FLESHERTON.

Second annual convention of the Art-Sunday School Association was held at Wesley Church, Meaford Road, on Tuesday last week and was very successful from point of attendance and quality of programmes given. The first session was held at 2:30 p. m. with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Iverson Wilson, of this place. The President, Rev. L. W. of this place, then introduced Mr. J.
Hutchison, teacher at Port Law who very excellent paper on "How to secure faithful attendance of teachers and pupils with 'Influence of the home in Sabbath School'" in a thoughtful and address. To Rev. Jas. Buchanan, talk was assigned, "How to secure teachers the necessary training" and subject was cleverly handled. Rev. addressed the scholars in a very in-manner and aptly illustrated the effects of bad habits and bad com-Miss Christie and Rev. Wilson sang duet. Officers were elected for coming year as follows: Rev. Iverson Flesherton, President; Mr. Wm.
Van deleur, Vice President; Rev.
White, Eugenia, Sec.; Mr. Andrew Flesherton, Treas.; Committee, C. G. James, Fricville, Jno. Cun-n, Markdale, and Jerry Thompson, Auditors, S. Hamphill, Ceylon, Hutchison, Port Law. Mr. Fred Nich-Port Law, was appointed delegate to Annual Association in Toronto, Oct.
The Treasurer's report showed that been contributed by the Sabbath the County Association. At the session the church was crowded and elected president occupied the devotional exercises were conducted W. Thom after which Rev. J. A. of Fricville, gave a comprehensive excellent paper on "Children to the Kingdom." Rev. J.
Markdale, spoke effectively on "The Sabbath School in guardians of our youth," and Mr. W. of the same place, dealt in an interesting manner with "How to keep the Sabbath School." Miss of Alton, sang sweetly "Only a sunshine" and Misses Ailie and Joy, of this place, gave two beautiful duets. An excellent tea was served in the basement of the church by the Road people who received many thanks of the convention for kind hospitality in making ample provisions for man and beast. A hearty invitation was extended from Priceville and next meeting will be held in that place.
Arch, McMillan, west back line, suffered a heavy loss on Saturday morning when his dwelling house and contents were destroyed by fire. The fire started supposedly from the stove pipes having been a fire in the stove late night before, and when discovered about 10 o'clock a. m. had made such headway that there was but little time to save contents.
The loss is estimated at $400, which is only a small part of McMillan's loss.
A. O. U. W. Society acts with com-pable promptness in paying beneficiary of Lida than a month ago Mr. D. Mc-of Eugenia, a member of the lodge passed away and on Saturday last M. Gibson, Recorder, received from and Treasurer a cheque for $300 for loss of the deceased brother. Mrs. is, we learn, very ill at present phoid fever.
Mesia Fall Fair at Priceville, was with "King's" weather on Friday andwithstanding the attractions at a goodly number from here attend-we learn that both the Fair and con-successful.
J. Sproule conducted a sale of goods at his auction rooms on afternoon last and another sale held two weeks from that date.
Mary Wilson, blacksmith, purchased ago through Mr. Sproule, real estate, Mr. E. T. Whitten's shop on which he is now occupying.
Wilson favored his congregational church with not only timely sermons on Sabbath morning the falling leaf or as a leaf, Isa. 64: 4, was to apply illustrate our life to show that this is but the wider and better life. In earnest appeal was made to the unsaved from the cry of Jeremiah 8: 20, "The harvest is passed and the summer is ended, and we are not saved." In the Presbyterian Church Rev. L. W. Thom's text was II Chron. 16: 9, "Herein thou hast done foolishly: therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars" and gave his congregation one of his best efforts drawing forceful lessons from the foolish conduct of King Asa. The Baptist congregation were without a preacher but held an interesting praise, prayer and testimony service conducted by Mr. Jeremiah Thompson.

Judge Morrison held Court of Revision here on Saturday last when twenty names were added to the Artemesia Voters List.
Mr. Henry LeGard is sinking a well for Mr. J. A. Boyd on his recently purchased lot next to the Methodist parsonage. At fifteen feet a big rock was encountered and several "shots" were necessary to remove the boulder.

church choir at her home on Wednesday evening of last week and on Friday evening Rev. R. W. Thom, of the Presbyterian Manse entertained the elders of the Church at tea after which a session meeting was held and matters pertaining to the congregation's spiritual welfare were considered.

On Wednesday evening of last week a prayermeeting service was conducted by Rev. L. W. Thom at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. L. McMullen, west back line, when the rite of baptism was administered to their infant son.

Mary Jane Acheson beloved wife of Mr.
Christopher Johnson died at her home near Inistoga on Thursday last, aged 45 years.
Her remains were followed by a large number of friends and interred in the Public Cemetery here on Monday afternoon.

H. Bunt attended the funeral of the late Hon. Clarke Wallace at Woodbridge on Saturday.

Mr. R. T. Whitten, who left here in April last on a prospecting tour and visited Montana, Dakota, British Columbia, the N. W.
T. and Manitoba arrived home on Friday last pleased to be again in his ain fireside but looks well after his long journey.

Mr. John Brown, who has been for a few years ranching at Great Falls, Mont., has sold out and is visiting his parents on the east back line.

Mrs. John Runstadler, who has been on a lengthy visit at her brother's in Hamilton has returned home greatly improved in health.

Miss Tilly Watson, of Lackey, visited the past two weeks with relations in this vicinity and spent Sunday last with her cousin, Mr. S. Hemphill at Ceylon.
