Take the trouble of visiting Prof. Dorenwend's private show rooms, at Middaugh House, Durham, on Thursday, Nov. 7, and see the many beautiful inventions in Styles of Human Hair Overings, Wigs, Bangs, Switches, etc., and inspect his new patent structure.

MR. W. HARRIS, whom we reported seriously ill a couple of weeks ago in Manitoba, arrived Tuesday at the parental home, accompanied by his father, Inspector Harris, who left immediately for the West on hearing of his son's illness. We are pleased to inform our readers that Will is improving nicely and stood the long journey much better than was expected. We hope to see him fully recovered soon.

The Hanover Post gets off the following about a Lawn Tennis Joint Stock Co. to be organized there. It says:--"A lawn tennis meeting was held the other evening at which it was decided to purchase a lot owned by J. W. Brown, B. A., situated near G. S. Schwindt's residence. The property will be purchased by a Joint Stock Company, and the promoters declare that the Company will give its shareholders a bigger dividend than that which will be advanced to those who take stock in the Cement concern at Durham." We are a little curious to know what the enterprising citizens of the little hamlet will get up next.

We had a call Monday from Mr. Wm. Hunter, of Drumore, who returned a couple of weeks ago from a trip to Old Scotland, the land of his birth which he left forty-seven years ago. Mr. Hunter took in the Glasgow Exhibition, but spent most of his time in Dumfriesshire among the friends of boyhood, some of whom he still lives and remember the early days.

Great changes have taken place since 47 years ago in "the land of the heather" in those who remain there, but equally great are the changes that have taken place in Mr. Hunter himself. The home was quite rough on the outside, and occupied seventeen years, but during the whole voyage H. never missed a meal nor felt least discomfort from the bedding billows.

On Friday last Campbell McIntyre got with an accident that will lay him on the shelf for a week or two. A number of the young men were out hunting, and about noon McIntyre sat on a log to have a lunch in front of him was some brush. A little farther on was a hare, and he knew nothing of the presence of the hare nor that the hare was equally ignorant of the presence of McIntyre until he fired at the hare, and put part of the charge into McIntyre's leg. McIntyre immediately sprang forward from his log, when the man who shot at the hare approached his victim and his leg bleeding profusely. The arteries being ruptured, the legs were tightened round the leg, and McIntyre was carried about half a mile to where a doctor was procured to take McIntyre to the hospital. McIntyre's leg was treated by Dr. Mahan showed some signs of improvement. The calf of the leg, but not likely to cause any further injury.

THE following paragraph dated at Ottawa Oct. 30th, is of local interest. It says:--"A cable was received at the militia department to-day, stating that Oliver Arnold Rogers is dangerously ill of enteric fever at Krugersdorp. Rogers is a son of J. Rogers, of Holstein, Ont.

GENTLEMEN who are bald or have thin hair, should call on Prof. Dorenwend, at Middaugh House, Durham, on Thursday, Nov. 21, and see his wonderful devices in Toupees and Wigs worn on over 65,000 heads. Explanation and demonstration free. Private apartments at Hotel. Don't fail to see his new invention, patented all over the world.

DR. P. C. PARK, of Hamilton, Specialist in diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, will arrive in town by late train Friday, Nov. 8th, and remain until Monday morning, Nov. 11th, during which time he may be consulted professionally at his office over Macfarlane's Drug Store, or at residence of his mother on George street.

A CAREFUL reader of advertisements in a local paper may save several times the subscription. THE CHRONICLE is only a dollar a year and if we could only make people believe the investment would repay them ten times over it would be no trouble to get subscribers. We firmly believe there are cases where a much higher dividend is the result of the small investment. Tell your neighbors this, and give them a chance to try their luck. This is no lottery.

HERBAGEUM.--The Book of Reports relating to the good profit from feeding Herbageum and given free with each dollar's worth sold, were furnished by enterprising farmers who regularly feed it, and they prove that it adds at least one-fifth to the value of every kind of feed used for domestic animals. The very small feeds and their efficacy in this book reported amply prove Herbageum to be much the cheapest animal spice ever sold and used for colts, horses, calves, cows, pigs, hogs, lambs, sheep and poultry, and especially for fattening them. For sale by C. L. Grant, Durham.

