Maida's

SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING "By which you mean it is none of been?" CHAPTERS .- Maida Carringford the mine. Well, I don't suppose it is. Illegitimate child of Sir Richard She is a pretty girl, is she not?" The stage is attacked and Constance I never saw her equal. It is not in the full sunlight. If she noticed Is wounded. Maida leaves her for mere beauty of feature either. You the manoeuvre it was only to defy dead and goes to impersonate her in can see the beauty of her character his purpose by bringing her face England. Caryl Wilton, who knew shining out of those glorious eyes." more squarely into the light. "The Maida as a famous actress, meets her at some amateur theatricals in her Algy?'. new home.

CHAPTER XVI.

ing who was the cause of all the eyes.

is the lucky dog?" ing woman? He watched the carriage as it "Her cousin Guy." drove out of the grounds, and then "Oh, she loves him, eh? Well, he York and Boston. But the last city with a set purpose took his way af- is a fine-looking fellow. Of course I made an extended stop at was San ter it. It did not matter to him he reciprocates?" how far the Hall was away. It suit- "He worships her.

woman he loved. on a bench and watched it.

there in the room of Constance Hart- marry him, she may as well know back." leigh, is Maida Carringford. By that I am in earnest, and have not Caryl bowed and answered with a what right is she there? Is she Con- forgotten the day I offered her my smile: stance Hartleigh? She may be, but heart. Yes, she may as well know "You are very kind, Sir Richard. have that she is Maida Carringford, thing." and that she once acted on the stage. ed for her hither and thither, and tance. He was prepared for a strug- as you from us long. I shall never given up the search, only to find her gle, but no one looking at his care- forget the treat you gave us last at the last by a mere piece of luck. less grace of demeanor, would have night. And my daughter"-he look-Luck! No, it was not luck. Luck guessed it. to have that particular invitation of a hundred brought to me? No, it was fate if you will, but luck-ne-

"But how comes she to be here? wide open, as if Sir Richard were de- ance. It made hers what it was." How comes she to be Constance sirous of keeping up the ancient and "Pardon me if I presume to differ," Hartleigh? And that she is a Hart- he pitable ways of his ancestors, retorted Caryl. "Anything I did plications. her and her father? If by chance comers. After knocking, Caryl stepleigh, who shall deny after seeing who maintained open house to all was only possible with the inspirathere be something in her life to con- ped into the wide hall, and there ing. It was truly great." ceal, does the old man share the se- waited until a servant in livery came | Sir Richard nodded, with brightencret? And if he does not, what will and took his card. she do to keep it from him?

in my, love! Oh, I know I am as -and, turning, saw a figure coming downcast face. and I have fought the fight against him. It was Maida.

ogies to the Duchess for his description from the ball the previous he glanced significantly at her night.

In and in torturing her, it must be so. He would some day prove that of all the carbohydrates.

In and in torturing her, it must be so. He would some day prove that of all the carbohydrates.

And she forgave him, because there was nothing else to do, as everybody did for him very nearly as he wished. "Where is Algy?" he asked, looking round the table.

"Sick abed, where he will be now for a week recovering from the strain of his success."

a moral than a physical one. "I am glad to see you, old fellow. Good of you to come up here out of "Sorry to see you in bed, Algy;

but if you will dabble in theatricals, ply. "I was afraid it would be so." why, you must suffer." "But what a success, Caryl. And silence, his eyes resting on her face.

did you ever, now, on your honor, Then she looked up. see such a Juliet before?" "She certainly did well for an amateur." "Do you mean you do not really think it was good acting?"

was her first attempt, was it not?" "Certainly. She said so herself." "Well, don't fire up so about your idel. Algy. By the way how does she happen to be the daughter of Sir Richard, when I did not know he had such a thing."

There is no harm in supposing a mys- barrassment, not a tremor of the eye- is seated on a carpet during so stir catsup with a wooden or silver

By the Author of " A Gipsy's Daughter," " Another flan's Wife," " A Heart's Bitterness,"

CHAPTER XVII.

ment and exertion."

the lawn, as you came up the walk?"

