Taken by Surprise

MR. AND MRS. GEO. LAMB AND FAMILY HONOURED BY THEIR FRIENDS.

The evening of Sept. 24th, 1901, will be long and pleasantly remembered by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lamb and family, when to their great surprise, about eight o'clock, the door was opened, and close on to a hundred of their neighbors and church friends rushed in upon them with smiling faces and laden baskets.
 For a time all was excitement, after which the dying embers of the stove were rekindled and preparations for tea proceeded with. Mr. Lamb was requested to brush up a little and present himself similar in appearance to his guests, after which a sufficient number of chairs were placed along the room when Rev.
 Mr. Graham conveyed Mr. Lamb to the top chair and similarly placing the rest of the family in rotation, and then calling the assembly to order and briefly explaining the object of the gathering, called upon Dr. Smith, a representative from the Committee Board, to read an address which will explain itself.

 ing at the MacLean's, west of

 THAT the tendency to amalgamation now-a-days has been extended to journalistic circles as well as commercial, is shown by the recent purchase of The Canadian Home Journal by Mr. Hugh C. McLean, publisher of The Ladies' Magazine, Toronto. The Journal, which was established many years ago, will be discontinued as distinct publication, and will be merged into The Ladies' Magazine, which has already won a place for itself as the popular home paper for Canadian women.

Miss Hannah Bonner Married.

The following item taken from the Scottville (Mich.) Enterprise will be of interest to the residents of Durham, as it refers to a former Durham girl, Miss Hannah Bonner, who lived at one time with her parents here before moving to the States:— A very quiet and pretty wedding took place at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, Sept. 3rd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bonner, when their daughter Hannah was united in marriage to Wm. P. Griffith, Principal of Chase school.
 At the appointed hour Miss Nellie Griffiths, sister of the groom, struck up the wedding march and the bridal party entered the parlour. The bride was attended by her sister Carrie and the groom assisted by Mr. Elmer Hannon.
 The usual ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jack, of Reed City, who tied the nuptial knot and the happy couple was soon pronounced man and wife. Only immediate relatives and friends of the family were present.
 The only guests from out of town being Rev. F. M. Woodmanson, of Custer.
 After the ceremony ice cream and cake were served and the remainder of the evening spent pleasantly, the bride and groom being the recipients of many beautiful presents, warm congratulations and best wishes for their future prosperity.
 As we have known both contracting parties and can speak well of them we join heartily in the general feeling and wish them God speed.
 It is customary to say the bride looked handsome and in this case it can be said without any perversion of the truth. She was neatly attired in a cream silk mull dress and wore sweet peas. Miss Carrie was dressed in white organdie and wore sweet peas and also looked very pretty.
 In conclusion we may add that Mrs. Griffiths is an estimable lady and one for whom every one has the highest feeling of respect. We have also a high opinion of Mr. Griffiths based on a very intimate acquaintance and it is our earnest wish that a long, prosperous and happy life be their lot.

OUT of respect to the national grief over the tragic death of President McKinley, the Pan-American Exposition was closed on Thursday, Sept.
 19th, the day of the state funeral.
 The gates were re-opened on Friday, September 20th, and will remain open until November 1st, in accordance with the original plan of the Exposition managers.
 A QUIET wedding took place Sat-ursday morning last at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. R. Macfarlane, when his daughter, Miss Effie, was happily wedded to Mr. A. H. Jackson, Rev. Mr. Farquharson tied the nuptial knot, after which a wedding breakfast was partaken of and the newly wed couple set out on a honeymoon trip. They are an estimable couple, and we join their many friends in offering congratulations.

TO MR. GEO. LAMB,
 We the members of the Committee of Management of the Latona Presbyterian Church could not allow you, who has given to us sixteen years of faithful and efficient service, to part from us without expressing in some manner our appreciation of your work as a member of committee and as Secretary of the congregation. We must bear testimony to your faithfulness in attendance despite the drawback of distance, to your executive ability and despatch which has done much to facilitate business. We also must not forget to thank your partner in life to whose co-operation in the work we are indebted, and while expressing our respect for his service from amongst us we greet at your departure from amongst us we cast your lot that prosperity and true happiness may attend you.
 Signed on behalf of committee,
 JAMES L. SMITH, M. D.
 Mr. Geo. Ledingham, Jr., was also called upon for a similar address from the congregation and neighbors, and it reads as follows.

TO MR. AND MRS. LAMB AND FAMILY,
 We, the members and adherents of Latona Church, together with your neighbors and friends, could not think of allowing you to leave our midst without in some way showing our respect and goodwill to you. We have been faithful members of our Church, kind neighbors, genial friends and good citizens.
 We are sorry it has come the time when these happy relations are to be severed, but in the providence of God these things come into our lives. We would therefore ask you, Mr. Lamb, to accept of this fur coat, and Mrs. Lamb this rocking chair, Minnie these gloves, Gertrude and Ethel these gan-tlets, Sadie this parasol. Herb this wedding tie and John (who is absent) this Bible. We hope you will not look upon the intrinsic value of these things but recognize the respect and interest of those who are sorry to bid you farewell. We wish you health and prosperity in the new locality where you may pitch your tent. Our prayer is that you may continue to serve in God's church with the efficiency that was manifest by your devotedness here, and while we regret separating one from the other on this side of eternity, yet we have the glorious hope set before us, that through Jesus Christ by and bye we shall meet in that happy land where there will be no more partings.
 Signed on behalf of the Latona Congregation, Dornoch, and neighbors and friends, GEO. LEDINGHAM, JR.
 JOSEPH BOYLE,
 RICHARD ENGLISH.