WE HAD a very pleasant call on Tuesday morning last from Mr. R. Hanna, of Arthur, brother-in-law of Mr. Wm. Grant, of Varney. The call was pleasant because of Mr. Hanna's geniality, and because of another little matter about which we set our readers to guess. For the past few weeks Mrs. Hanna has been visiting her mother and other relatives in the vicinity of Varney, but returns this week with her husband to Arthur. Those who know Mrs. H. will regret to learn that her health has not been good for some time, but we are pleased to know she is now improving.

A QUESTION was brought up a few days ago regarding the weigh scales. It was contended by a farmer that a scale of high capacity would not weigh accurately a small article such as a sheep, a lamb, or a pig, and that a lighter scale should be provided for weighing light articles. No blame whatever was attached to Mr. Anderson for not giving correct weight, but the gentleman in question claimed he had reason for complaint on the weight of a small animal which he tested on a scale of smaller capacity. We were of opinion that even a large platform scale should be sufficiently accurate even in such cases as the one under consideration. We want light on the subject, and our columns are open for the discussion.

Coughs, colds, hoarseness, and other throat ailments are quickly relieved by Vapo-Cresolene tablets, ten cents per box. All druggists carry.

People We Know

THE GOING AND COMING OF VISITORS IN THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER.

Miss Norma Tuck, of Markdale, is visiting friends in town.

Mr. Rod. McFarlane left Saturday morning for Flint, Michigan.

Rev. T. H. Farr, of Atwood, is visiting his parents and friends.

Mr. Frank Idle, of Clarksburg, visited his sister, Mrs. Walter Blackwell, for a few days this week.

Mr. Joseph Scott, of Owen Sound, visited his uncle, Mr. Samuel Scott, over Sunday.

Mrs. A. Blackwell, of Newport, Buckingham, England, is visiting her son, Mr. Walter Blackwell, Durham.

Mesdames John and Peter Thibedeau, of Markdale, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Black on Thursday.

Mrs. Thos. Idle, of Clarksburg, spent a few days this week visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walter Blackwell.

Mr. J. B. Nichols, of Toronto, spent a few days in town in the interest of Wm. Graham Wool Merchant, Toronto.

Mr. John McKinnon, of Chesley, visited his daughter, Mrs. J. A. Black, last week. Mrs. McKinnon, who was in town for a couple of weeks returned with him Tuesday.

Mr. Wm. Grierson, of Vickers, returned recently from Langdon, N. D., where he visited his brother, Mr. Gilbert Grierson, who didn't forget to send us a remittance on THE CHRONICLE, which he receives regularly, and which, we hope, he appreciates.

Miss Esther Wilkinson, of New York, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wilkinson, Varney, and will be with them and other friends in the vicinity for a month or so. Miss W. is head nurse in a hospital in New York City, and enjoys her work very much. In company with her father, she visited her sister, Mrs. Robinson, of Hepworth, the fore part of this week.

CHURCH NOTES.

BAPTIST.

The Rev. W. McGregor having received a call from Gravenhurst is officiating there for two Sundays.

The Rev. W. L. Newton will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church next Sunday D. V. morning and evening.

The Toronto Telegram of Saturday last has the following:--"Rev. Mr. Newton, who recently held the pastorate of the Baptist church at Norwich, has received a call to Durham."

Rev. Mr. Bennett, pastor of the Herkimer Street Baptist church, Hamilton, will give his famous lecture on "Vacation Experiences," in the Baptist church, to-night, Thursday. Silver collection at the door. Lecture at 8 o'clock.

PRESBYTERIAN.

