Barnum's Monkeys

"All well—all happy—lots of fun". That is the regular report from the monkey cage of Barnum's Circus ever since the keepers began dosing the monkeys with Scott's Emulsion. Consumption was carrying off two thirds of them every year and the circus had to buy new ones.

One day a keeper accidentally broke a bottle of Scott's Emulsion near the monkey cage and the monkeys eagerly lapped it up from the floor. This suggested the idea that it might do them good. Since then the monkeys have received regular doses and the keepers report very few deaths from consumption. Of course it's cheaper to buy Scott's Emulsion than new monkeys—and that suits the circus men.

Consumption in monkeys and in man is the same disease. If you have it or are threatened with it can you take the hint?

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample.

FLESHERTON.

On Tuesday evening of last week after only a few days' illness there passed away at his home here Mr. Joseph McCormack, who had reached the ripe age of 83 years and 7 months. On Thursday afternoon his remains were laid in the Public Cemetery alongside his wife and daughter who preceded him in death, the former nine and the latter two years ago. Rev. Ivison Wilson conducted the funeral service. Mr. McCormack, who was a cooper by trade, came to this place from Ayr, Ont., about twenty years ago and up to the past year carried on business in his line. He was a highly respected citizen, an adherent of the Methodist Church, a follower of the Prince of Orange and a life long Conservative. One son, Archie, of Novar, and two daughters, Mrs. Hartly, of Toronto, and Mrs. Gibe, of Seaford, were present at the funeral. One son, Joseph, arrived on the evening train a few hours after the interment.

Mrs. D. McTavish had a quilting on Thursday afternoon last and in the evening entertained at tea twenty-five friends who were in a flash light photographed by Editor Thurston. The Misses Munshaw also gave a Halloween party to sixteen of their young friends and the evening was made memorable by the pleasure experienced. The night wasn't favorable for outside Halloween pranks, but even if it had been we trust our boys pride themselves enough on their good behaviour to give serious mischief the go-by.

Magistrate VanDusen was called to the bench twice last week to adjust matters between disputants. The first was on Friday when John O'Melia, of Ceylon, charged Thomas McArthur, who lives near that place with having assaulted him at the Globe Hotel at Ceylon on Monday previous and called four witnesses to prove his allegation. Mr. McArthur denied any intended assault claiming that his having hold of the complainant as was alleged was but in a friendly way while inviting him in to have a drink and thus bury old grievances forever. The evidence convinced the Magistrate that there was an assault, though not of a grievous character, and the small sum of one dollar and costs were imposed. Mr. W. H. Wright appeared for the defendant. The second case was heard on Saturday when David Madill, of Ceylon, charged Guy Orr, of the Toronto Line, with having assaulted him in this village on the 28th ult. Mr. Orr admitted brandishing his fist in the complainant's face but did not know he was thereby violating the law. The small fine of one dollar was imposed which with costs amounted to $8.50.

Mr. Fred Bunt in Wright's old stand, gave up the grocery and confectionery business last week. Messrs Boyd, Hickling & Co. bought the stock and moved it to their own premises.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton moved on Friday last back to their farm near Maxwell.

Saturday was Council day and a busy day in town. B. J. Sproule's auctioneer room was well patronized and fairly good sales in household effects were made. We are pleased to learn that Miss Stafford, of the 4th Line, who wrote for second class certificate at the examinations in July last and was reported plucked, has been successful in her protest and the merited certificate has been granted. Miss Stafford was engaged in July last to teach in the Flesherston Public School but the unfortunate blunder made by the Educational Department threw her out of a position.

