INFLUENCED BY OTHERS The Lew's Delever $

The Great Responsibility Resting Upon Each of Us.

Great harvest

THE STELLAR EXISTENCE

A despatch from Washington says: | or one hemisphere upon the other -Rev. Dr. Talmage preached from hemisphere. the fellowing text: Job. xxxviii, 31, drought on one side of our world "Canst thou bind the sweet influen- affects the other side of our world. The nations of the earth cable-

What is the meaning of that ques- grammed together all feel tion which God put to Job? Have same thrill of delight or shock we all our lives been reading it, and woe. But we do not appreciate are most of us ignorant of its beauty the influence of other worlds upon and power and practical suggestive our world. The author of my text ness? A meaningless passage of rouses us to the consideration. Scripture many thought it to be, takes all the worlds of known and but the telescopes were busy age af- unknown astronomy to keep our ter age, and astronomical observa- world in its orbit. Every world detions kept on questioning the skies pendent on other worlds. until the meaning of my text comes out lustrously. The Pleiades is a constellation of seven stars appear- is felt all through the heavens. Eving to the naked eye, but scientific ery constellation is a sisterhood. instruments reveal more than 400 Our planet feels the benediction properly belonging to the group. Al- Alcyone and all the other stars of eyone is the name of the brightest the Pleiades. Yea, there are two star of that group called the other worlds that decide the fate of Pleiades. A Russian astronomer ob- our world-its redemption or its deserved that Alcyone is the centre of molition. Those two worlds are gravitation of our solar system. the headquarters of angelology and Hugh Macrollan says that the sun demonology. From the one world and its planets wheel around that came Christ, come ministering spircentre at the rate of 422,000 miles its, come all gracious influences. a day in an orbit which it will take From the other world rise all satan-19,000,000 years to complete. The ic and diabolic influences. From over the laws of gravitation? Can of a contest in which three worlds "Th' pris'ner has hardly time to you modify or change an influence are specially interested! From all grab up his hat befure he's hauled off wielded by a star more than 400,000 the seven worlds which my text calls to his funeral obsequies, an' th' onmiles away? Can you control the Pleiades there come no such pow- prejudiced public feels happy about the lieutenant. winds of the springtime? Can you erful influences as from the two it. I don't believe in capital puncall out the flowers? How little you worlds that I am now mentioning. ishment, Hinnissy, but 'twill niver vited every man in the room to look know compared with omniscience? My only hope for this world is in be abolished while th' people injys it in his mouth, and see for them-How little you can do compared with the reinforcement that is to come so much. They're jus' squarin thim-selves.

and setting

lurgist, a zoologist, a poet, and saw the parks and the gardens flowshows by his writings he had know- ering into another paradise and the th' high coorts keep in form. 'Tis a one hand, and the tip of his nose ledge of hunting, of music, of hus- apocalyptic angel flying through the lagal joke. I med it up. bandry, of medicine, of mining, of midst of heaven with the news that Judge Tamarack: 'I knew very little and looked in. astronomy and perhaps was so far the kingdoms of this world would about this case excipt what I've been ahead of the scholars and scientists have become the kingdoms of our tol' be th' larned counsel f'r th' day- he had lost the bet, and somewhat puffed up; hence this inter- We put too much emphasis upon the agree with Lord Coke in th' maxim the room. rogation of my text. And there is acidities of life, upon the irritations that th' more haste th' less sleep. nothing that so soon takes down hu- of life, upon the disappointments Therefore to all sheriffs, greetin': man pride as an interrogation point of life. Not sufficiently do we recog- Fen jarrin' the pris'ner till ye hear as follows: Christ used it nize the sweet influences of the wife. fr'm us.' norance is so much vaster than the twain are identical. That which damages growin' out iv th' Shay reempire of knowledge that after the from outsiders would be considered billion. Thin it dhrops off again. bearned and elaborate disquisi- criticism and to be resented becomes "Th' Judge that thried th' case rea question that will make the wisest otherwise would have been or could look f'r their pitchers in th' pa-apers speechless. After the profoundest as- have been ! sault upon Christianity the humblest disciple may make an inquiry that was a miracle and that the would come the first condolence. Pleasant dhreams. Scriptures are unreasonable and Family friends; church friends; cruel and that there never will be a business friends; lifelong friends. judgment day take out your port- In our heart of hearts we cherish able armory of interrogation some- them. thing like this: "What makes the con- The stories of that world and its dition of woman in Christian lands holy hilarities come in upon our better than in heathen lands? Do souls sometimes in song, sometimes you think it would be kind in God in sermon, sometimes in hours of to turn the human race into a world solitary reflection, and they are, to without any written revelation to use the words of my text, explain and encourage and elevate and save? And if a revelation was made, which do you prefer-the Zen- But there is one star that affects us da-Vista of the Persian or the Con- more with its sweet influences than fucian writings of the Chinese or the the centre star, the Alcyone of the Koran of Mohammed or our Bible? Pleiades, and that is what one Bi-If Christ is not a divine being, what ble author calls the Star of Jacob did he mean when he said, "Before and another Bible author calls the an' no wurrud comes fr'm th' Coort Abram was, I am?" If the Bible is Morning Star. Of all the sweet in- iv Appeals but th' murmur iv th' a bad book, what are the evil results fluences that have ever touched our Chief Justice discussin' th' nullificaof reading it? Did you see any de- earth those that radiate from Christ, tion theory. But wan day th' decigrading influence of the book in your are the sweetest. father or mother or sister who used Sweet influences of the Holy to read it?

