermon from the old familiar text in Matt. 11: 28, and Dr. Fred Murray, of Toronto, favored the congregation with a pleasingly rendered solo.

Rev. Dr. Fontaine, of San Francisco, Cal., who was the guest of Rev. Mr. Thom on Sunday last, preached a highly edifying sermon to the Presbyterian congregation in the afternoon, and also sang effectively "The New Kingdom." Dr. Fontaine spent four years in Arabia and Palestine, and is lecturing on his travels in the Orient in the Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening this week.

A load of our young people picnicked at Bell's lake on Monday. Mrs. P. Loucks entertained a large company of ladies on Tuesday evening at the conclusion of a "thimble" race.

Mrs. Hughes and daughter, Gertrude, Hesper, are visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. W. Smyth.

Mrs. A. McGirr, of Faversham, visited part of last week with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Mitchell.

Miss Schoff, of Toronto, is the guest of Miss Zilla Trimble.

Mrs. Pickell, of Corutico, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Trimble.

Mrs. Andrew Rowe, of Crystal City, Man., is visiting her father, Mr. John Sharp, east of the village, who is very ill.

Mrs. Harman Radley, of Toronto, is visiting Mrs. Jos. Radley.

Mrs. John Clinton and Miss Clinton visited the past two weeks with friends at Allenford and Owen Sound.

Mr. John Bellamy and Mrs. J. W. Henderson are spending this week with their sister at Paisley.

Miss Berta Haines, of the post office, is holidaying this week at her home in Fordice, Huron County.

Mrs. Whitby, of Parry Sound, visited at Mr. Andrew Beattie's, Toronto line, and returned home last week.

Mrs. McNea, of British Columbia, who has been spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Holley, east back line, will return to the West this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dismore, of Owen Sound, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bellamy.

Miss Thompson, of Toronto, is visiting her uncle, Mr. Samuel Irwin, east of the village.

Miss Watson, of Manitowlin Island, arrived on Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Frank Bradbury.

Mr. James Sullivan, tinsmith, has gone to take a position in a shop in Owen Sound.

Messrs. John Hales and John Flynn left on the harvest excursion on Tuesday to spend a few months in Manitoba.

Miss Irwin, who recently resigned from the school staff here, left last week to take a school at Moosmin, N. W. T.

Toronto's Civic Holiday on Monday was taken advantage of by many to visit friends at outside points. Among those who spent Saturday till Monday evening here were Dr. and Mrs. Fred Murray, who were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Murray.

Mr. Reg. Ward, the guest of Mr. Chas. Richardson; Mr. Roy Hamilton at the parental home, Miss Aggie Lever and her cousin, Mrs. Hoocort, visited the former's sister, Mrs. Thos. Blakey; Miss Maud Smith visited her father, Mr. Chas. Smith; Mr. and Mrs. David White visited Mr. Geo. Best and family; Mr. C. W. Chadwick was a visitor at Mrs. Bulmer's.

Mrs. Barnhouse and daughter, Elsie, are visiting friends in Toronto.

Miss Ella Karstedt is visiting in Owen Sound.

Miss Emma Sheppard is visiting friends at Mt. Forest and Lucknow.

Mrs. Harry West, of Toronto Junction, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sheppard.

Miss Alice Joy is on a holiday visit this week with friends at Tottenham.

Miss Irving, of Owen Sound, is the guest of Miss Minnie Munshaw.

Mrs. Boardman, of Toronto, and Mrs. W. A. Brown, of Markdale, were visitors at Mrs. F. W. Hickling's on Monday.

Miss Maud and Rita Irwin, of Durham, visited young friends in town on Tuesday and Wednesday on their way to Heathcote.

HOLSTEIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Long are at present spending their holidays at the home of Thos. Keith here.

Messrs. Will Seaman and Jno. Hunt left Tuesday for the West. Will intends remaining there, but Jno. intends returning after harvest.

Miss Snell, of Michigan, accompanied by her little brother, is spending a few weeks with her grandfather, R. Brown, and other friends.

W. J. Sharp spent part of last week with his brother in Dundalk. He secured a few speckled beauties from Rowbottoms.

Geo. Freeman is busy building a large stable and driving house.

Mrs. (Rev.) J. M. Miller and children left Monday per G. P. R. for Alliston. Mr. Miller will preach his farewell sermon on next Sabbath, after which he will take his leave of this vicinity.