"No; I have seen no one but you."

words, but she would not seem to see

There was a double meaning in his

of him for some years, because I have not been in England." "Ah, travelling," said Sir Richard, nodding affably, his hand toying Etc., Etc. carelessly with Maida's white sleeve, his eyes wandering to her face with  that strange look of anxious, craving affection. "And where have you "In many places," answered Caryl leaning forward so that his own Hartleigh, meets her half-sister Con- "Pretty?" cried Lord Algy, with face was in the shade, while the scornful emphasis; "she is beautiful. beautiful face of the young girl was

"Rather enamoured, aren't you, place I last visited was America." "Ah, yes, quite new ground," said night? You did well, Mr. Wilton.

It was the universal verdict that it had never been so well done. How gy is not well. Sorry to hear Al-

"Very; but I have not seen much friend of his, are you not?"

"I would not care for more than Sir Richard. "In my day we did her friendship and the chance to ser- not go so far. You visited New ve her. Besides, there is another." York and Boston, I suppose?" The dark eyebrows went up, and Maida seemed to feel the answer

In the meantime what was he do- there was a strange glint in the dark before it was made, for a slight shiver ran over her, but her eyes neagony which rent the soul of the err- "Another, did you say? And who ver lost their smiling look of inter-"Yes," said Caryl, softly, "New Francisco." Who that He looked at Maida and she smiled ed him for the moment to follow the knows her does not? Always ex- back without a tremor. Then, with a perfectly natural movement, she He strode after the carriage care- "Oh, you must always leave me let her arm slip out of her father's the shadow on the curtains, which "It is just as well to go at once," "Yes, yes; and I suppose you are in Her Majesty's life. room was Maida's he threw himself he said to himself; "for if she really not sorry to be back in old England is in love with this Hercules, or ev- again, eh? And I am safe to say "Yes," he said to himself "up en if she is not, but only intends to old England is glad to have you she fears me for the knowledge I that Caryl Wilton has forgotten no- I can only answer for myself. England holds to-day all that is dearest It was in a strange frame of mind in the world to me."

that he walked up to the great door | "I am glad to hear you say it, sir. "To think that I should have hunt- of the Hall and knocked for admit- We cannot afford to have such men ed around, and Maida glided to his digestible as wheat. side, put her hand on his shoulder, and stood with eyes veiled by their white lids-"my daughter is indebted The great doors of the Hall were to you for your masterly perform-

"Sir Richard," said Caryl, and "Yes, a surprise, too, sir, even to "Why, Caryl Wilton, you talk like stepped into the drawing-room, the me, her father. I can scarcely believe it. And her first attempt, Mr.

mad with this love as ever Romeo, with a quick, graceful step toward It was clear then, that the old man new nothing of her being Maida Carit and been conquered. I will never A sudden thrill of surprise and ad- ringford. She had concealed it from his rest that night, no one would have supposed the next morning that ave supposed the next morning that ave supposed the next morning that appropriate the state of the state have supposed the next morning that anything unusual in his life had taken place, for he entered the breakfast room with his easy, imperturb fast room with his easy, imperturbast room with ms cas, and made his apolorigination and made his apolorigination to the Duchess for his deserorigination to the Duchess for his deserunmistakable meaning as he answered:

Where is Guy?—will be only too department of the preserves. We have some game.

Large pores are caused by an inactive skin and lack of attention. Use lighted with a companion through the preserves. We have some game.

Large pores are caused by an inactive skin and lack of attention. Use lighted with a companion through the preserves. We have some game. "Had I been ill last night's exper- Mr. Wilton. I am no shot, myself, thoroughly and then apply a good papering the walls.

A warm light softened the dark had some good pictures at the Hall.

Will you go through the gallery?" "I am very sorry," she said sim-"I shall be delighted." Sir Richard rose, and drew Maida's There was a moment of awkward arm through his. "Did you see Guy-my cousin-on he said.

