Mill and Albert Streets, Durham. The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted. Contractor to supply material. Plans and specifications may be seen at the residence of the undersigned.

A. W. H. LAUDER.

May 6th, 1903.

Traverston.

Miss Lizzie Hunt has been out from town the past week visiting at her brother's home.

Mrs. Lauder, of Durham, has been spending some days at the home of Mr. James Wilson. Old neighbors are glad to see her again.

Neighbor J. J. Peart has A. Kelly employed excavating for a big cistern he purposes putting in. It will be a great convenience.

Mr. John McNally's second daughter, Miss Cassie, came up from Toronto last week. She is one of our bright ones.

Several of the villagers declare that the herd of A. S. Hunter's Herefords that passed through here last week was the best they've ever seen.

Mr. Will Banks left Tuesday of last week for the West. Will is a splendid fellow, a clever tradesman and everyone felt sorry to see him go, but wishes him the best of prosperity and good health out in the prairie land.

Mr. Ben Sharp is framing the timber required for the fitting up of W. J. Greenwood's barn. He is having it raised and enlarged and J. Timmins has the contract for putting a fine stone wall under it.

Miss Florence Hunt came home on Monday, after a pleasant three weeks spent with friends in Paisley.

Quite a number of young cattle have changed hands out this way, but Mr. A. Robson beats them all in the prices realized. He got $120 for four head of 2-year-olds. But they were beauties.

Sackett's Corners.

Mr. Geo. Haw has taken a trip to his parents' home in Port Hope this week. Mr. D. Robertson is left in charge of the farm work here.

Most of the farmers in this vicinity are through seeding and are busy preparing for their root crop.

Mr. J. McDonald is preparing to build a brick house this year. Nothing like improvements. It shows the travelling public where our go-ahead farmers live.

Mr. Laughe McDougal and son, of Manitoulin are visiting the former's brother, Mr. Angus McDougal of this place. They are on their return trip from Toronto where they were witnesses in the famous Gamey trial.

Miss Amos, of Keppel, is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. McDougal at present.

Mr. G. Witter is a hustler. He has got his own crop in and will soon have Mr. Kenwick's crop in also.

We are pleased to hear that Sandy McLean is improving in health again. We hope to hear of his complete recovery.

Corner Concerns.

Egremonters will watch with a keen eye what action the Glenelg council will take in the matter laid before them with regard to their roads being in a condition to drown some body. Two years ago Egremont asked them to join in making a similar place on the Townline safe and they pleaded the worst kind of poverty and would only spend a few dollars, whereupon Egremont Council, like all human nature, only too ready to laugh at a neighbor's hard luck, inserted in the Chronicle a notice of their circumstances, declaring in case of a fatality that Glenelg would be entirely to blame, and would have to be responsible as far as their means would go, and even now if they make any attempt to protect themselves from any other kind of death than that of starvation they would bring them up on the old charge.

A good big boat-load of coal which Mr. Nelson Wilder had rowed out to the dredge on Saturday sank the boat to the bottom of the Lake. But that has always been the way with Nels—he could never be contented with merely having a jag on.

Miss Melinda Grasby returns to Scarborough this Tuesday to resume her duties with the family in whose employ she has been for seventeen years.

Mr. Wm. McMeekin had his first experience in fox-hunting last week. He let the contents of one barrel of his shot gun into one and then gave it three or four kicks to boot and thought the affair was settled, when the fox again started to hobble to the swamp. He pulled on it with the other barrel, but it failed to go off, so he gave chase and kicked it every other step from that until it entered the swamp. Of course he thinks it will die, but he will never be able to say whether he killed his first with his gun or his boot.

Mrs. Martin after a four weeks' visit with her father returned to her home in Hamilton on Saturday.

The third eldest daughter of Mr. John Brown, we are sorry to report, has been suffering with pneumonia. Bright hopes of her recovery are entertained.

The McKechnie firm have, we hear, received an enticing offer for their swamp farm down here from a Peat Manufacturing firm and are likely to dispose of it.

A good many people visit the lake on Sundays to see the dredge and other improvements that are going on, and as some of them would faint away at sight of Sunday labor it might be mentioned for their benefit that the dredge is never at work on Sunday afternoons, so they can defer their visit to that part of the day, and avoid a shock to their religious feelings.

Holstein.

Mr. J. Holm, of Berlin, is now at work in our creamery, operations in that department having opened for the season on Monday.

R. E. Mickleboro' returned from Regina last Saturday.

Mrs. Robt. Mickleboro', accompanied by her daughter, Miss Lillie, left for the West on the 2nd inst.

Miss Mimmie Smith has gone to Toronto for a little recreation.

The members of the Holstein Methodist choir spent a very enjoyable evening at the home of Mrs. W. T. Petrie lately.

Mrs. Little spent a few days last week in Guelph attending the twenty-seventh annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church.

Sarah Kennedy is at present home from the Queen City and is enjoying country life with her sister, Mrs. D. Allan, Jr.

As you pass down Main street now you will not be at a loss to locate the business places of Messrs. Roberts and Kedsle as very neat and suitable signs have been placed in position by them. A travelling artist did the jobs.

We regret to learn of the recent illness of Mr. J. E. Burrows, teacher Paisley. He has been confined to his bed since Easter, but we are glad to report that he is now improving.

One by one the pioneers of this vicinity are being called from the stage of action. This week we regret to publish the death of Helen Sim, beloved wife of Mathew Greenly, at the age of 64 years, 10 months and 28 days. She passed to the great beyond on Sabbath evening, 3rd inst. She was a woman of sterling Christian character, one who loved sincerely God's word and house of worship. She was quiet, unassuming and reserved, and those who knew her best appreciated her the most.