On Tuesday evening of last week the return football match between the Holstein and Drummond teams was played on the grounds of the former. Both teams lined up to win, but Holstein did not accomplish the task, for Drummond team won by a score of 3-0. Our boys put up fairly good game, and with a little more practice, no doubt, be in a position to make it exceedingly interesting for those who are lovers of that kind of sport.

Mr. Plummer was, to some extent at least, responsible for the defeat of our boys, for we heard him, during the afternoon, reportedly warn Holstein to keep away from "Jim," and, strange to say, they really did keep away from him. However, as the game proceeded, our fellows began to feel Jim a much more formidable force than he was at all. A sidekick, for they really did keep away from him. However, as the game proceeded, our fellows began to feel Jim a much more formidable force than he was at all.

As we write a wedding is taking place in our midst. Mr. R. Manser, of the firm of T. Eaton & Co., of Toronto, and Miss Kate Smith, of this village, are the contracting parties. We hope to give full particulars next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Allan, of Durham; passed through here last Friday enroute to Garafraza. It chanced to be the day that lacrosse was at a fever heat, as Markdale and Durham were struggling for the supremacy at Balmly Beach, Owen Sound.

We really believe that the Durham townsman was sincere when he knew for a certainty that Durham had been defeated by a score of 3-2, for we heard him explain "too bad, too bad."

Mr. and Mrs. Schwallm spent Sunday with their friends in Midway.

Irwin Dixon is resting this week with his labors.

CECIL IS A PUZZLE

Writes His Mother From Duluth.

Last week we wrote an item referring to Cecil Gun and used as our heading "Was Dead and is Alive Again." This week as a sequel, we might say "Was Lost and is Found." The boy is certainly a puzzle, and reminds one of Josh Billings' flea. Put your finger on him he's not there, put it on again and he isn't there also. This is about the way with Cecil. When his parents last heard from him direct he was in London, England, on the eve of starting for Australia. Nothing was learned till the startling announcement appeared in the public press that he was drowned in Boston Harbor in an attempt to swim ashore rather than submit to being deported. Doubts were entertained and the report investigated, but nothing definite was learned till Dr. Gun had an interview with the captain in Quebec, which established beyond doubt the boy's identity but gave little hope as to the possibility of his escape. The funeral sermon was "Good and sorrowful" when a telegram came to say he was alive and well but his whereabouts unknown.

But Cecil turned up all right; of course he did; he had no intention of getting drowned; that would be his last thought. On Monday afternoon when everybody imagined him on a sea-bound trip, a postal card from Duluth in his own handwriting, dated August 2nd, and stated that he had just arrived there. It was addressed to his mother and since that time it would do any one good to hear her laugh. Even the Dr., too, has a changed countenance and does not even try to conceal the fact that he shares the mother's joy. We all rejoice, in fact, with Dr. and Mrs. Gun over the extremely good tidings they have received this week.

What will be the next turn of events? That's another puzzle, but while we offer all sorts of congratulations for the restoration of the boy, whom we believe to be a good boy, according to the ordinary standard of boy measurement, we cannot sanction the wilful escapades which gave his parents such a sea of sorrow, and we hope others will not be influenced to do likewise through the false idolatry to which this boy is likely to be subjected.

Cecil, no doubt, wants to see the world and may soon be satisfied and settle down but we're willing to give a written guarantee that he'll never die till he dies a natural death, and it's highly probable that some of these days he'll come strolling home to read his obituary.

How to Grow

50 Bushels—The Acre

Is what County of Grey Farmers would like to know. We cannot tell you, but we CAN TELL YOU that H. H. MILLER, the Hanover Conveyancer is lending money on good farm mortgages at lower rates of interest than you can borrow elsewhere, and on very liberal terms and at small cost. That is the reason why people all over the country pass by other lenders and travel miles to borrow from him.

He Has Several Very Fine Farms For sale at very low figures and on very easy terms. Farm lands are bound to increase in price and now is the time to buy.

He ALSO undertakes the collection of Notes and Accounts, and it is a pretty hard claim that he cannot make some money out of no charge for his trouble if not collected.

He Does Fire, Life and Accident Insurance

In first class Companies and at lowest rates, draws all kinds of writings, arranges business quarrels, effects settlements with creditors, sells Ocean tickets, buys old notes and always has on hand farm and village properties which he is willing to trade or exchange for other property.

Twenty years' experience and residence in the neighborhood counts for something and enables H. H. MILLER to do your business with profit to you as well as to himself.

N. B.—A Special Bargain is offered on Lot 28, Con. 2, W. G. R., Bentinck, 100 acres—Durham six miles—owner gone West and bound to sell.
