

Jim Dumps' young wife while yet a bride
Some biscuits made with greatest pride.
Jim looked with fear upon the food,
But to a bride one can't be rude.
"Let's eat 'Force' first, dear, 'tis my whim,"
It saved the life of "Sunny Jim."

Corner Concerns.

We were asked to describe why Jim Mathews' barn fell, inflicting such a severe wound in the head of Councillor McFadden. It was the inefficiency of a new method of staying it that was being tried while jacking it up. But we need not describe the method, because without some improvement we could not conscientiously recommend it for use to anyone except our enemies. It had originally been raised to some height and a part of it excavated and used for stabling, and it was in that part that Mr. McFadden was at the time it slipped from its props, and into that hole one end dropped while the other end rested upon the bank and kept it a few feet from the ground where he was. Of course the barn was sitting up on its hind legs in a very ungraceful posture with many a joint well out, but by resorting next day to the good old way of putting in buttments it was raised, straightened up, and the joints put back and made to look as good as new.

Last Wednesday while the two Joe Lennox were putting on a load of wood in the bush a tree fell in such a way as to give all present a narrow escape. It angled between the horses taking them to the ground, crossed in front of Jee, Jr., and across a large stump, behind which his uncle was stooped in the act of picking up wood. When the harness was cut to let the horses up it was found that a broken axle of the wagon was the greatest damage done.

Quite a number of the young people around here spent Victoria Day at the lake picnic, where an enjoyable time was spent, dancing being the chief attraction.

Mr. H. McDonald, of your town, commences the brick veneering of Barbour Bros. house this week.

Your Traverton Goat seems to have come out behind, three to one, in that sheep clipping contest with his neighbors. It must surely have been the bottle of smelling salts or the liniment he speaks of holding for them that put him so far behind. He shouldn't have bothered with it at all. It wouldn't have hurt the sheep a bit. Why the very best sheep raisers of the day will have a Goat at any cost to put with their flock, because they believe the fragrant smell of one is healthy instead of hurtful to them.

Miss Agnes Baird came up from Toronto on Saturday to spend a few weeks with her mother and other friends.

The Spring Bank Badger is still chewing away at us yet, and we don't blame him a bit, for hang the under dog anyway who won't bite even when he knows he is licked.

Mrs. H. Dennett is spending this week with her uncle near Conn. He is in poor health.

Edge Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moffat, of Owen Sound, visited the Moffat family here on the 24th.

Mr. Wm. McCracken has rented his farm and we understand he intends moving to town.

Mrs. Thos. Banks, who lately moved to Owen Sound, was visiting in this part last week.

Mrs. C. Williams returned on Thursday from a month's visit with friends in Toronto and Hamilton.

Rev. Mr. Farquharson's prayer meeting in the Grange last Tuesday was well attended considering the unfavorable weather.

Mr. Geo. Ritchie and Mrs. Wm. Ritchie drove out to Greenock last week to attend the funeral of the youngest child of the former's sister, Mrs. Wm. Moffat.

During the thunderstorm last Wednesday evening, Mr. George Ritchie's house was struck by lightning. The side was knocked out of the chimney, the floor splintered and some pieces knocked out of the cellar wall. Fortunately at the time it was struck, the inmates were all in the other end of the house and so escaped injury.

Bunessan.

By all means let the "Poet" advance. We are no pugilist, but our eldest son is a regular "scraper" and we feel that he is quite capable of upholding his daddy's cause in this case.

Mrs. Anderson has gone to Pittsburgh to settle up her affairs before settling down with her parents here.

On Wednesday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Beaton in town were presented with a handsome couch by their Glenelg friends and former neighbors. Mr. Beaton leaves for Edmonton this week.

Mrs. Gray, of the P. O. has been quite unwell for some time, and her stalwart son Jack has had quinsy. We hope to see both quite well soon.

Messrs. G. Roan and A. Little have rented Sam McComb's farm for pasture for the summer, and Geo. Binnie has rented Alex. Bell's farm for the same purpose.

We notice Jim White wheels out to town every evening and back every morning, with a dinner pail strapped to his bicycle. He now boards at Hunter's and works with the night gang at the Cement works.

Miss Alice Hunter has lately recovered from a threatened attack of appendicitis. We hope soon to see her as lusty as ever.

Mr. Editor, we most emphatically insist on not being mentioned in the same paragraph, or even on the same page, as that Saugeen Valley fellow. You need have no fear that the Bunessan budgets will cast any odium on THE CHRONICLE. Just print a few more of those Saugeen Valley productions and you will have all the odium any paper can need. The Glenelg Centre correspondent formerly reported for all the district now called Saugeen Valley. Has he resigned the office or do you wish to shame Glenelg people by continuing to publish such trash? We really believed you thought enough of your correspondents to protect them from such interlopers. So far as we are concerned the present incident is closed.

