Flesherton.

The remains of Mr. John Jones, who died at his home at Merriton on Friday last, were brought here on Saturday evening to the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Chas. Bellamy, from where the funeral took place to the Public cemetery on Sunday afternoon, Rev. Iverson Wilson officiating at the house and graveside. Mr. Jones was a resident of Flesherton in the days of his infancy, and was for a number of years a prominent figure in the business life of the place. The first tannery that existed here was operated by him. He also for several years conducted the then well known Boyne Water Hotel, and subsequently engaged in general business. Later, Mr. Jones moved to the old ashery near the station where, for some time, he engaged in the manufacture of black salts, etc. Since leaving here he has lived at Owen Sound, Tiverton and Merriton, where he was engaged in the grocery business. Deceased was 75 years of age, and is survived by his very highly respected widow, one daughter, Bertha, at home, and one son, James, of Owen Sound, all of whom attended the obsequies.

The widow and executors of the late Hugh McPherson, who lived near Flesherton Station, have been for some time in the courts defending the estate against a claim made by a sister of the deceased. The Owen Sound Times of Thursday last reported the issue as follows: "His Honor Judge Morrison handed out his decision this morning in the matter of the McPherson estate. Respecting the claim of Mrs. Blunden, of Chicago, a sister of deceased, for $2,700, the judge said that he believed the note to be a forgery from a signature attached to a letter in the possession of the claimant. This contention was supported by expert evidence, though it must be said in fairness to the claimant that Thos. Bengough, court stenographer, and a recognized expert on handwriting, held the signature to be genuine. Of claims amounting to almost $5,000, only $64.64 was allowed, the widow's right to almost the entire estate being thus recognized."

By the decision of the court at Owen Sound last week Artemesia and Euphrasia have to pay Wm. O'Brien $350 for alleged injuries by an upset from his cutter on the townline last winter. The judgment carries with it the costs of the court, which, with the above, will be a considerable item for the townships to put up.

On Tuesday evening of last week the football club here visited Priceville and played a match with the club there, which resulted in a score of 2-1 in favor of Flesherton. On the following evening the Clippers of this place visited Ceylon and made a score of 1-0 with the boys of that place.

At the regular meeting of Prince Arthur Lodge A. F. & A. M. on Friday evening last installation of officers took place. The following is the complete staff for the ensuing twelve months: F. W. Hickling, W. M.; W. A. Armstrong, S. W.; John Wright, J. W.; Rev. J. S. T. Wilson, Chap.; A. S. VanDusen, Treas.; C. H. Munshaw, Sec.; W. J. Boyd, S. D.; Henry Heitman, J. D.; T. A. Blakeley, I. G.; James Sullivan, Tyler; Ira Perigo, S. S.; R. P. Legate, J. S.; R. A. Park, D. of C. The W. M. appointed on B. of G. P., J. A. Boyd, W. A. Armstrong, W. J. Bellamy, A. S. VanDusen and C. H. Munshaw. Visiting Committee, Rev. Iverson Wilson, R. J. Sproule and M. K. Richardson.

Artemesia Agricultural Society have elected Mr. A. Butler, of Priceville, secretary Vice Mr. Jas. Brodie who has resigned and is about to leave for E. C. Mr. Brodie was a faithful secretary and looked after the interests of the Society with great zeal during his long tenure of office. We believe a good choice has been made in his successor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Davidson, organizers for the R. T. of Temperance, have been working here the past few days to resuscitate the R. T. Council which, in the Royal Degree, has been inactive for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson gave an interesting entertainment in the town hall on Friday evening last. The program consisted of vocal and instrumental

Black Hair

"I have used your Hair Vigor for five years and am greatly pleased with it. It certainly restores the original color to gray hair. It keeps my hair soft."—Mrs. Helen Kilkenny, New Portland, Me.

Ayer's Hair Vigor has been restoring color to gray hair for fifty years, and it never fails to do this work, either.

You can rely upon it for stopping your hair from falling, for keeping your scalp clean, and for making your hair grow.

music and stereopticon views, among which was the old temperance drama, "Ten Nights in a Barroom." On Sunday evening, after the church services, they again, in the same place, which was crowded to the doors, held a gospel temperance meeting during which stereopticon views of the life of Daniel were shown. A good list of names has been secured, and a meeting is to be held this Tuesday evening for re-organizing the Council.

At the Methodist parsonage, on Wednesday of last week, Rev. Iverson Wilson, B. D., joined in marriage Mr. W. J. McConnell, of Richard twp., Lennox County, to Miss Nellie I. McConnell, of Proton twp., Grey County.

Mr. Chas. Mosier has a name all his own for successful angling. From a splendid catch on Saturday last he treated your Cor. to two of the largest speckled beauties we have clapped an eye on for many a day. Dr. Murray pulled more than teeth on Monday. He, too, had a magnificent catch, and didn't forget us either.