SILENCE A VOLTAIRE.

SWEET INFLUENCES.

Ghost, with all its transforming and prises of the next world will be to When that power is fully felt, there the first. It's as plain as th' nose see what wide, farreaching influeoce will be no more sins to pardon, and on ye'er face. Th' Judge was prefor good or evil we have all exerted. no more wrongs to correct, and no judiced an th' jury was ignorant. I am speaking of ourselves, who are more sorrows to comfort, and no Th' ividence wasn't sufficient to hang ONLY ORDINARY PEOPLE.

wealth in Great Brit- gation and set sail in Mediterranean ain for the working classes-Mr. Lis- waters, but were sure to get back iv subjectin' this unfortunate man ter of Bradford, Edward Akroyd of into port before the constellation to all these years iv torture an' im- laid to rest with thy fathers. Halifax. Thomas Sikes of Hudders- Orion came into sight—the season of prisonment with a case again him field. Joseph Wentworth and Josiah cyclone and hurricane-so there is a which we see at a glance during th' Mason and Sir Titus Salt? This time to sail for heaven, and that is Mexican War cud not sthand th' test for 3,000 working people and chapel the delay. Open all your soul to the prisher, the warden says, issued, the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, the rocky of the serene island of Sarawak was their common fate, th and cricket ground and croquet lawn light and warmth and comfort and 'Who?' 'P. Cyanide,' says th' clark must be almost an ideal place to live depths of a well their common grave. and concert hall and savings bank, inspiration of that gospel which has iv th' coort. 'He's not here,' says in. The lower classes are all in wellwhere they might deposit some of already peopled heaven with millions the warden. 'On consultin me books to-do circumstances, a beggar being these hapless creatures is marked but the British soldier of the line snake. Few people exercise the soldier of the line snake. Few people exercise the soldier of the line snake. Few people exercise the soldier of the line snake to do circumstances, a beggar being these hapless creatures is marked but the British soldier of the line snake. Few people exercise the soldier of the line snake to do circumstances, a beggar being these hapless creatures is marked but the British soldier of the line snake. Few people exercise the soldier of the line snake to do circumstances, a beggar being the soldier of the line snake. their earnings, and life insurance for of the ransomed, and is helping oththose who looked further ahead er millions to that glorious destina- year sivinty-wan.' 'Did he escape?' a population of 600,000. The rich- resurrection; her arms are crossed a population of 600,000. The rich- resurrection; her arms are crossed a population of 600,000. The richand bathhouses and parks and muse—tion. Do not postpone the things of 'In a sinse.' 'He cudden't appeal.' est people are to be found among the resignedly on her breast, and in each resigned in the ea phical apparatus, the generous exlife swoop and the agitations of a life swoop and the agitations of a life swoop and the agitations of a life swoop and the generous exlife swoop and the agitations of a life swoop and the agitations of a life swoop and the agitations of a life swoop and the generous exlife swoop and the agitations of a life swoop and the agitation along the life swoop along the li ample of those men of a previous great future are upon us. Do not Judge iv a High Coort, dhreaming past ten years has been very great. generation being copied in many dare wait till Orion takes the place th' happy hours away. No hurry, Kuching, the capital, has nearly out of great tribulation," and on tate to express his contempt and pipe that passes through places in Canada and the United of the Pleiades. Weigh anchor now no sthrivin' afther immejat raysults, doubled in size, and building is still the wall enclosing the well is writ-continent be upon other continents they shall reign forever and ever." th' clouds rowl by; 'tis time was Malays and Tamils.

