THE COUNTY OF GREY.

FORTY YEARS AGO.

(Continued From Last Week.) Since the appearance of our last issue, some have told us that the publication of such ancient history would be of little or no interest; others pronounce it a good thing, and even go so far as to commend us for reviewing a subject that should be of interest to all. We have also learned, during the week, that some in town are in possession of the County Gazetteer from which we acknowledged having culled our information. We were not surprised to know that some of the books are in existence, but even so, the great bulk of our readers will not have access to the Directory, and for their benefit we will select a few portions from week to week for a number of months perhaps, and give the present readers of THE CHRONICLE a chance to look again over the by-gone past. This week we continue and tell the names of some who were here in business 40 years ago.

JAS. IRELAND REMEMBER THE PLACE - LAIDLAW'S OLD STAND.

Clean Sweep. Planning for fall business means with us, clearing out the balance of the Laidlaw stock, absolutely without reserve. We insist on selling at a loss rather than carry goods over from one season to another, and the more you can analyse that fact the more you'll appreciate the constantly increasing success of this business. Below we quote a few prices, but every department of the store will participate in this big sale.

OUR PRINTS VERY SPECIAL. Good, heavy, wide goods, new from the mills. Buying in case lots enables us to sell these regular 12c Prints for 10c. Men's Undressed White Shirts, continuous facings back and sleeves, double stitched, for 50c. Call in and inspect them.
