DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor.

DURHAM, OCTOBER 3RD, 1901.

FLESHERTON.

The East Grey Exhibition held here on Thursday and Friday last was favored with most delightful weather and was both in attendance and exhibits a great success.

You Can Lead a Horse to water but you can't make him drink.

to water but you can't make him drink. You can't make him eat either. You can stuff food in to a thin man's stomach but that doesn't make him use it.

work, fine arts and plants, Mrs. C. Knott, Epping, Miss McCullough, Dundalk, Mrs. Miller and Miss Madill, Shelburne.

The Society Concert on Friday evening was also a success. The Town Hall was crowded to the doors with an audience both orderly and appreciative.

The Markdale Band furnished a liberal supply of excellent music, both afternoon and evening.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather on Sabbath last, the Methodist Church Anniversary was a decided success.

Trooper L. W. Mulloy, who a year ago lost his sight while fighting for his Queen in South Africa, is to lecture on "The brightest of life on the veil" in the Town Hall here, on Thursday evening this week.

Mrs. Harvey, of Toronto, formerly Secretary of Foreign Missions, but now Inspector for the Child's Saving Society, was a guest at the Maize over Sunday, and delivered a very interesting address on Missions in the Presbyterian church in the afternoon.

Mr. Lamont, who has been in charge of the Baptist cause here for the past twelve months, preached his farewell sermon on Sabbath morning and leaves this week to resume his duties in McMaster University, Toronto.

Rev. Ivison Wilson conducted anniversary service for Rev. L. W. Thom at Proton Station, on Sunday evening last, and the choir of his church entertained at the Harvest Home there on Monday evening.

The fall millinery openings here on Friday and Saturday last were interesting features of the week, attracting a large number of the fair sex, who were highly pleased with the stylish and beautiful creations in headgear, which were shown.

Mr. Samuel Arnott, of Mt. Zion neighborhood, fell from a wagon one day last week and broke his thigh bone. Dr. Carter, of this place, and McWilliams, of Dundalk, reduced the fracture, which is a bad one, and which, at Mr. Arnott's advanced years, may not readily knit.

Mr. T. Graham, of London, has leased one of Mrs. Moorhouse's dwellings, and with his family will reside here.

Mr. Richard Smith is going to Toronto to live, and has rented his house to Mr. W. Smyth, liveryman, who will be greatly inconvenienced by the situation of dwelling.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Strain left on Thursday last to spend the winter at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Mr. Ed. Hamilton and daughter, Miss Winnie, and Mrs. W. W. Trimble, left on Friday last to visit friends at Detroit.

Miss Vera Fawcett, of Toronto Junction, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Down.

NOTHING HUNTS OUT CORNS Like tight boots. Nothing removes corns with such certainty as Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

CORNER CONCERNS.

Mr. Wm. Black, of Hespler, is making his first visit to this part since his removal a number of years ago as a boy. A moustache and other developments have changed his appearance since.

The Varney Correspondent since we commenced the education of our mule has been bothering around us trying every means for a share of our attention which we were unable to give being so engaged, we soon found that one at a time was all we could manage, so of the two we naturally chose the least.

Mr. Dave Ritchie was unfortunate last week in losing one of his team while engaged in play it suddenly lay down and died in a few minutes.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hannah, of Fergus, visited the latter's sister, Mrs. A. Chapman, and many other intimate friends last week.

Mr. Jas. Allan was accompanied home from the West by Miss M. Baird, who will remain for a while.

Mr. Wm. McFadden raised an addition to his barn 50x35 last Monday which will be used for various purposes.

Mr. Jas. McLaughlan while cutting timber off the cement railroad track, sunk the axe into his leg, went to the Dr. had it dressed, went back to work and may possibly think it one of those small matters that should not be mentioned.

Gangs of men are now scattered pretty well along the road from Durham right through to the Lake.

Mr. Weir, of Collingwood, a jolly old man of eighty-two, and his good wife, visited their grand-daughter, Mrs. Geo. Lawrence, Jr., last week. In a social gathering they helped on the good cheer in song and social chat. Their son accompanied them.

Mr. John Sharp's son has beat all efforts in the shape of high diving from the top of a 24 feet well into only two feet of water and was unhurt. He made no special effort either but just happened to do it accidentally.

Mr. John Barbour is recovering slowly from the severe kick he got a week ago.

Mr. Wm. Marshall has just finished the contract of laying 500 rods of tile for his brother Jim in Normanby. At various kinds of work and in neatness and dispatch William is noted.

As your Holstein man gave a clever descriptive account of the marriage of Miss Queen and Mr. John Sharp we merely extend congratulations and welcome them to our neighborhood.

On Monday Mr. E. J. Skelton, of Walkerton, placed Handsome dark blue marble monuments to mark the place where lies the beloved of Joseph Mack and David McKelvie.

Every shrewd newspaper reader, especially the ladies, readily acknowledges that the real news that effects the pocketbook is found in the advertisements of the local merchants.

BUNESSAN.

It is some three weeks or more since Mr. S. McComb arrived home from Rainy River.

Mrs. Green, of Toronto, is visiting at the old homestead, Mr. A. Bell's. Her sister, Mrs. McClellin is not mending very rapidly in health. She is at present very low.

Charlie Kennedy is home for a few weeks' visit.

Billy Ryan has had a stable built on the Black farm. It's a bit of neat work by Tom Cherry, of Egremont.

Threshing is about all wound up, and nobody is sorry. It's dirty work tho' a dust blower seems to improve matters considerably.

Of course we all went to Durham Show. Who would miss it anyway? But "why don't they make things more lively on the ring" seems to be the complaint of almost everyone.

Mr. C. Firth was a judge at the Fiesherston Show last Thursday and Friday. He and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Binnie are judges at the World's Fair Holstein this Tuesday.

Paring bees have been held at Hunter's and Beaton's. Allan Bell thinks there isn't a young lady in Glenelg can peel apples with Alice Hunter, and he ought to know.

The Inspector visited the school last Friday morning and is especially pleased with the outside and inside appearance of the school, grounds, etc.

D. H. Brown and Allan Campbell are serving as Jurors in Owen Sound this week.

It is said that our township council is on the lookout for a new township treasurer for 1902. How would Tom Davis fill the bill? We believe he would make a capable treasurer.

GOOD OPINIONS FROM EVERYWHERE

South American Nervine cures that hackneyed speech. "A trial will convince you." Carries with it no deception when applied to this greatest of Nerve treatments.

An influential gentleman recently wrote:—"I join with the thousands who have been benefited by South American Nervine in their good opinions of it. It was recommended to me by one who had been cured by it. I tried it and am cured, and I heartily pass the good word along—it's a wonder-worker to shattered nerves, and an excellent tonic."