The Y. P. S. of the Church will hold a literary meeting Monday evening next when, notwithstanding the arguments brought forward by Messrs. Morrison and Burnet, Messrs. Davidson and Dewar hope to show that arbitration in the settlement of international disputes is not feasible. An essay, readings and music are also on the program, so an enjoyable and profitable entertainment is anticipated. A collection will be taken up.

The thank-offering meeting of the W. F. M. S. will be held in the church on Thursday the 14th inst., when Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Broad, of Cedarville, will give addresses. Mrs. Broad was, for a time, a missionary in Central India, and can thus speak of what she has seen and heard and experienced. A cordial invitation is extended not only to the ladies of the Presbyterian church but to all interested in the work of foreign missions.

METHODIST.

A number of the Durham people drove out to Zion to take part in the evangelistic services on Friday evening and Sunday afternoon.

The quarterly meeting and Sacramental service will be held in the Methodist church, Durham, on Sunday. Service to commence at 10:15 a. m. The pastor will have charge of the service.

The special services in Zion church are being continued this week with increasing interest and power. A welcome is extended to all. Hymn books provided. Seats free.

The Ladies' Aid met Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt's, and spent a very enjoyable evening.

HITS AND MISSES.

The train doesn't start every time that the conductor says "All aboard." It is a question whether one would rather be considered a hypocrite or an ignoramus.

We should think a man would feel discouraged if he had to look at his wife wearing curl papers.

Doors are not always kept shut to keep out the cold. Sometimes they are kept shut to keep in the baby.

They say when a loquacious Chinaman gets well under way he can wash the dirty linen even of a town Mayor.

If you eat a mushroom and it kills you it's a toadstool; if it doesn't kill you it's a mushroom.

There's no news too small for us to publish so long as it is news. There's no person too poor to be recognized.

How do you like it when you have washed your face in the morning, to have to hunt all over the house for a towel?

Considering the improvement it makes in men's appearance, they really ought to patronize the barber more.

Our handsome and rich Chicago girl hasn't got a man yet. Can't somebody tackle the job and set her mind at ease. Her ad. appears in another column.

One of our aldermen says they have lots of fun at the Council meetings. Don't doubt it. It's lots of fun to sit back and watch them perform.

We don't believe it was Chief Constable Carson that played all the tricks on Hallow-e'en. He never climbed the telephone pole and put the bench up there alone.

We always did regard it as low for a man to loaf round the corners and make improper remarks about women, but it isn't a whit better for a woman to make similar remarks about men.

When a woman cackles around for the sole purpose of catching attention she generally catches it. A loud woman always throws herself open for undesirable, and perhaps undeserving criticism.

The "Keep out" cards don't seem to work well at the Cement Works. A shot gun would be better. Joking aside, some people do seem to have the faculty of making huge nuisances of themselves. The work has to be done with such mathematical exactness that the removal of a line is liable to cause trouble. We are not surprised that the "boss" get cranky.

Once upon a time, a clergyman, better up in theology than orthography was appointed secretary with instructions to request the presence of the clergy in a certain district to attend a convention. The invitation was given all right, but the postscript "Be sure to take your surplus with you" provoked a smile, and at the same time gave evidence of wisdom and foresight on the part of the clerical official.

There may be choirs willing to sing, pay for their own music, and contribute liberally to the schemes of the church, but there's surely no congregation who thinks them obliged to do so. An occasional member may be found small enough to expect all this but most of such are now fenced in as curiosities in our zoological gardens. The last specimen we heard of was captured down country about twenty-five years ago, and the race now is nearly, if not altogether, extinct.

CEMENT NOTES.

The weather last week was exceedingly fine, and a good showing was made around Cement Works. The foundations of three large buildings now underway and for strength and workmanship they are the admiration of the hundreds of spectators who visit the site every week.

The railway is about completed to the works, and the grading to the lake will be finished before this paper reaches some of our distant readers. Everyone is delighted with the complete transformation already made, and as the work nears completion, thousands will be astonished at its magnificence and stability.

The rotary foundations can now be seen, and an inspection will convince almost everyone regarding their strength. Some of the material for the rotaries is now on hand, about which we'll have more to say later on.