To be Continued. PROSPECTIVE WIVES.

ing out of the window-"and is sure prefer "moon-faced" wives rather to come in presently. I will go in than lean ones, and are more solicitsearch of papa," and with a slight ous as to the number of pounds inclination of the head, she glided which their brides weigh than about the stock of accomplishments they

STATUE OF QUEEN VICTORIA AT TORONTO. The statue to be erected in Queen's Park in front of the Parliament building, at Toronto, Ont., will be a worthy memorial of Queen Victoria. knew the way to the Hall and he And with this he went off to pre- were some flowers, several of which It is by the Italian sculptor Raggi, who has long been one of the forewas going there. And when he reach- pare for a walk to the Hall. And a were in danger of falling out of the most exponents of his art in England where he has lived for many years. ed there he entered the grounds and half hour later he was striding along dish. She had her back to them as The statue will be of bronze, a replica of one in Hong Kong. Her Malooked up at the windows that were leisurely, swinging his cane easily, she arranged these, and Sir Richard jesty gave the sculptor a number of sittings, and warmly praised the result. The panels in bronze set into the granite base will represent scenes

About theHouse

The parched, drawn condition of and pepper, and a teaspoonful of the way they commenced.

food, exercise, cleanliness, rest and in a porcelain kettle and cook until street. Occasionally they take walks cute her? Ay, and persecute again! his ears as well as his eyes were as "Her first attempt, yes," said body, and restlessness is the result. Spoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of body, and restlessness is the result. Spoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of body, and restlessness is the result. Spoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of the body and restlessness is the result. And she shall love me and be happy quick as a North American Indian's Caryl, his eyes fixed on the now love! Oh I know I am as warm is a trite saying. make her mine, and to make her love "Good-morning," she said, holding "I hope you will make a long stay destroyed by rubbing a cut lemon in-love me, for I will have it so if such He took her hand and bowed over lingly have said to her, "Maida, my iva before deglutition (swallowing) fer in the doing what of it? Will this vision of pure womanhood. It you whom I love so passionately. Will this vision of pure womanhood. It you whom I love so passionately. was not the Maida Carringford he had dreamed of, but his heart left no you give yourself to me. I will prodamp rag, wipe on an the plaster of the month of August the Leyland other member of the Royal House.

"Well, well," said the old man, "I the fatty tissues of the body when where it will not be disturbed until run four grain-carrying steamships of the fatty tissues of the fatty tiss

They may be out of fashion now. grains?" Beware. Only eight or and firm you can remove the leaf, or twenty by and by. A cold water bath in a cold or cool room is a luxury to one having "We will show you what we have," sufficient vitality for reaction. The is to be recommended in preference to the use of warm water in a cold

Sugar is useful in warm weather Like the Turks and many other or in warm climates, as it supplies consider it was her first attempt. It "He is about the grounds"—look- dwellers in Oriental lands, the Moors heating effects of large quantities of than starch, fats or oils.

A CATSUP CHAPTER. Richard, when I did not know he had such a thing."

Caryl Wilton sank into a chair and had such a thing."

Caryl Wilton sank into a chair and looked after her, with a singular had such a thing."

Nobody knew it until recently."

Simile curving his lips. What a wonship of empty should be about twelve years of age. Her about twelve years of age. "Do tell me the mystery of her life. derful woman. Not a sign of em- hands are tied behind her, and she which is a greenish poison. Always But for the throbbing heart within "papa" stands over her with a mahis breast he must have been deof or have heard of, or have heard his breast he must have been degeseseseseseses urated with the wax. Scal the caton their sides.

weigh. To four pounds of pulp al- ets-his favorites came in third, as behalf of the low one pound of sugar, four tea- usual, and a gold watch was the spoonfuls of cinnamon, two tea-

Letter for the nails if you file them put into a preserving kettle. Mash give in they went their separate well, place on the fire and cook un- courses, much to the surprise and Ether is not likely to lose its effi- til tender, and then strain. To evcacy in repeated trials, but the per- ery ten pounds of pulp allow six This peculiar couple never spend son may rebel against repeated ap- pounds of sugar, one teaspoonful their summer holidays togethereach of cinnamon, cloves, allspice seemingly they intend to go on in