"If I had me job to pick out, said Mr. Dooley, "I'd be a Judge. have th' joodicyal timperamint.

hate wurruk. "Ivrybody else is pushed an' hur rid in this tumulchuse age. business man has to get to th' bank befure it closes an' the banker has to get there befure th' business man escapes, an' th' high-priced actor has to kill off more gradyates iv th school iv actin' than iver he did, an' th' night editions in th' pa-apers comes out earlier ivry mornin'. "All is rush an' werry. Kings an' Imprors duck about their jooties like bell-hops, th' pampered son iv luxury at Newport is thryin' f'r a mile propensities transferred to another on'y leisure class left in th' wurruld his dealings was rather doubtful. is th' joodicyary. Mind ye, Hinnissy, I'm not sayin' annything again ment, and Major Blank of his fresh thim. I won't dhrag th' joodicyal regiment were old friends, and ermine in th' mud, though I haven't days after the young officer's arrival noticed that manny iv thim lift it in his new quarters, the Major relytical crossing. I have the high tain Dash :

sides, me boy, I invy thim. on th' head with an axe or sinds him devil, and rarely loses a bet." Pleiades appear in the springtime and that world of moral night rose the a bunch iv proosic acid done up to The Major put the note in his are associated with flowers and gen- power that wrecked our poor world look like candy. Maybe he does an' pocket and thought no more about ial warmth and good weather. The six thousand years ago, and all the maybe he don't, but annyhow that's it. navigation of the Mediterranean was good work done since than has not what he's lagged f'r. Th' polis are About a week after this, in the from May to November, the rising been able to get our world out of in a hurry to get to th' pool-room officers' mess one night, the licutenfrom May to November, the rising been able to get our world out of bles where brave men, helpless wo- eyewitness is always more impressive daughter home. The nobleman, here and the setting of the Pleiades. The the breakers. But the signs of dispriests of Belus noticed that rising tress have been hoisted and the life- an' they carry th' case to th' Gran' Irishmen. lines are out, and our world's re- Jury; th' Gran' Jury indicts him Now the Major was an Irishman, 2,000 YEARS BEFORE CHRIST. lease is certain. The good influences without a thought or a suspicion iv and was very touchy upon the sub-Now, the glorious meaning of my of the consecrated people in our hard feelin', th' Judge takes his ject of his nationality, and as he world will be centupled by the help breakfast on the bench to be there in had a very fiery temper few dared give Job the beautiful grace of humility God asked him, "Canst thou divine power will overcome the de- but not to f'rget th' man done it, bind the sweet influences of the moniac. O man, O woman, expand an' th' jury rayturns a verdict iv have heard that Irishmen have black from another world. But that is selves f'r th' rayvoltin' details whin The probability is that Job had promised, and so I feel as sure of wurrud comes that Judge Tamarack that it was red. been tempted to arrogance by his the rectification of all evil as though iv Opolis has granted a stay iv pro-mightily. Paul mounted the parapet We men are of a rougher mold, and "So th' pris'ner waits an' dhreams of his great arguments with such a our voice is loud, and our manners he's a lightnin' rod, an' th' public Men of the world under- need to be tamed, and gentleness is waits, and ivrybody waits. Th' stand it. Demosthenes began his not as much of a characteristic as High Cooks is busy in its way. Ivry speech to the crown and Cicero his it ought to be, and we ofter say two or ... rec years it is discovered cration against Catiline and Lord things we ought to take back. It is takin' a nap at a county seat in th' Chatham his most famous orations to change this that the good wife corn belt, an' it hands down a dewith a question. The empire of ig- comes in. The interests of the cision f'r the defendant in a case f'r tion upon any subject of sociology or kindly suggestion. Sweet influences tires to a well-earned job with a railtheology the plainest man may ask that make us better men than we road comp'ny, th' jury has ceased to an' th' insurance comp-nies insure Sweet influences of friendship! If young Cyanide's life f'r th' lowest well we have friends. In our days Judge iv th' Coort iv Appeals walk- yea, verily, doth thy home printer them to their friends in Allahabad. to curses, that the unshed tears minutes can be gained in this we we have behaved ourselves tolerably known preemyum. Occasionally a of mirth they come with their con- in' in his sleep meets another Judge, spread over the land glad tidings of They went down to the fatal landing dried in their burning eyes, and that which will prevent much damage an gratulations. In times of sorrow an' they discuss maathers.