THROWING STONES.
 John S; 3-II.
 Not sure to question has our sister fell Down into depths of shame from honor's throne.
 Nor dare we to condemn; for Jesus Christ The Savior of the Magdalene, and more The Savior from self-righteousness has said In tones of stern command—"Be very sure That ye yourselves are free from sin Ere ye destroy your fellow-sinner's life." Therefore our lips sealed; we cannot face the test.
 For none are wholly free from sin.
 And He, the pure and spotless One Did not condemn; He said in tones wherein Were blended love and sorrow; helpfulness and Strength
 For future need—"Go forth, and sin no more."
 Sept. 30, 1901. J. M. B.

WE refer our readers to a very interesting letter from Mr. R. J. Scott, who is now in Manitoba. Even there we see that cement is a needed article.
 Write again, Mr. Scott, when you have interesting items to tell.
 Don't forget the Millinery Openings at the different showrooms in town next Friday and Saturday, Oct. 4th and 5th, and following days.
 The latest styles in headgear will be shown.

MR. GILBERT MCKECHNIE was at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Cement Co. in Toronto on Monday and Tuesday of this week.
 Everything is going on as usual and the most sanguine expectations of the promoters is being fully realized.
 The construction of the work is now in progress and with so excellent a material as the cement blocks, and the ease by which they can be put in place the work will not be long in making a good showing.

During the reading of Mr. Ledingham's address, at a certain time, Mr.
 Wm. Smith came forward and presented Mr. Lamb with the fur coat, Mr. Jos. Boyle to Mrs. Lamb with the chair, Miss Elsie Smith to Minnie the gloves, Miss Sarah Boyle to Gertrude and Ethel the gauntlets, Miss Annie Livingston to Sadie the Parasol, Mr. Wm. Boyle to Herb the wedding tie. John being absent the bible was forwarded by Mr. Graham.
 After a moment's pause, Mr. Lamb thought taken greatly by surprise, found himself wholly at sea to find words suitable to express his grate-tude to his many friends for the honor and esteem bestowed upon himself and family prior to their leaving. It was something certainly beyond his expectations, something he didn't feel himself entitled to, in doing a little church work which the address speaks of in such flowing terms. Mr. Lamb looked upon the work as only endeavoring to do his duty which had been entrusted to him and his colleagues.
 However, after Mr. Lamb's brief and suitable remarks, the ladies proceeded to serve lunch which was heartily partaken of amidst mirth and good feeling towards each other.
 By this time Mr. Graham had a good program framed out consisting of speeches, singing, dialogues, etc. and he (Mr. G.) taking the chair proceeded to have the program carried out. Messrs. Dr. Smith, C. Boyle, K. English, Thos. Jack and others all had some good and flattering remarks towards Mr. Lamb and family as neighbors and citizens. Messrs.
 W. Smith and McKee, of Dornoch, gave some fine solos and songs. Mr.
 Joseph Boyle proved a good entertainer with his talented singing.

MR. MARY CALDER, of Durham, was in town Saturday and made a pleasant call at the Rep. sanctorium. His worship, like most Durhams, thinks there is nothing to equal cement, and that there proposed mud factory is going to be the biggest and best thing that ever was. We hope his enthusiasm may never lessen as it is a good quality for any mayor to possess and deserves to be encouraged by success.—Mt. Forest Rep.
 MRS. SMITH, of Ingersol, aunt of Dr. Jamieson, died at Galt on Sunday last, at the home of her son. The deceased was returning from a visit with friends in Guelph, when she was taken ill rather suddenly, and despite the best procurable medical treatment passed away in a few days.
 The funeral took place Tuesday, at Guelph Cemetery, and was very largely attended, many of the citizens being intimately acquainted with her for several years. We understand Mrs. Smith was quite an aged lady.
 WE were at the Pan-American and did not get home in time to attend the World's Fair at Holstein. We learn, however, that it was the most successful ever held in Egremont, both along the line of exhibits and personal interest as shown by the immense crowd of visitors that turned out on Tuesday last to see the display. It is said that the attendance was almost as good, if not equally as good, as the attendance here where $340 were taken at the gate on a ten and fifteen cent charge of admission. The exhibits in all classes are highly spoken of, and while we regret our inability to give full details this week we hope to be furnished with material to give in our next issue when the prize list will appear. The failure of the train to make connections at Harrisburg was the cause of our non attendance, but things went on all right without us and we congratulate the management on their continued success, which we believe may be attributed largely to the fact that this is purely a local agricultural exhibition.
 It is really gratifying to see how the interest keeps up and more than that it is highly commendable.
