THE boldest hold up that can be enacted, and one that is justifiable is that once Theobald gets a customer he holds him by his extra values and low prices.

It's not hot air that Theobald shoots, it's genuine, and its genuineness is proven by calling at his store, and on examination prove what he says in his ad.

DR. BURT will be at the Middaugh House, Durham, on Wednesday, March 4th, for consultation in Eye, Ear, Throat and Nose cases. Hours, 12 to 4 p. m.

WE can't help it if your customers make a noise about the good values they get at our store. Every man knows that Theobald sells the best and cheapest.

LOST—Red and black plaid blanket, yellow selvidge all around. Finder will oblige by leaving it at the Middaugh House or returning to the owner, Dan McAuliffe.

YOU always seem to have the latest hat on. Where do you get them? Why, at Theobald's. He keeps the most up-to-date gents' furnishing store in town.

A CATALOGUE for the Durham Furniture Co. is just about completed and will be mailed to furniture dealers some time next week. The work was done at this office and the Company is well satisfied with the result. The catalogue contains nearly forty pages representing in half-tone a fine selection from the goods they make.

ABOUT sixty young people, consisting of members of the Epworth League and their friends, made a visit on Tuesday night to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Faw, about a mile north of the Rocky. A very pleasant time was spent in games, amusement, supper, etc., until after midnight, when the company returned highly pleased with the reception received and treatment accorded.

A WEDDING occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Knott, 4th line, Euphrasia, on Feb. 11th, when their daughter, Henrietta, was married to Mr. Wm. Breadner, of Rocklyn. At 6 p. m. to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Miss Mabel Cook, the young people took their places under an artistic arch of evergreens, interwoven with floral designs, the bride entering leaning on the arm of her father and looking very charming in a costume of grey ladies' cloth trimmed with white satin. The bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Rebecca Knott, while Henry Breadner supported the groom. The beautiful ritual of the Church of England was said by Rev. C. L. Mills, incumbent of St. Mary's Church, Maxwell, after which about one hundred guests sat down to a sumptuous banquet. A beautiful display of costly and useful presents attested the high esteem in which both bride and groom were held. The young people are, we understand, going to reside near Heathcote.

ON Saturday last Miss May McLean, of St. Catharines, niece of the Kress boys of this town, was united in marriage at the Rectory in St. Catharines to Dr. I. E. Finch, of Buffalo. After the ceremony the happy couple took the train for Durham and arrived here about nine o'clock, when a reception was given them by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kress in their cosy new home in the west side of the town. On Monday we saw the genial Doctor, who evidently felt pleased with his matrimonial venture, and if he would only disclose the thoughts of his heart he would give it as his opinion that a Canadian girl was good enough for any of the Yankees. We have a sort of fear that the Americans are learning of the excellence of our Canadian girls, and before the influx of Yankee hunters becomes too common the Canadian Government should do something to stop the exodus of the Canadian fair sex. We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Finch, and trust they may long be spared in the enjoyment of life and health. Dr. Finch certainly showed good sense in crossing the river for a life partner, and now that he's married we hope he'll exercise as much judgment in his profession. The young couple left Tuesday morning for their home in Buffalo.

ON Friday night of last week a sleigh-load of the Youth and Beauty of the Methodist church went over to Fiesherton to attend a concert there, given chiefly by the Misses Joy, Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard, highly trained local vocalists, and Rev. Mr. McErvine, a talented elocutionist from Monticello. They report a Joyful entertainment, an enjoyable trip, and a Joy-less aftermath by the whole joyous outfit, who didn't strike town till four of five o'clock next morning.

FORECAST OF WEATHER

For the Month of March. Culled from "Word and Works," Published by Irl R. Hicks.

The first regular storm period is from the 2nd to the 7th. From Tuesday the 3rd to Friday 6th there are reasons to expect all the changes and phenomena of a very decided storm period.

The 9th and 10th are central days of a reactionary perturbation. An annual electrical crisis may be looked for between the 10th and 15th, the moon being at full, and on the celestial equator on the 13th, within two days of its perigee on the 10th, we are naturally to look for electrical phenomena.

The regular storm period centreing on the 16th and extending from 13th to 20th, decidedly unsettled weather with probability of many heavy and dangerous storms.

The last general storm period is central on the 27th, covering the 25th to 30th.

DROWNED IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

DEAR SIR—A few weeks ago you published an article in your paper relating to the death of Dan Campbell, and it answered to the description of a brother of mine in British Columbia so well that I immediately wrote for information, and a few days ago received direct word that it was my brother that had been accidentally drowned last summer.

As so many have been enquiring I thought it well to ask you to insert in this week's issue, if possible, an account of which I give the outline.