Called upon, as we are at times. they come with expressions of solace. "How ar-re ye gettin' on with th' shall patronize thee. to defend our holy religion instead In times of perplexity they come Cyanide case, Judge?' 'I'm makin' of argument that can always be an- with their advice. They are with us fair headway, Judge. I r-read part swered by argument let us try the at weddings and at burials. If there iv th' vardict in th' Coroner's jury dozen questions and always ready, and excuse. If something appears th' indictment. This a puzzlin' case. and when Christianity is assailed, against us, they say, "Wait till I Th' man is not guilty." 'Well, good- dwelleth in a strange town. and we are told there is nothing in hear the other side." If disaster by Judge; I'll see ye in a year or two. there is no God and there shall befall us, we know from whom Lave me know how ye're gettin' on "An' so they part. Th' higher up a coort is the less they see iv each other. Their office hours are fr'm a quarther to wan leap years. Ye tel a lively lawyer that's wurruked twinty hours a day suin' sthreet railroad comp'nies an' boost him onto a High Court an he can't think out iv a hammock. "Th' more exalted what Hogan it's like a dormitory. rowl by an' th' tillygraft op'rator thine own people. that's been expictin' to sind a rush tillygram through young Cyanide sees his ohms an' his volts moldin'

" 'Th' coort finds,' it says, 'that th' vardict was conthry to th' law I suppose one of the greatest sur- comforting and emancipating power. an' th' ividence. We seen this fr'm more bondage to break. But as the a cat. We reverse th' decision and who can fully appreciate old-time sea captains watched the ordher a new thrile that full justice farreaching good done by rising of the Pleiades for safe navi- may be done. We cannot help rea happy wan. Like th' Shamrock II., th' coort acts well in stays but can't run befure th' wind. A jury is f'r hangin' ivry man, but th' High Coort says: 'Ye must die, but take ye'er time about it and go out th' way ye like."

"If I wanted to keep me money so that me gran'childer might get it fur their ol' age, I'd appeal it to th' Supreme Coort. Oh, th' fine Judge I'd make, f'r I can sleep annywhere, to get his jooes.'

"I don't see," said Mr. Hennessy, "why they have anny juries. Why don't they thry ivry man before th'

"I have a betther way than that," wurrukin' on time now. I wondhur were paid by th' piece."

LIEUTENANT WON HIS BET.

A young lieutenant in a crack regiment was on account of his gambling a minyit in his autymobili, an' th' regiment, as the honesty of some of

Now Captain Dash of his late regiimmodestly whin they takes th' pol- ceived the following note from Capinto betting with him on any ac-"Somewhere a la-ad hits some wan count, for he has the luck of the "Major," said the lieutenant, "I Have you any power your idea and know the magnitude guilty, with three cheers an' a tiger. roofs to their mouths, is it true?" "I'll bet you fifty dollars that the

The Major took the bet, and

They did so, and each declared

The lieutenant was the last to look vast attainments. He was a metal- looking out of my window to-day 1 ceedin's. Stays iv proceedin's and to get a better view, he gently

> He stepped back and admitted that fince, an' I don't believe that, but I apologizing to the Major he left Two days after this the Major received a letter from Captain Dash, "You fool, I cautioned you specially against betting with F., and now I am in a good fix because you have done so. Before he left here, he bet me $5,000 that he would pull tialled for it."

NEW TEN COMMANDMENTS.

Thou shalt not go away from home to do any trading, nor thy son nor thy daughter.

merchant and thy home printer, for ised boats would be waiting to take men mad, that their groans turned place where it started. thy goodness and greatness and they place, 450 men, women and child-sorrow itself was swallowed up in simplify the work of the firemen;

chanics that they may not be driven growth across the river, a blighting would scarcely seem inadequate, for should you care to do so. from their homes to find food for their hail of bullets was poured upon there come times in men's lives when worst place in which a fire can to be loaded with at least half a out, and our frailties they overlook fishin' is over I expict to look into little ones, thou shalt consider him them by the Sepoys who lined the they suffer relapses into the barbar- iginate in the average dwelling he as thy neighbor, above them that hither bank, and then, lest some ism from which they sprung. And is the attic. Before a hole can the goods cost much money, and the ers, were still aground, and with these English women and children thing less than a well-equipped merchant's brain is burdened with their knives continued

Thou shalt not ask for reduced prices for the "influence," for behold guile is in thine heart and the merchant readeth it like an open book. He laugheth thee to scorn and shouteth to his "ha, ha!"