The funeral service was conducted at the family residence on Tuesday, after which her remains were interred in the Holstein cemetery. The mourning relatives are her aged partner, two daughters, Mrs. George F. Calder and Mrs. R. E. Mickleboro', both of this village. The other relatives are Messrs. David and James Sim and Mrs. D. Christie and Miss Sim, all of this township.

Mrs. Robt. Williamson and Miss Velma, of your town, spent a short time lately at the home of Mrs. John Horsburgh here.

W. Seaman and R. Burrows attended the funeral of the late Mr. Grierson, of Walkerton.

Orchard.

Miss Clara Hoeflin has returned from Toronto.

Misses Maggie and Mary Hartford, of Durham, were the guests of Miss Mary Calvert for a few days last week.

What might have proved a very serious accident happened to Mr. Jas. Robertson Friday last. He, with a few more men, were at work at Mr. John Douglass' barn when a falling brace hit him on the head inflicting a wound about three inches long. It was dressed by Dr. Brown, and he is improving favorably.

Mrs. A. Schram visited her daughter, Mrs. T. Tate, of Yeovil, last week.

Miss Maggie Bogle is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Robt. Nelson, of Normanby.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church purpose giving a social in the Hall on the evening of Tuesday May 19th. Admission 15 cents.

Birthday parties were the order of the day last week. Two little Misses had a celebration. Miss Laura Hoegi entertained a large number of her friends Friday afternoon. On Saturday afternoon Miss Mary Calvert entertained in honor of her little niece, Miss Maggie Hartford, of Durham. In both instances the program was varied and lively. The little folks went home tired but happy.

Revs. Little and Truax will exchange pulpits on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Little will occupy the Methodist pulpit here in the evening.

Varney.

Mrs. Will Clark is very sick with inflammation, and Mrs. Clark, Sr., is still suffering with muscular neuralgia. Maud Derby kindly gave them her help for a couple of days as it is hard to find help now.

Rev. Mr. Smith gave the children an entertaining talk Sunday last. Owing to the rain the attendance was not large.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carson, of Durham, visited at C Gadd's one day this week.

Rev. Mr. Kettlewell, of Mount Forest, was the guest of Mr. R. Pettigrew this week.

Mr. Thos. Petty has sold his farm to Dr. Leeson of Indiana for $4,000. Mr. Leeson takes possession next spring.

Miss Bradley is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robt. Petty, for a couple of weeks.

Miss Amabel McFlorde, from Stayner, called on Mrs. Caawford on Saturday last.

Mrs. Brown, of Egremont, has been nursing her sister, Mrs. Will Clark, for a week.

Since the G. T. R. is giving us such irregular mail service, why not hunt up Ben Mail who gave us such faithful service in all kinds of weather before we got the railway, or give us a wire so our mail contractor need not stay at the station so many hours waiting for the mail.

Wilder's Lake.

On Saturday last while the scow, "Dirty Bob," was bringing coal to the dredge "Alphonso" at Wilder's Lake it met with a mishap which might have proved disastrous to the crew which manned it in the persons of Nelson Wilder and Fred Davonport.

On nearing the dredge the scow gradually began to sink. The groans and screams for help from the inmates brought the worthy Bill Fleming to the scene. Bill's master mind took in the situation at a glance and immediately sent relief to the distressed crew. After some hard tugging Frank Stoddard, the mechanical genius, managed, by using a large crane, to which was attached a dipper, to land both men and scow.

Big Bill says it was one of the cases where bravery and presence of mind deserve to be honored, and thinks he and Frank Stoddard should receive a medal from the Humane Society.

We will ask Ye Editor to look into the case and see if the names of Stoddard and Fleming cannot be placed on the Honor Roll; also present a report to the directors of the plant to have the scow put into a safer condition in order that Nelson Wilder and Fred Davonport may have a respectable appearance on landing their cargo at the dredge instead of being taken out as if they formed a part of the material necessary for the manufacture of cement.

Frank Stoddard says they wouldn't do for cement as they will not be walked on.

Coughs, colds, hoarseness, and other throat ailments are quickly relieved by Cresolene tablets, ten cents per box. All druggists.

Giving False Evidence.

The following may throw some light on the value of Frank Sullivan's evidence. The following is from the Mail and Empire of the 24th instant, page 9, column 7, in which Frank Sullivan, under the examination of Mr. Blake, is reported saying:

"Q.—You registered some letters from Yorkville? A.—Yes, three or four.

Q.—One under an assumed name, A. B. Cossin. A.—Yes.

Q.—Why? A.—Mr. Gamey suggested it. It's a long story.

Q.—Tell us the story. A.—He said if I wrote to him not to use my own signature or my own name in registered letters.

Q.—Why did he advise this? A.—When he was down, after the publication of the Globe interview, he said he wouldn't have a friend on the Island, and his mail would be watched and his letters would be opened."

Now, as a matter of fact, that statement cannot be correct, for Gamey was not in the city during the time referred to. Gamey left Toronto on an early train on the morning the interview appeared in the Globe, and reached Allandale and waited for the night train for North Bay, that was on the Friday, and he arrived home here on the Saturday night, and R. R. Gamey was not off the Manitoulin Island from that day until the 8th day of March, reaching Toronto on the 9th day of March, so that it was not possible for him to have said to Frank Sullivan anything of the kind. If this is to be taken as an index of the truthfulness of Sullivan's statement, the public will not have much difficulty in placing the proper value on his evidence—Gore Bay Conservator.
