At Priceville Fair

GOOD EXHIBITS—A HAPPY CROWD—AND FINE WEATHER.

On Friday last we visited for a few hours the Artemesia Fair which was held in Priceville, and found it almost an exact repetition of all previous fairs held in the same place if not indeed to all fairs of a local character. The day previous was not very cheerful owing to the weather, and in consequence of this, we presume, the exhibitors did not contribute so largely as they otherwise would. Friday, however, was a choice day and during the afternoon a large number of visitors entered the gates, and on the whole the show may be pronounced a success. Roots, vegetables and grains of all kinds were good, and the stock exhibit and show of horses were quite satisfactory. Fruit vendors were quite sufficient for the occasion, and the plaintive pleadings of two or three fakirs on the "Midway" kept up an incessant howl. The following is the list of prize winners:

Blood.
 We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor. There is nothing else to live on or by. When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood. This is health. When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it. Back of the blood, is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It sets the whole body going again—man woman and child. If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

THE CONCERT.
 On Friday evening the Society wound up with a concert in Watson's Hall, John McArthur, Esq., County Comr., in the chair. After a few appropriate remarks complimenting the Society on their success, and the audience on their good looks, which he stated he had not seen equalled during his sojourn on the other side of the Atlantic, which statement was taken down with great satisfaction by the audience, he proceeded to call on the artists for their share of the entertainment. Our local songstress, Miss J. Renwick, from Dromore, delighted the large audience by her excellent rendering of the various numbers chosen. Amongst others, we might mention the following, viz, "Rolling Home to Bonnie Scotland," "Scotland Forever," and her duets with Mr. Fax, "The Crookit Baabee" and "When Ye gang awa Jamie," were well rendered and highly appreciated. When we have such a singer here at hand, we fail to see the object of importing similar talent to future entertainments. Mr. Jas. Fax, on his first appearance in Priceville, simply took the house by storm. His appearance in every number elicited sounds of hearty applause. The following pieces, viz, "On the wrong side of the fence," "Selected," "English you know," "The Pan-American Show," Chinese character song, and "Noisy little pigs," were really first-class in their line. His gentlemanly manner and entire freedom from vulgarity, added greatly to a really enjoyable program. We predict for the future that he will have no difficulty in filling the Hall should he again visit Priceville. His duets with Miss Renwick were also capitally done. The following gentlemen gave addresses short and to the point, Messrs, Dougal McLean, M. Reiley, R. J. Sproule, of Flesherton, D. McCormick, President A. A. Society, J. Brodie, Sec. A. A. Society, Dr. J. G. Hutton, Durham. They all expressed their pleasure at being present at such an excellent entertainment, and congratulated the Society on its success. Miss Christie, of Flesherton, acted as accompanist in her usual pleasing manner. The concert was brought to a close by the singing of God Save the King by the artists, in which the audience heartily joined. Then good night from the chairman, and another Priceville show ended.

Pleuritic Pains a Danger Signal.
 Prompt treatment is essential. Bathe the region of pain immediately with Polson's Nerviline and quickly bind on a hot bandage sprinkled with Nerviline. Never known to fail. Cures almost instantly. Neuralgia, toothache, rheumatism and lumbago are cured by Nerviline just as readily. Polson's Nerviline cures all pain, and is the best household liniment known. Large bottles 25c.

The Canadian Boy Magazine for September is on our table, clothed in an attractive new cover design, in two colors, by D. B. Milne, a young Canadian of Paisley, Ont. This bright and interesting "handful of boys' literature" is improving with every issue and should be thoroughly welcomed by every home in our broad Dominion that has a boy old enough to read. Its morals are sound, the text bright and entertaining, the illustrations (of which there are many) are well drawn and printed, and add greatly to the value of the magazine. The leading contents of this issue are an Indian Story of the Western plains by W. B. Findlay, illustrated by W. A. Cowan, a thrilling story that will make every boy's blood run hot, and a ghost story by one Leslie that is very lively for a tale of that kind. A number of other splendid contributions appear, also hints to boys on sports, the camera, football, music, Boy's Brigade, "men and things, humorous sketches, etc. Next month new departments will be added on questions and answers, and aid to the boys in engineering, and along all practical lines that boys love so well. Boys everywhere are invited to write the publishers about anything that they wish to know. The magazine is on sale at all newsdealers throughout Canada, or of the publishers, The Turnbull-Wright Co., Guelph, Ont.
