DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor.

DURHAM, NOVEMBER 28, 1901.

The Privy Council has decided that the Manitoba Prohibition Act is valid. This gives provincial legislatures the power to pass measures prohibiting the sale for drinking purposes within the limits of their own jurisdiction. The decision is hailed with delight by temperance advocates through the Dominion, and as far as Ontario is concerned there is no doubt that the local legislature will be deluged with petitions during the coming session.

The strong and growing temperance sentiment in this province will be brought to bear upon Premier Ross and it is highly probable he will be forced to express himself in unqualified terms regarding his position on the prohibition question. Deputations waited on him last session, but owing to the unsettled state of the Manitoba question, then before the Privy Council he was unable to give a definite answer further than his willingness to give the province all the prohibition the law would allow as soon as the judgment of the Privy Council was made public. The decision has now been given and as another session of the legislature is announced before dissolution, the government in power will be called upon to assert their position. Premier Ross himself, has always been an advocate of temperance, and having gone so far as to promise what he did it is only reasonable to expect he will make a bold show at carrying out his promises and pre-election pledges at least may be looked for.

The Montreal Witness, which discusses the question at considerable length, concludes with the following sentence: "We await particularly with the greatest interest as the Premier of Ontario, himself a prohibitionist, has declared that if the act is maintained a bill as effective will be passed in Ontario. If he stands boldly and unequivocally by his promise the province will stand by him."

If a woman is handsome and independently rich she'll have no trouble to get a man of some kind. Beauty and riches, however, are not the only essentials to human happiness, and these qualifications without "good sense" and "honesty" are hardly a square deal to give in exchange for a man possessing the latter virtues. Most of the masculine human bipeds who are hunting for such game (and we believe the woods is full of them) are nothing more than human parasites who feast and fatten on the industry of others, and win for themselves a name that no sensible person will envy. Riches and beauty, pshaw! what do they amount to anyway if improperly used or won through sordid meanness? The suckers who hang around society waiting for a Klondike had better take off their coats and go to work, and in due time marry some good, honest woman with enough gumption to keep house and enough industry to darn stockings without lumps big enough to make a poor beggar feel he is doing penance every time he wears them.

KLONDIKE A CURIOSITY.

We received last week a letter from Mr. Jas. A. Davis, now of Vancouver, formerly of Dawson, but a native of Glenelg. After saying Mr. Davis is well and enjoys the CHRONICLE's weekly visits we reproduce the heading of the Dawson hotel stationery used by him in his letter. It sounds like a pretty run affair, and reminds one of the "Joe Beef Canteen" well known a few years ago in Montreal, and visited by thousands out of mere curiosity to see "Joe," and the curiosities he always had around him. The heading of the letter we received reads as follows:

SOUR DOUGH HOTEL,
1333 ICEBERG AVENUE,
East House North of Mexico. First Class in every particular. Every known fluid-water excepted—for sale at the Bar. Private entrance for ladies by ladder in the rear. Rates: One ounce per day. Special rates to Ministers and the gambling "Per-fish." Indians and Niggers charged double.

HOUSE RULES.
Guests will be provided with breakfast and dinner, but must rustle their own lunch.
Spiked boots must be removed at night.
Dogs not allowed in the bunks.
Candles and hot water charged extra.
Towels changed weekly.
Crap, Chuck Luck, Stud Poker and Black Jack games run by the Management.
No ice worms in our water.
Dogs bought and sold.
Insect powder for sale at the bar.

OBITUARY.

BOYD

It is with a feeling of sadness that we write the following lines on the death of our friend and neighbor, Mr. Wm. Boyd, who calmly fell asleep in Jesus, Thursday evening, Nov. 7th, at his home, 9th concession, Bentinck, after an illness of several weeks which he bore with Christian fortitude. The deceased was born in the Emerald Isle at a place called the Braid, near Ballymory 79 years ago. When a young man he came to this country and lived for some years near the city of Hamilton when he moved to the Tp. of Bentinck some forty years ago where, by dint of hard work and frugality he amassed considerable of this world's goods. To him and his surviving partner were born 13 children of whom 10 are living which are as follows: Robert, of Louise, William, near Lamash, John, at Warton, James, Samuel and Thomas at home, Mrs. Donald McLean, at Shallow Lake, Maggie, Lizzie and Nancy at home. Two died in childhood and Mrs. Arthur Ellis, near Hanover, died suddenly some two years ago. Mr. Boyd was a man possessed of great energy, a good husband and father and a kind, hospitable neighbor. He was a faithful, consistent member of the Methodist Church. His pew was seldom vacant on Sabbath till failing health compelled him to remain at home and for the past few years a steward of the Methodist Church at Crawford. In politics he was a staunch Conservative. His Pastor, Rev. Eckir, of Elmwood, preached his funeral sermon at his late residence to the largest funeral that ever gathered in the neighborhood after which the remains were taken to Hanover and laid at rest in the New Cemetery there. It might well be said of him "Mark the perfect man and behold the upright man for the end of that man is peace." The family of the deceased have the sympathy of the neighborhood in this the time of their affliction—Com.