Thou shalt do whatever lieth in calls th' joodicyal station th' more thy power to encourage and promote Th' years the welfare of thine own town and

Thou shalt not suffer the voice of pride to overcome thee, and if other towns entice thee, consent thou not, agination busied itself reconstruct- soul of thy humble servant, whose not be forgotten is a long for thou mayest be deceived. Thou shalt spend thy earnings at home that they may return from

Thou shalt not bear false witness against the town wherein thou dwelleth, but speak well of it to all men.

Thou shalt take these commandments and teach them to thy children to the third and fourth generation that they may be made to flourish and grow in plenty when thou art places in Canada and the United States. making life, which would otherwise be a prolonged drudgery, an inspiration and a joy.

Notice also in my text the influence of the residues of the same to-day if he dared." One is the carpet come to do the same to-day if he dared." One being continued. Trade is brisk and an inspiration and a joy.

Notice also in my text the influ
Taptures that await all the souls or Dooley, nand down that opinyion ing attracted the attention of wellwho near this spot were cruelly murthe Hindu, or the cool indifferentism millions sterling inventors and a joy.

There is a who near this spot were cruelly murto-do Straits Chinese. There is a design with the lot the Mohammadan than the forgiven. Notice also in my text the influence of other worlds upon this world. We all regard the effect which our local formula for the sun, for the worlds upon this world. We all regard the effect which our local formula for the sun, for the straits Chinese. There is a who hear this spot world and cast, the dying with the dered and cast, the dying with the dered and cast, the dying with the same lack of confidence in and results of the Mohammedan, there lies the gages in foreign counts of the Mohammedan, the gage

Gory Days Recalled at Cawnpore and Lucknow.

In all history there is probably no iday of July MDCCCLVII." one episode that inspires an interest | Two days later General Ha elock that's th' on'y wan that suits. I to get his icoes " and final struggle for supremacy in late to save but not too late to av-India which in 1857 took place be- enge his countrywomen. tween the natives and the English, BLOOD CALLED FOR BLOOP who for more than a hundred years Officers and men, who, alternating to kidnap the sister of his best Supreme Coort an' have done with had been steadily absorbing it pro- themselves no mercy while buoyed vince by province, writes Aline up with the hope of rescuing Shane-Devin in the Chicago Record. wives and children of their comsaid Mr. Dooley. "Ye see they're The process of absorption, had not rades, now when they stood by the gone on peacefully; many and bitter unhallowed grave of those they had if they wudden't sthep livelier if they were the attempts of the brown sons striven so hard to save were of the soil to arrest the march of likely to show mercy to the wretches dies. At this moment his friend ! white invasion, but they all sink in- who had sent them there. to insignificance before that supreme! While in India I had the good for- had occurred, killed Ismail on t effort which, beginning in February tune to become acquainted with a

As with us of to-day the tragic vi- though Mr. Forbes-Mitchell is now olation of international honor , by past 70, his memory is better than the Chinese last year has forever that of many men who have not seen bracketed the names of Pekin and half his years, and his fund of rem-Tien-Tsin in common obloquy, so in iniscences makes him a most enterall the years that have passed since taining companion. He has spent 1857, or that for many generations forty-four years of his life in India. rayspict f'r th' job that's th' alter- "Dear Blank,-Let me warn you shall pass, Lucknow and Cawnpore and, as he says, has had "a wide native iv sixty days in jail. Be against young F. Don't be drawn shall stand as synonyms for person- and varied experience of her people her, and in spite of the girl's enal treachery, deadly cruelty and dire from the rajah on his throne to the

and of considerable commercial im- his recollections of the mutiny, and ther, on finding that his host had portance, but the outside world nev- is now engaged in the more ambi- disappeared with his daughter, gay er thinks of them except as the thea- tious work of collating his Indian chase, and, being on horseback, of ter upon which was enacted a series experiences for the benefit of the took the carriage. He shot the of most bloody tragedies; a sham- public. Information obtained from an bleman without ado and took stricken down by the hands that Hearsay," and I listened eagerly to only yesterday had been extended in all that Mr. Forbes-Mitchell had to apparent amity.