My brother, Daniel left home when very young, went up the Lakes to Port Arthur, remained there for some time as a revenue officer. He then went to Calgary, and from there to work in the Government camps in British Columbia. For years he remained there, going from one camp to another, until last summer, on the river, he stepped overboard and got drowned. It seems as he had no relations there his friends were not communicated with until your notice drew their attention. He is the first of seven sons that his mother, Mrs. Neil Campbell had the sorrow of losing by death. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. John Dunsmore and Mrs. Alex. Courts.

Yours respectfully,
ALEXANDER CAMPBELL.
Crawford, Feb. 23d, 1903.

People We Know

THE GOING AND COMING OF VISITORS IN THE MONTH OF FEBRUARY.

Mr. Wm. Davitt, of Stayner, spent a few days' visit at Mr. Robt. Allan's, Glenelg.

Mr. Albert Eva, of Detroit, attended his father's funeral on Sunday. He left Monday morning for home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hallett and daughter Carrie, of St. Catharines, are spending a week or so with the Kress families.

Mr. Bert E. Collyer and his younger brother, of Guelph, attended the funeral of their grandfather, Mr. Philip Eva.

Dr. Finch, Buffalo, accompanied by his bride, a medical specialist, who was married at St. Catharines last Saturday, spent Sunday and Monday in town as guest of the bride's uncle, Mr. Ed. Kress. They returned on Tuesday morning to Buffalo where they will settle.

We regret to learn that Mrs. J. T. Collyer, of Guelph, daughter of the late Mr. Eva, was so seriously ill that she was unable to attend the funeral. Fears of her recovery were entertained by friends. Over exertion during her father's illness is supposed to have caused part of Mrs. Collyer's trouble.

OBITUARY.

PHILIP EVA.

The old residents of the town are fast passing from the scene of action. This week it becomes our painful duty to chronicle the death of a highly respected citizen, who was well and favorably known in Durham and vicinity for nearly, if not altogether, half a century. We refer to Mr. Philip Eva, who departed this life on Thursday of last week at the ripe old age of 81 years, 4 months and 11 days. The eulogies of most people are crowded into an obituary after death, and in many cases the passing references are only partially deserved. Not so with the deceased gentleman to whom we now refer. The public generally had confidence in his honesty and integrity during the whole period of acquaintanceship, and to eulogize the dead would only be a repetition of public feeling during his long life. We refrain from saying more than that he was a good, honest, honorable and upright gentleman, respected by all and disliked by none, so far as the writer is aware. He leaves an aged widow, now verging on the four-score mark, two sons, Albert, in Detroit, and Philip, who resides at Allan Park. His surviving daughters are Mrs. John Lawrence, of Egremont, and Mrs. T. J. Collyer, of Guelph. Interment took place on Sunday to Trinity church cemetery, where he was buried with Masonic honors.

MRS. THOS. SMITH.

Another resident of the town since 1856, in the person of Mrs. Thos. Smith, passed away the 19th inst. The deceased lady, whose maiden name was Isabella Armstrong, was born seventy-nine years ago in the county of Leeds, Ontario. After her marriage to Mr. Smith, who still survives, the young couple took up their residence here, and since remained as citizens. Of the deceased we learn that she was always an active, energetic, industrious wife, and a kind, loving, Christian mother. Until about a year ago, when stricken with paralysis and heart trouble, she was always in the enjoyment of good health, and in her younger days a devoted and active church worker. On the 10th of this month she was stricken again with paralysis, from which death ensued on the 19th, as above stated. Besides the aged father, three sons and one daughter remain to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother. The sons are John, who is in business, J. J., the present postmaster of Durham, and Dr. Robert A., of Ghent, Ohio. Miss Helen M. is at the old home. Interment took place Saturday to Durham cemetery, the Rev. Mr. Newton, Baptist minister of Durham, and Rev. Mr. Ledingham, of India, conducting the services in the absence of her pastor, Rev. Mr. Farquharson.

CLARENCE JAMES FERGUSON.

We regret very much to learn of the death, on Saturday last, from scarlet fever, of Clarence James Ferguson, son of Rev. and Mrs. Ferguson, of Mt. Forest, formerly of the Methodist church here. The child was four years, four months and eighteen days old, and at that interesting age is a great blow to the distracted parents. He was in his usual health until Wednesday evening previous. Interment took place at London.

MRS. THOS. SCARF.

Last week a small item referred to the critical illness of Mrs. Thos. Scarf. This week we regret to add her name to the recent death roll. Death occurred on Sunday last, and the remains were interred Tuesday afternoon in the Durham cemetery, whither they were followed by a large concourse of mourning friends, neighbors and relatives. Particulars are not in our possession, but we hope to have an obituary reference in our next issue.