Perfect Cure for Bronchitis.

This disease can be treated only by a remedy carried to the affected parts along with the air breathed, for nature intended these organs for the passage of air alone, and sprays, atomizers and internal medicines utterly fail. But Catarrhzone doesn't fail, for it goes wherever the air breathed goes, and its healing antiseptic vapor is sure to reach every affected part. Catarrhzone is inhaled at the mouth and after passing through every air cell of the breathing organs is slowly exhaled through the nostrils. Catarrhzone protects and heals the inflamed surfaces, relieves congestion, allays inflammation, and perfectly cures all bronchial affections. Price $1. Small size 25c. Sackett's Corners.

The weather continues fine, the frost of a few nights ago not doing much damage.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. G. Lane had the misfortune to cut his foot. We trust he will soon be able to resume his work on the farm again.

Mrs. G. Witter has returned from visiting her friends at Brerlarie.

The football match between Priceville and Dromore was largely attended. Everyone was out with his best girl. Dromore won with a score of 3-0. Well done, Dromore. Priceville, try it again.

Mr. G. Witter is pathmaster this year. No doubt the work will be done in good shape.

We are sorry to learn that Herb. Childs has been sick with brain fever. We trust it will not prove as serious as reported.

The prayer meeting held recently at Mr. G. Sackett's was largely attended. The Rev. Mr. Matheson, of Priceville, attended.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. G. Haw, of Balsam Valley, is again very poorly. We hope to hear of him being better soon.

Miss Maggie McDougall is taking music lessons. Success, Maggie.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Haw, of Toronto, paid a short visit to their uncle, Mr. G. Sackett, this week. Mr. Haw leaves this week for Calgary, and if prospects are good intends making his home there.

Mr. George Haw, of this place, has returned from Port Hope, bringing with him a thoroughbred running stallion, which is called Manitoba.

Cowherd, but no Coward.

Mrs. Mark Wilson may be set down as woman of courage. One night last week she heard a noise in the cellar and bravely went on a tour of investigation. She discovered the intruder to be a cow which had found entrance through the open door. Boss had done no damage, and she was ignominiously bundled out. Therefore we rise to remark that a woman who can face a cow burglar under such circumstances must of necessity be a brave one.—Flesherton Advance. To our mind the cow was no coward or she wouldn't walk into the cellar of a butcher shop with such perfect nonchalance. Mrs. Wilson was a Durham girl, and no Durham girl was ever afraid of a cow. Some of them wouldn't hesitate to tackle a man.

Man and Mule.

The mule—he is a gentle beast;
And so is man.
He's satisfied to be the least;
And so is man.
Like man he may be taught some tricks;
He does his work from 8 to 6;
The mule—when he gets mad he kicks;
And so does man.
The mule—he has a load to pull;
And so has man.
He's happiest when he is full;
And so is man.
Like man he holds a patient pose
And when his work's done will rejoice.
The mule—he likes to hear his voice;
And so does man.
The mule—he has his faults 'tis true;
And so has man.
He does some things he should not do;
And so does man.
Like man he doesn't yearn for style,
But wants contentment all the while.
The mule—he has a lovely smile;
And so has man.
The mule is sometimes kind and good;
And so is man.
He eats all kinds of breakfast food;
And so does man.
Like man he barks at gaudy dress,
And all outlandish foolishness.
The mule's accused of mulishness;
And so is man.

DIED FROM LOCKJAW.

Twenty-Six Days After Vaccination— The Question of Connection.

The death of six-year-old Willie Simpson, son of R. L. Simpson, 386 Crawford street, from lockjaw, after vaccination, is causing some comment. The child was vaccinated, in order to enter a public school, on May 2nd, at the City Hall by Dr. Sheard, with six other children. He went to school and sometime afterwards became ill, and lockjaw set in, resulting in death Thursday evening.

Dr. Sheard stated this morning that this was the first fatal result, if it was a result, he had known in 25,000 cases. It was easy to draw inferences, but not easy to draw correct ones. If not impossible, it was highly improbable that the vaccination was the cause of tetanus, because this did not develop for twenty-two days after the vaccination.

"Tetanus might have resulted from any wound," said Ald. Dr. Harrison this morning, "and the fact that it did not result earlier, and that the other children were not affected, seems to be evidence that it was not due to the vaccine."

Well Drilling.

THE undersigned begs to inform the people of Durham and surrounding country that he is prepared to drill wells through rock, sand or any kind of soil and guarantee satisfaction. References may be made to Mr. Edward Kress and Mr. Furneaux, of Durham, for whom he recently drilled wells, doing the work rapidly and furnishing satisfaction. Particulars as to cost of drilling, piping and pump may be had on applying at The Chronicle office, Durham, or writing to