THE FIRST OUTBREAK took place at Bahampur, the barrack ledge my indebtedness to him for town nearest Plassey, where the much of the information used here. Nineteenth Regiment, Native Infant- At the breaking out of the mutiny ry, were stationed. In March the such troops of her own as England Thirty-fourth Regiment Native In- had in India were scattered far and bridegroom to the heart. Afterwar fantry of Barrackpore followed suit, wide over its vast territory, and it and on May 3 the Fifth Oudh Irreg- was only by forced marches day and ulars rose at Lucknow. In each case night, snatching now and then a few no other punishment was inflicted on | hours' rest, that they could come to the rebellious regiments than that of the help of their sorely pressed and The following article is especial disbanding them great unrest throughout the whole no fatigue. Rank and file were alike sion again, and a stove pipe of of India, the storm spent itself animated by but one desire—to res- flue that was safe last season mainly in the provinces of the north- cue their comrades or avenge them; be unsafe this year. The excel west and in Bengal, Agra, Allaha- that the latter was the more often of the advice resides partly in bad, Delhi, Meerut, Cawnpore, Luck- their stern duty was their misfor- fact that it applies so well to now, each in turn or altogether re- tune, not their fault. What man homes that are beyond the rea ceived their baptism of blood, but could do they did, and almost more. fire departments, where if any it is the two latter cities that are To-day defeating one contingent of is done to save the premises it so replete with tragic memories of the enemy, to-night marching to ov- be done by those in the house. that great struggle forty-four years ertake another and ago, that though the lips may say | CRUSHING IT TO-MORROW | quick persistent work with palls al attachment of the brown.

ren; they entered the boats, a bugle a wild craving for vangeance?

those days when it seems good just caste of India, and hanged to the enter a building which is on fire to be alive. The sun was shining in nearest tree. So far as the Hindus full of smoke, especially if you an almost cloudless sky, a soft were concerned this punishment did not acquainted with the arran breeze came down the river, break- more than disgrace them or deprive of its interior, but if you n ing the brown waters into countless them of life, for it destroyed their so, avoid suffocation by cr ripples, and gently stirring the leaves caste and so robbed them of of the dark forest on the opposite | ALL HOPE FOR THE FUTURE. | smoke there is usually a but bank; the broad Ganges flowed peacefully at my feet, giving no sign, Mohammedan regarded it in this Next to the importance of k having no memory of the days when prayer uttered just before his execu- what to do in case of fire is its swift current ran red with the tion: "Oh, Mohammed, Prophet, be having facilities for subduing blood of the innocent. But my im- pleased to receive into Paradise the the start. One item which ing the scenes of that long past dra- body Major Bruce's Mehtur police By all means have enough las ma. I saw the stranded boats load- are now defiling by lashes; who has to reach any part of your ed to the gunwales with the pale been forced to lick a space of the outside or inside. A single and silent fugitives. I saw them blood-stained floor of the slaughter- do more execution than half whence they came and give nourish- shrinking and falling under the aw- house and is hereafter to be hanged en men throwing water. I wo ment to such as may come after thee. surling and land weaponless, by the order of General Neill. And, so recommend the purchase dearer than life, the women throw- infant son, Mazar Ali of Rohtuck, The most convenient extinguis forms of their little ones. And in ants." my vision I saw the decimated band | Thirty years later a copy of this tube about twenty inches onizing suspense that awaited them. S. Neill, on the 14th of March, 1887, ive. do not damage anything.

It was a suspense that endured for at Augur, C.I. eighteen weary days, eighteen long A new generation has sprung up Any experienced fire-fight of 1857 and ending only in April of gentleman who, as a member of the 1859, focused itself around the two famous Ninety-third Regiment of cities of Lucknow and Cawnpore, Highlanders, marched to the relief and is always spoken of simply as of Lucknow under Sir Colin Campbell, the old hero of Balaklava. Al-Both towns are large and populous ready published one book containing without much delay. The girl's fasay of his memorable first campaign in India, and am glad to acknowbeleagured countrymen. But on such | timely, now that unused stoves Although there was at this time an errand the English soldier knows chimneys are being put in con