The rewards many. Good air, good Use the bright red tomatoes. Place tages though living in the same tender, and then strain. To this together as during the courting Heavy bed clothing does not allow quantity of tomatoes and three large days, otherwise their behavior apthe proper radiation of heat from the onions chopped very fine one table- pears to be merely friendly.

health. The head cool and the feet ground cloves, and celery seed in a bag. Simmer about six hours. Dandruff, in many cases, may be Cucumber catsup.—Pare large, ripe

Whatever his dreams, or whatever his dreams, or whatever his rest that night, no one would be rest to the compoundation of the lamp in which the burner screws, but had dreamed of, but his heart left no doubt that in this as in any other test would not do gastric juice. She blushed at the implied compli
"It depends on circumstances, Sir one to the stomach a rest, and laughed softly and music of all the plaster o to eat. Give the stomach a rest. damp rag, wipe off all the plaster for the month of August the Leyland every bit as "stiff-necked" as any ence of the mesherist, thought in a sudden change of had any of that power, he never exercised it, and the effect was rather a moral than a physical one.

Should be thoroughly cooked to open the starch cells, else it is indigestifully and the effect was rather as moral than a physical one.

Should be thoroughly cooked to open the starch cells, else it is indigestifully and the effect was rather as moral than a physical one.

Should be thoroughly cooked to open the starch cells, else it is indigestifully and the effect was rather as moral than a physical one.

Should be thoroughly cooked to open the starch cells, else it is indigestifully and the starch cells, else it is indigestifully and the effect was rather as a social side to the desire to get as a social side to the desire to "Well, they used to tell me that we ad some good pictures at the Hall."

"Well, they used to tell me that we ad some good pictures at the Hall."

"Well, they used to tell me that we ad some good pictures at the Hall."

"Well, they used to tell me that we also of the new elevator equipont for the final distinct for the marine leg of the new elevator equipont for the sum offered. The temptation of the sum offered. The temptation of the sum offered anything with large veins to make a leg of the new elevator equipont for the sum offered. The temptation of the sum offered anything with large veins to make a leg of the new elevator equipont for the sum offered. The temptation of the sum offered anything with large veins to make a leg of the new elevator equipont for the sum offered anything with large veins to make a leg of the new elevator equipont for the sum offered anything with large veins to make a leg of the new elevator equipont for the sum offered anything with large veins to make a leg of the new elevator equipont for the sum offered anything with large veins to make a leg of the new elevator equipont for the sum offered anything with large veins to make a leg of the new elevator equipont for the sum of the s move the cause. "Only eight or ten grains?" Beware. Only eight or ten grains now may mean eighteen leaving a perfect impress of itself. The energy the cars. Ten cents' worth of the plaster will do much work.

TO CLEAN BROADCLOTH.

A bottle of ammonia, a small sponge and a piece of dark flannel will clean a broadcloth skirt as well as the best cleaner if one takes time and pains. The cloth should be wet only slightly, broadcloth never being soaked through. The proportions of ammonia to water should be for black goods one tablespoonful to a cup of water, For light colored material it is better to make a weaker solution, lest the ammonia fade the

A BOY'S ESSAY ON WATER. A very original essay on water is quoted by a contemporary. One or ered that she was innocent, and rought for her, but only succeeded in finding the daughter, who was an infining to fire a boys with a squirt the condiments before adding them the condiments before adding them the throught the condiments before adding them the throught the condiments before adding them the throught the patient tooking). If the condiments before adding them the throught the patient tooking). If the condiments before adding them the throught the patient tooking). If the condiments before adding them the patient boys at a squirt thing to fire a boys with the gun and to catch fishes in. But the gun and to catch fishes in.

Why was not the mother found?

