CORNER CONCERNS.

A social gathering is to be held in the home of Mr. H. Lawrence on Friday night. It is, we think, the first since the erection of his new house, so it will be a house warming or a hot time, just as you wish to put it.

Mr. Jas. Vessie is going to reside with his daughter, Mrs. Dave Eccles, as he has sold his farm and retired from active life. He has been and is yet one of our fine old men.

The Hillis family attended the funeral of their uncle, Mr. John White, of Bentinck, on Monday.

Mr. John Vessie had a business trip to Toronto last week.

Mr. Robt. Hillis is moving his family to Durham this week.

The Rev. Ryan will conduct divine service in the school house on Friday p.m. and would like to see a few men present as well as the faithful women.

It has been suggested that the Boss of the menagerie get married and give the boys a jubilee. You may do as you please about it, Mr. Editor, but we think at the present time it would seem more consistent to set your correspondents an example of dignity by refusing to indulge in anything so frivolous, more especially as the Chronicle of late has been censuring so severely everything that seems nonsensical or silly in its scribes.

Every Cottar house on the line will soon be vacant and hired help not obtained for love or money. Farming in this part will have a striking resemblance to the description once given it, as being an occupation in which you work ninety hard hours in a week on three poor meals a day, tilling the soil in day-time and doing chores during the night. Some men are even going to work two hundred acres alone.

As we were saying the value of farm lands has increased in this part. As an evidence, Mr. Jas. Johnson purchased Mr. Jas. Vessie's farm last week for $3,300 whereas the deal hung fire for some time over a twelve-month ago at something less than three thousand.

We Meet to Part Again.

On the evening of March 31st a large number of friends and neighbors of Mrs. Bothwell and her son, Thomas, assembled at their house on lot 17, con. 22, Egremont, to spend a pleasant evening with them before they left the old homestead, where Mrs. Bothwell has lived since 1854.

Mr. Ramage was voted to the chair, and an address was read to Mrs. Bothwell. She was also presented with a beautiful gold watch, which shows the esteem in which she and her family are held by the neighborhood. Brief speeches were made by Messrs. Harrison, Watson, Jackson, Dixon and others, in which reference was made to the half century Mrs. Bothwell has lived here, her many kind and neighborly acts, and the sincere regrets we all feel because she and her son are for the present, at least, leaving the neighborhood. The tenor of the remarks may be briefly summed up in the following verse:—

"When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain,
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again."

Thomas replied in behalf of himself and his mother, thanking their many friends for their kindness shown to them, and also for their hearty good wishes.

Thomas is going to the West in a few weeks. He will be missed very much because of his public spirit and sociable nature, and also because he is a man of honor and tries to follow the Golden Rule to do to others as he would have others do to him. He will be a valuable acquisition to any community, and his loss will be much felt here.

A pleasant hour was spent in games, songs and instrumental music. Although taken by surprise, Mrs. Bothwell served the guests with ample refreshments, after which Auld Lang Syne was sung, and the guests left for their homes with best wishes for the happiness and prosperity of their friends.—Com.

BUNESSAN.

We were much pleased to have a visit from Tom Godfrey, of Duluth.

Jack Kennedy has hired to work at Spring Bank for the summer.

Mr. W. Bell, of Toronto, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Bell, recently. He has been unwell for some time.

Mr. Shortreed moved from the Glen to Dan McKinnon's farm in Egremont, and his place here was taken by Mr. D. McArthur, who has now moved in. "Dad" makes the fifth McArthur family in the Glen.

S. F. McComb has moved his family to town this week.

Mr. D. McFarlane and family are now settled on the Beaton farm. We welcome them and hope they may be always contented and prosperous here.

Charlie Kennedy, Jr., came home from Toronto last Saturday to work the home farm.

A year or so ago the Traverston man raved at the Durham Board of Health for their carelessness in properly attending to their duties: now he raves at the Glenelg Board for over faithfulness in discharging their duties. We recommend the Glenelg Council to appoint the Goat to the Board: then things will be just right.

GLASCOTT.

Mr. Robt. Bradley, while harrowing last Thursday, met with a very bad accident. How it happened he can scarcely tell. One of the three horses got its foot over the trace and while attempting to put it to rights again a dispute arose between the other two in which both fell, knocking Mr. B. down at the same time. He then tried to get up but found himself unable. His next move was to unhitch the traces, but he only got five of them loose when the horses became unmanageable. However he hung bravely on to one line, turning the horses round short and upsetting the harrow just clear of him and at the same time giving him quite a mauling in the whifflores. After dragging quite a distance by one line, the bit broke and he let them go. The horses ran to the barn where fortunately Mrs. B. saw them and sent her daughter to see what had happened. On going back the lane she met her father creeping or rather pulling himself along. She then went for Mr. Sproul and Mr. Livingstone who with a team and stone beat brought him to the house. A doctor was then sent for, and found the muscle had been moved from its place both