The Croup.

It's a terrible thing, isn't it? Somehow, that awful cough, that hard struggle for air, can never be forgotten. Be a little fore-handed and prevent it. Keep Vapo-Cresolene in the house, and when the children take cold let them breathe-in the vapor during the evening. It goes right to the throat, just where the croup lies! All irritation subsides, the cough quiets down and serious trouble is prevented. It never fails to cure whooping cough.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. A Vapo-Cr. solution contains the Vaporizer and Lany, which should last a lifetime, and a bottle of Cr. solution, $1.50, or 25c per bottle of Cr. solution and Vaporizer. Please send for a free trial bottle and see how it will save you. Vapo-Cresolene Co., 110 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A.

Recommended and Sold by MacFarlane & Co., Druggists, Durham.

ALLAN PARK

Mr. David Goodwin, of Owen Sound, was visiting at J. W. Leitch's for the past week.
Mr. John Brigham, of Walkerton, was visiting his parents and other friends in this part lately. John is doing a good business in the implement line.
Mr. James Livingston, of Paisley, is visiting friends in and around this place. James is looking well.
We are sorry to report that Mrs. Robert Kennedy is under the Dr.'s care at present. We would be pleased to hear of her speedy recovery.
We were informed that Mr. John Brown sold $360 worth of hay in the barn. Some of our farmers can grow hay, but Mr. Brown can sell it.
Mrs. Henry Edmonds has had an addition built to her house, which makes quite an improvement to her dwelling. Messrs. T. Brigham and D. Adlam did the masonry work.
Mr. Robert Britton takes great pleasure in keeping the best class of pigs in the market to accommodate the public.
Mr. James Forsyth received the sad news about the death of his mother and went to attend the funeral last week at Stouffville.

A short time ago, in the threshing season, one of our farmers, a little eager to have an early start to thresh on Monday morning, took the tank away and filled it with water and hauled it to his barn on Sunday, but he was a little surprised to find it empty in the morning, as some of our boys thought it too good a chance turned the tap and let the water out.
The Vickers scribe was so well pleased with the cap we made for him last summer he wants us to make another for him this winter. Well, we will endeavor to do so, Mr. Scribe, if you will introduce us to your dear old wife to day. Come now Billy, don't let the Corner man get the start of you.
What is wrong with the market men of your town, Mr. Editor. We heard a man say the other day that peas was 90c a bushel in Elmwood and $1 a bushel in Chesley. But he did well to stop there and not go to Tara, for we heard another say that they would take your load and give you the total there.

There has been quite a number of weddings around this part lately, and we had not time to write them up, and won't endeavor to write them now, but we join in wishing all congratulations and best wishes.

Warts, Versus Moles.

Are either a mark of beauty? This would be a suggestive topic for debating societies. For the information of such, let it be known that Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor removes painlessly warts in a very short time. Druggists who sell the best always sell Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

VICKERS.

Mr. W. K. Reid is still unable to move about without the aid of crutches.
Mr. Geo. Turnbull let the contract for the erection of a brick house to Enke Bros., of Elmwood.
Mr. John Richardson has returned to re-serve from a severe shaking up he received from a run away team.
Miss Vickers is in Durham assisting her sister, Mrs. R. Smith.
Miss Simms intends to spend Thanksgiving day at her home in Owen Sound.
Miss Adeline Reay was on the sick list last week, but is almost herself again.
Mr. R. Lindsay sold a pair of butcher cattle to R. Brant last week for a handsome price.
Mr. Thos. Mighton and Miss Milligan were wedded last week, and have taken up the difficulties of house keeping. Congratulations.
Mr. Thos. Reay spent Sunday in the township of Brant, and the query is who was with him.
Mr. McLeish, from Galt, an Evangelist, attended the prayer meeting on the South Line recently, and was the guest of Mr. Jos. Corbett for a few days. Mr. McLeish conducted services in Durham some twenty-five years ago, and intends paying it another visit in the near future.

Say, Mr. Editor, we never told you about the young couple who went to Toronto to see the Duke and Duchess, and hoped it would not appear in the columns of THE CHRONICLE.
Mr. James Livingston, Paisley, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Cou, La, colds, hoarseness, and other throat ailments are quickly relieved by Vapo-Cresolene tablets, ten cents per box. All druggists