On Sabbath last Mr. Lamont was up from the city and preached to his former congregation in the Baptist Church. In the Presbyterian Church Rev. L. W. Thom chose for his text Eccl. 11-9 and specially directed his sermon to the young men of the congregation who had in an earnest manner the folly of sinful indulgences pointed out and the wisdom of choosing and practicing only that which is good for the life that now is and for that which is to come. In the Methodist church an impressive Quarterly service was held in the morning when a large number partook of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. In the evening the Pastor's subject was "Should a rash promise be kept or broken," based on Matt. 21: 23-31. In the course of an interesting sermon the speaker pointed out the folly of making rash promises and also showed that if made and bad, better like that of the repentant son in the text, be broken than kept. On Monday afternoon there was a good attendance at the regular meeting of the Quarterly Board when in addition to general business the annual election of Stewards took place resulting as follows:—Flesherston, M. Richardson, R. Waller, D. McMullen, W. Clayton; Meaford Road, Jos. Buchanan, W. G. Shannon; Ceylon, S. Hemphill. Robt. Waller was elected Rec. Steward for the circuit.

Mr. W. Hooley, a bachelor 60 years of age, who lived with his aged mother near Eugenia, and who has been for some time mentally unbalanced, was on Monday committed by A. S. VanDusen, J. P., to Owen Sound jail for safe keeping. Constable Whitten escorted him thither. Mr. W. Little, of Owen Sound, was in town part of last week assisting his brother-in-law, Mr. John Breen, remove the remains of his. Mr. Little's, parents and sister from the Irwin cemetery, Toronto Line, where they were laid forty years ago to the neatly kept Public Cemetery here.

Mr. W. W. Trimble is acting bailiff for Mr. Jno. Wright during his deer hunting holiday in Muskoka. Mr. John Gibson returned last week from Manitoba where he developed muscle in the harvest field that type setting doesn't make.

Mrs. Jos. Smith left on Thursday last to join her husband in their new home in Zion City near Chicago. Mrs. A. S. VanDusen was in Owen Sound last week attending the funeral of her brother-in-law, Mr. Geo. Webb.

Mr. L. L. Leilar, of Gladstone, Mich., was the guest of his brother-in-law, Mr. W. A. Armstrong, a couple of days last week.

Mrs. I. B. Lucas, Mrs. A. McPherson, Miss Leone Matthews and Master Willie Haskett, of Markdale, were in town on Saturday last.

Mr. Wm. Wright West Back Line, who has been very ill was able to drive out to the village on Wednesday afternoon last week. His numerous friends were pleased to see him and hope for further improvement in his condition.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Douglass, of Collingwood, spent Monday in town.

Mr. James Stinson, who has been ill for several months has been in Toronto for a week under the care of a specialist.

VANDELEUR.

The school concert in connection with the Vandeleur Public School, was held in the school-house on Monday evening, the 29th ult., and was a pleasing success. It was well attended by the parents and others who were lavish in their expressions of praise of the efforts of the teacher and pupils. Dr. Sproule, M. P., in his usual excellent manner, discharged the duties of chairman. The program consisted of recitations, dialogues and singing by the pupils, and speeches by Messrs. Dr. Neely, J. Boland and T. Kells. The Vandeleur String Band rendered several choice pieces of music during the evening. The teacher, Miss Bull, was highly congratulated for the very successful manner in which she had the children trained for the occasion. Miss Edna Kells presided at the organ in her usual excellent manner. The trustees have shown their good sense and appreciation of Miss Bull by securing her services for 1902 at an increased salary.

VICKERS.

Mr. Alex. McCulloch, of Detroit, Michigan, visited the parental home since our last writing. Messrs. Wm. Grierson and Art Hunt returned from Langdon, N. D., last week looking as though the climate agreed with them.

Mr. Wm. Jozette, Jr., swapped horses last week, and has to drive to Welbeck once a week for fear it may get too wild if left too long in the stable.

Farmers are complaining of the low price and poor demand for lambs, very few having sold in this part yet.

Mr. Jas. Livingston, of Paisley, was renewing friendship in this district on last budget.

Mr. Jas. Corbett is still at the butchering, having killed and disposed of four head of cattle last week.

Mr. Edmund Johnson finished his season's threshing last week, and now will need some one to help him spend the money.