The unfinished walls of the machine shop give a better idea than anything we can write of the almost unlimited use to which cement may be put as a building material. One third of the block being hollow will render a building dryer and warmer in winter and cooler in summer than a building of solid concrete, stone or brick. Moreover the tensile strength increases indefinitely as months and years roll by.

LORD'S DAY ALLIANCE.

The Lord's Day Advocate for October has the following items in relation to Sabbath observance in which the little publication is interested as inspired by The Lord's Day Alliance. Under the head of general news it says:--

Interesting News.--A ship-building firm in Collingwood, Ontario, on a recent Sabbath, had its men at work on the plea that otherwise it would not be ready to launch on date of announcement. The local ministers made a vigorous appeal to the Sabbath sentiment of the town and the Mayor ordered the work stopped, which was promptly done.

Since the organization of the Meaford Branch of the Alliance and the warning given to the contractor and his employees doing harbor improvement in that part, the repair work that was being done on Sunday, has been stopped.

The chief mines in Phoenix, B. C., have recently closed down on Sunday, following the example set a year ago by the chief mines about Rossland.

The City Council of Nelson, B. C., has forbidden the use of the grounds under its control for Sunday sports. Such things in British Columbia have to be dealt with by Civic By-law, there being no Provincial Lord's Day Act. Well done, Nelson!

The Alliance in St. John, New Brunswick, is having difficulty in getting the excellent New Brunswick Lord's Day Act enforced, the police refusing to do their duty. The Alliance is pushing an investigation so as to place the responsibility for this neglect of duty where it belongs. They will doubtless in time succeed.

The published official programme of the recent tour of His Excellency, the Governor-General, through the Maritime Provinces, announced several Sunday visits with attendant receptions, which, if carried out, must have involved serious violation of the Sabbath by travel, brass bands, hurrahing crowds, etc. Our friends in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick promptly sent respectful but vigorous protests against the proposed violation of the Sabbath, direct to His Excellency, when the offensive items of the programme were at once changed.

Some men in Cape Breton, who began Sunday work in railway construction and refused to stop on being warned, were promptly brought before the Magistrate and fined. They threatened to appeal, but instead have ceased offending.

The General Secretary expects to be in Nova Scotia from Nov. 16 till Christmas, and will probably spend January and the first part of February in New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Quebec.

The following new branches have been organized by the Field Secretary in Ontario since last issue of The Advocate:--Dorset, Newbury, Penetanguishene, Rosseau, Sundridge, East Toronto and Collingwood (re-organized).

There is no general delivery of milk in Ottawa. If not necessary in Ottawa, why is it so in other cities and even much smaller places?

The City Dairy Company of Toronto has recently set an example by publicly announcing that ice cream would not be delivered on Sunday. It is to be hoped that the christian public will show its appreciation of this worthy stand taken, we believe, on principle by this large corporation.

OPINIONS OF GREAT MEN REGARDING THE SABBATH.

Coleridge.--"I feel as if God had, by giving the Sabbath, given fifty-two springs in the year."

Sir Walter Scott says:--"Give to the world one-half of Sunday, and you will find that religion has no strong hold on the other."

Adam Smith writes:--"The Sabbath, as a political institution, is of inestimable value, independently of its claims to Divine authority."

Macaulay says:--"Of course, I do not mean that a man will not produce more in a week by working seven days than by working six days. But I very much doubt whether, at the end of a year, he will generally have produced more by working seven days a week than by working six days a week; and I firmly believe that, at the end of twenty years, he will have produced less by working seven days a week than by working six days a week."

Medical Men.--No fewer than 641 medical men of London, including Dr. Farre, subscribed a petition to Parliament against the opening of the Crystal Palace on Sundays, containing the following sentence:--

"Your petitioners, from their acquaintance with the laboring classes, and with the laws which regulate that human economy, are convinced that a seventh day of rest, instituted by God, and coeval with the existence of man, is essential to the bodily health and mental vigor of men in every station of life."