Cawnpore, Lucknow, the mind cries Dropping where they might for an dippers, if attacked when dis "Mutiny," "Treachery," For one of hour's rest, up again at the call and ed. Take a small dish with the saddest features in connection pressing on. Keeping this up for to throw the water, or the most with that uprising was the absolute, weeks with no change of clothing it will be wasted. If you have the touching confidence felt by the nor even the chance to lay aside hand force pump, count yours white men in the good faith and loy- their accoutrements, and at the end lucky. Apply the water as near to stand at the brink of the well seat of the fire, or place when British troops had been withdrawn wherein lay the mangled bodies of started, as possible. Do not for use elsewhere until the native those they had come to save; to to the conclusion that because yo whole mess, and not be court-mar- contingent outnumbered the foreign- enter the room where these had met house resembles a ham-curing ers six to one. Arsenals and trea- death; to look at the crimsoned tablishment that there is no use of suries were guarded by the Sepoys, walls, the blood-incrusted floor; to trying to do anything. About the and even after such evidence as one see here a long brown tress of wo- time you have the fire out, might think would convince the man's hair, there a soft little yel- smoke will suggest a conflagration most credulous, Sir Hugh Wheeler low curl, yonder a tiny shoe stained On oil fires, use dirt, ashes, sand accepted the safe conduct of the a hideous red, and along the walls, or even flour, for the only effect smooth-tongued Nana Sahib and just a little way above the floor, water is to spread the oil withou marched the remnant of his little the bloody prints of tiny hands that extinguishing it. garrison down to the Sati Chaura marked the hopeless flight of wound- If the fire cannot be extinguishe Ghat, thenceforth to be known as ed, frightened children. Was it any endeavor to check its progress Thou shalt patronize thy home Massacre Ghat, where it was prom- wonder that sights like these drove closing the doors leading to note rang out loud and clear, canon To men in this mood even General will enable you to save a larger pr Thou shalt employ thy own me- belched from the shadowy under- Neill's terrible scheme of punishment portion of your should escape, the assassins sprang this was the British general's re- cut in the roof, and frequently into the water, waded out to the lapse. Any native known to have fore discovery, the interior is a n Thou shalt not ask for credit as boats, which, abandoned by the row- aided or abetted in the murder of of flames beyond the control of

should be compelled to kneel on the partment. There is a sure pre floor of that awful room and with live of attic fires, however, and The morning that I stood on the his tongue clean up a square foot is keeping the chimneys clean spot made infamous by the awful of the bloody filth, then be taken well mortared. crime of June 27, 1857, was one of out, flogged by sweepers, the lowest | It is a hazardous undertaking

And here is the record of how one space of a few inches next t but still striving to protect those oh, Prophet, in due time inspire my least two good fire extinguiing their own bodies between the that he may revenge this desecra- which are excellent for inside murderers's knives and the trembling tion on the general and his descend- and may easily be handled by

of women and children wending their prayer was found on the person of three inches in diameter. T hopeless way back to the city, saved Mazar Ali, a sowar of the Second filled with a powder (chiefly for the moment, but doomed to suf- Regiment, Central India Horse, who oxide) which generates carbe fer the pangs of death a hundred "under divine commission," had shot gas when it comes into cont times in the days and nights of ag- his commanding officer, Major A. H. flames. They are wonderfulls

According to a consular report just nights, then death by the sword since such revolting crimes called ever, will tell you that the

KIDNAPPINA SIVES Tragic Customs Still Extant the Caucasus.

The manners and customs of the people of the caucasus have not changed to a great extent since the country has been subdued by Russia. One of the relics of the good old times to which the Caucasians especially cling is the custom of kidnapping the women whom they desire to make their wives. Recently a case of this kind resulted in a tragic end. A prominent inhabitant of the little Caucasian town of Katuhagan, named Ismail Ogli Oki, tried friend's wife while his friend was absent from home. The girl resisted his attempt to carry her off, aided by her married sister. The baffled lover drew his sword and inflicte dangerous wounds on both the turned, and, enraged at finding who spot. Then he cut off Ismail's hear and carried it round to show th neighbors what a fearful revenge

In the same district a young noble man desired to marry the daughter of a neighboring landowner, and i vited the girl with her parents to grand ball given at his castle. During the evening he found an opportunity of decoying the girl into secluded part of the house, where she was seized by his men and placed in a carriage. The prince joined treaties started out to drive to drive, and the girl was now rel tant to marry the man of whom ! father approved, but the stern | ent insisted on the wedding tal place at once. The bride appea in the church, pale, but cool and c lected. During the ceremony a dagger and stabbed t she committed suicide.

IN CASE OF FIRE.

Many fires can be subdu

as low as possible. Even in get out of order and cost litt