The volunteers of No. 6 Company, who are going into camp at Niagara, left on Tuesday in command of Lieut. Chas. N. Richardson to be joined in Toronto by Capt. E. K. Richardson. Mr. Ernest Armstrong, Lieut. of No. 5 Company, Owen Sound, who has been home from Toronto for a few days, also left on Tuesday for Niagara.

Mrs. W. J. Douglas and children, of Collingwood, are spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. VanDusen, who are also being visited by the former's brother, Mr. Henry VanDusen, of Owen Sound.

Miss Ethel Whitten is home from Toronto visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Whitten.

Mr. Samuel Smith, of Dakota, who has been absent for 16 years, is visiting his father, Mr. Wm. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruthven, of Alliston, are visiting the latter's brother, Mr. F. Cairns, west back line.

Miss Flossie Thurston is home from Owen Sound Business College.

Rev. J. R. Newell, of Markdale, spent a few days last week with Rev. C. L. Mills, of this place. Church matters on the latter's field were receiving their attention.

Miss Ella Barnhouse is spending a few days with Miss Deagle at Eugenia.

Miss Christine Richardson left on Tuesday to visit her brother, Dr. E. K. Richardson, in Toronto.

Miss Hannah Bellamy paid a visit to the city on Saturday.

Mrs. Geo. Mitchell spent most of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. McGirr, at Feversham.

Mrs. I. B. Lucas, of Markdale, visited her mother, Mrs. M. K. Richardson, Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard and Mr. and Mrs. White, of Markdale, were in town on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurston visited Saturday evening and Sunday with friends at Kimberley.

Top Cliff.

We saw a number of young ladies going up the highway this evening, and on enquiring what was trump they told us a baseball match was to be played at or in Mr. Hucks' pasture field. Whether the match was to be played between the ladies and gentlemen we cannot say, but the moon's pale light shone gloriously and bright, and we fancy, as a natural result, of course, that the ladies did not tramp the highway alone going home. Mr. Ed., we were young before.

Bob Fisher has been busy shearing sheep for the neighboring farmers during the past week.

Our teacher is busy preparing his pupils for the entrance, which is to be held in a couple of weeks.

Commissioner Sullivan will be commencing his duties by way of letting contracts, &c., this week in Ward No. 2, Glenelg.

Herbert Watson and Wm. Keily are busy building a stone basement under John McKinnon's barn at present.

Mrs. Neil McDonald spent last week visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLeod, Jr., of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis McLeod, of Collingwood, visited friends here lately.

Our young ladies are busy house cleaning. Some of them are painting and carpeting, while other are satisfied with the whitewash brush. We are not prepared to say whether preparations are made for future events or to keep up good habits by way of attending to domestic duties, for it is said, and it must be true, that cleanliness is next to Godliness, &c.

As we are not far from the town of Priceville, and by the way we go to church there every Sunday, rain or sunshine, we feel it our duty to take walk there this evening and see if we can produce some of the events of the week in that place.

John McArthur & Son, merchants, were decorating their store lately by way of putting up a new verandah and a cement platform in front of their store, which adds much to the appearance of the establishment.

Alex. McLeod will soon have his mill dam in running order, but the water is very low at present and likely it will be some time before any sawing will be done.

Mr. Peter McKellar is visiting at present with friends at Priceville and Egremont.

We saw Editor Mortimer of the Shelburne Free Press in town lately. Mr. Mortimer is having cataract on both eyes and will soon be obliged to have an operation.

Rev. Matheson and Teacher D. McDonald are away attending the Presbyterian Assembly at Vancouver this week. A Rev. Mr. Watson fills the Presbyterian pulpit till Mr. Matheson returns.

Priceville played football with Dromore lately but lost. Priceville boys will score well at home, so Dromore may look for a defeat when they come to Priceville.

Mrs. Scott has veneered her dwelling house in lower town, Herb, Watson being contractor.

John Burnet raised his frame barn one afternoon last week. All went together well.

Bunessan and Saugeen Valley chaps are hitting one another with hard blows. Cuteness and refinement ought to hold tight reins to their temper, for it is easier to lose it than to find it. Josh Billings says: That an editor must be a man that will please everybody. But Josh is mistaken. An editor sometimes cannot please himself. If he did, he would throw some correspondent's productions in the waste basket. As he is generally a good natured fellow, he tries to please all parties as best he can under the circumstances, and if we, who are correspondents, deviate from the paths of common decency in our writings the editor is not to blame.

Mr. Albert Purdy, near Ceylon, cut his hand with an axe on Saturday last, nearly severing it across the palm. Dr. Dixon, of Priceville, had to put six stitches in the wound.