"Mr. Wilton? Yes, yes," said S and with the right he fastens it by in length. The rails are made of trees, from which the bark has been stripped, and these are bolted togethand. "Glad to see you. Very kind of you to remember us, I'm sure of you to you to HONEYMOON'S SPENT APART. TRYING TO HIRE ROYALTY.

Sometimes Done by Accident-Sometimes by Design.

The average couple usually leave while the wedding bells are still The Many Schemes Adopted to ringing, glad to embrace a week or two of quietude before shaking themselves down in earnest to the serious business of life.

differ. A recently married pair went will, with a very few superior exto their separate homes immediately ceptions, flock willingly. Thus, if a after the ceremony, the wife taking plutocrat can inveigle a prince or her usual place at the sewing ma- princess to one of his entertainments chine as if no unusual event had he may assure himself that he will marked the day; while the husband never subsequently have any difficuldressed himself in ordinary holiday ty in attracting an aristocratic clothes, an early train carrying him crowd to his drawing-room and as to Scarborough, England, where he an invitation must be made in reenjoyed himself in solitary style for turn for his hospitality he is socialnearly a fortnight. During this time ly established in the lap of aristoche never wrote a line to his wife, racy. Hence, the whole matter is nor was she acquainted with his ad- one of capturing an efficient prince, Returning to the home of his par- son's Weekly.

to go by before calling on his better whose position in attendance on the half. Then it was to inform her royal family makes his word quite that he intended going to America, incontestible, that numerous atand would send for her in due course. tempts were essayed to make King A week later he sailed without so Edward, when Ptince of Wales, the much as bidding his wife good-bye. bait to attract the nobility to the She entertains little hope of ever houses of wealthy people who hankseeing him again, and the neighbors ered after titled friends. Such atwonder why the pair ever got mar- tempts were never, of course, made

A gentleman who never permits equerry or other member of the royany occurrence to interfere with tusi- al suite, and always glossed over in ness was married in great style to the most delicate manner possible. the pretty daughter of a wealthy For instance, in the Diamond Jumerchant. The same afternoon wit- bilee year a certain American milnessed him running about London, lionaire made a frantic attempt to up to his ears in work, while his get into the best London society, darling went to Paris for a month, and received a series of blighting accompanied by her mamma!

prevent burning, then strain and week. He returned with empty pock- ing a collection would be made on of pepper and salt to taste. This is builds with a pound by a result by a resu moon on the Continent; her partner pear at the entertainment, since that Rye is very nutritious, but not so an excellent relish to serve with moon on the Continent; her pertials Grape Catsup.—Wash, drain and voted for Douglas. As neither would and be controlled by controlled by

Not only did a newly-married Tomato Catsup.-Scald, peel, slice couple agree to spend their holiday

QUEBEC AS A GRAIN PORT.

Their Experiment So Far.

Tired feet may be quickly rested quart of the pulp allow a teaspoonand greatly benefited by bothing ful of coverne perper, one teaspoonven forbid, I will let her be happy in the love of the best man she can find; and if my death would help her to greater happiness, then I would die, greater happiness, then I would die, good claer vinegar. Mix together of their first shipments from Quekind of thing, albeit, of course, the kind of thing, albeit, of course, the bec. H. H. Melville of Boston and Willingly. But first she shall acting, if acting it were, was perhave no chance of doubt if she can feet.

ped nearly a million and a quarter but the report is quite unworthy of business of Quebec is illustrated by lieved of his services forthwith. the fact that all the available stor- Great as was the offer in that case, wharves has been taken up, necessi- least a score of Britons who would tating the immediate construction be glad to pay three or four times by the Harbor Commission, of a se- that amount for the honor of enterrics of new sheds, each 850 feet taining a Royal personage at dinner, long, and 80 feet wide, one of which and who only refrain from making has already been completed. So pro- such offers because they have the mising is the development of this good sense to know that they would trade that large improvements are not be accepted, and would only inbeing made to the roadbed of the sult the personages approached. A railway to enable it to meet the famous multi-millionaire used openly new demands upon it. New stretches to declare he would be quite pleased of road are being built to avoid dif- "to drop" $500,000 to anyone ficult curves and grades, and heavier or anything securing for him the rails are being laid wherever neces- honor of entertaining the Prince and at times pops into her mouth a ball through a colander, then through a line of couscoussou, or stiff maize por- sieve to make the pulp five. Ile heard footsteps again, and presently she entered, with Sir Richard at times pops into her mouth a ball through a colander, then through a sieve to make the pulp fine. Simmer sieve to make the pulp fine. Si ridge (kneaded up with grease, and just large enough to be swallowed prevent burning. Mix and of the continues is used for a good late Congress of Medicine, and is, of late Congress of just large enough to be swallowed without the patient choking). If the condiments before adding things. Sailors use water to

