You Can Lead a Horse to water but you can't make him drink.

You can't make him eat either. You can stuff food into a thin man's stomach but that doesn't make him use it.

Scott's Emulsion can make him use it. How? By making him hungry, of course. Scott's Emulsion makes a thin body hungry all over.

Thought a thin body was naturally hungry didn't you? Well it isn't. A thin body is asleep—not working—gone on a strike. It doesn't try to use it's food.

Scott's Emulsion wakes it up—puts it to work again making new flesh. That's the way to get fat.

McMULLEN'S LONG "TERM"

Eight years in the toils when South American Kidney Cure gave him his liberty.

Michael McMullen read in the newspapers of South American Kidney Cure, and when doctors tried hard and had failed to cure him, he, with the faith of a prophet, commenced the use of this great Kidney Specific.

"Gravel and Kidney Disease had been the bane of my life for eight years. Thanks to South American Kidney Cure to-day I am a well man. I wish I could have every kidney sufferer within the sound of my voice for long enough to tell it."

MONTREAL BUTTER & CHEESE ASSOCIATION.

Office of Board of Trade, Montreal, October 15, 1901.

3. That the consumption of cheese is not increasing, but diminishing, while the consumption of finest creamery butter is rapidly growing.

4. That the price of butter is higher on an average all the year round than cheese, for the finest qualities.

5. That the manufacture of butter is more profitable than cheese, not only in the comparative price, but in that the farm stock and the land are better sustained.

6. That in order to maintain high prices, there must be a continuous supply of finest butter, and as the flow of milk is lessening now, it is most urgent that the quality should be kept up as much as possible, and to divert the milk from cheese to this article is the only way to keep up the supply.

Butter should be shipped fresh weekly to command the best price. I am, Gentlemen, Yours truly, J. STANLEY COOK, Sec'y, GENERAL NOTES.

It is recommended that all factories should be fitted up so as to make either cheese or butter.

Cheese should be held three weeks at a temperature of 60° to ensure proper curing. Serious complaints are coming of cheese being shipped much too green.

CHURCH NOTES. PRESBYTERIAN. Rev. D. L. Campbell, of Dromore, returned on Wednesday last from Toronto where his brother, Rev. J. L. Campbell, late of Chicoutimi, Quebec, has undergone a very serious operation.

On Sabbath morning Rev. Mr. Farquharson, after preaching on the "Cloud of Witnesses" from Heb. 11: 39-40, made fitting references to the death of Dr. James Gun, of which the following is a summary: Dr. Gun was a resident of Durham for nearly forty years, and during that time was an active helper in everything that pertained to the welfare of the town.

In a card in a Detroit newspaper, a woman thus thanks an insurance company for the prompt payment of her claims: "August 9th, my husband took out an accident policy and in less than a month was drowned. I consider it a good investment."

A lady was looking for her husband and inquired anxiously of a housemaid: "Do you happen to know anything of your master's whereabouts?" "I'm not sure, mam," replied the careful domestic, "but I think they're in the wash."

We heard a man make an awful howl about "short weight," and in about ten minutes later a merchant told us the same fellow gave such "long measure" that he could make a cord of wood reach to a cord and a quarter.

A school teacher of Rochester, N. Y., boxed the ears of a pupil rather more severely than the mother of the child thought best, according to the Post Express. She sent the teacher this note: "Nature has provided a proper place for the punishment of a toy and it is not his ear. I will thank you to use it hereafter."

The special services in Zion Methodist church have increased in interest during the past week, and are to be continued during this week in charge of the pastor. "Songs of the living way" seem to find great favor in the choral part of the service.

Howard, a prominent steamboat man of Bangor, Maine, writes: "Enclosed find thirty-five cents for a box of Dr. Agnew's Ointment, which I bought in Portland recently for a distressing case of skin disease, and it did me so much good that I want to try another box. It is the only remedy that has ever given me any relief and I believe it will cure me."

PINCHED AND PUNY

South American Nerve is the Antidote for the ills which are induced by humanity's "mad rush" for an existence. The "eat and run" way of living is accountable for more of the pinched and puny faces than any other cause under the sun.

Dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, sick-headache are the prime causes for broken-up nerves. Nature foretold the strain that we would be compelled to live under and has resorted to medical science the favorite formula—South American Nerve—and its daily joy is to set back the bloom of perfect health in the faces of millions who do honest toil.

HITS AND MISSES.

It's a bad thing for a man when he tries to be smaller than he knows how to be.

Once lose confidence in a man it is impossible to regain your former opinion.

The small actions of some people are so transparent that the public is amazed at the small man's inability to see through his own small actions.

In a card in a Detroit newspaper, a woman thus thanks an insurance company for the prompt payment of her claims: "August 9th, my husband took out an accident policy and in less than a month was drowned. I consider it a good investment."