A SKIN SEWING MACHINE.

"TO USE OF H. R. H. FOR THREE HOURS-$500,000."

Get Into British Scciety.

Ideas of spending the honeymoon Where royalty will go the nobility princess or royal duke, says Pearents, he permitted a couple of days The writer has it from a friend directly, but generally through an snubs in consequence, as he had not Pleading the poorness of trade as the most excellent character in the an excuse for not taking a holiday world. His final effort, the failure of after the wedding, a fairly well-to- which completely extinguished him, do grocer left his wife in her new was in arranging an elaborate party sup while hot. When cold, put in a shop Towards overling the was in arranging an elaborate party dry, cool place, resting the bottles shop. Towards evening the young riots staying over in London were that her spouse had gone to Doncas- Prince saying that a party was to ter races, but would return within a be given, and that during the even-

PRINCE'S HOSPITAL FUND and that he intended to start the col-And he actually had the effrontery to add that, as nobody but himself would be aware of the amount of his contribution, it would be left to the Prince's discretion to do with it exactly as he pleased, which was one way of saying "keep it." Had the Prince been trapped, the pushful millionaire would have sent out a few hundred invitations to the flower of English nobility requesting their attendance "to meet H.R.H., the Prince of Wales," and they could hardly have declined the invitation. As it was, however, a reply was sent saying that H.R.H., having so many engagements, and taking into consideration that the entertainment was a purely private one, he, not having even the claims of acquaintanceship Shippers Said to be Satisfied with upon the hospitality of the millionaire, found it impossible to accept the invitation; but he trusted that The Leyland Steamship Company the entertainment would be an unand the American capitalists who qualified success, and that a substantial sum would be collected and

ed. "Yes, I am well, and not at all tired. And you?"

His dark eves lighted up with an element of the hody when the stomach.

Steamship Company has decided to the hody when where it will not be disturbed until trust you will not forget us, Mr. Wilter is a shortage in the region of the hody when the stomach.

Steamship Company has decided to the hody when approached the region of the hody when the stomach.

Steamship Company has decided to the hody when the run four grain-carrying steamships the run four grain-carrying steamships to Quebec instead of two, one of the hody when the run four grain-carrying steamships the run four grain-carrying steamships the run four grain-carrying steamships the proposed wall and York was approached the stomach. minals at Quebec to accommodate present offered in the case and that was gand to see Caryl, who had over him something of the soothing influence of the mesmerist; though, if he had any of that power, he never exhalf and open disconting a quickening of the soothing influence of the mesmerist; though, if he had any of that power, he never exhalf and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist; though, if he had any of that power, he never exhalf and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist; though, if he had any of that power, he never exhalf and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist; though, if he had any of that power, he never exhalf and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist; though, if he expression. "Lord Alay does not get the power of the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist; though, if he expression. "Lord Alay does not get the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist; though, if he expression. "Lord Alay does not get the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist; though, if he expression. "Lord Alay does not get the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist; though, if he expression. "Lord Alay does not get the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist and the discharging of the soothing influence of the mesmerist and the d The enormous spurt which the com- the Duke's attendant who conveyed pany's operations have given to the the proposal to His Highness was re-accommodation upon the if the figure is correct, there are at

to a dinner, and it was said in all sincerity.

BRITAIN'S INDIAN ARMY