PRINCIPAL BLAKESTON, of the Public School staff, was in Markdale yesterday afternoon. He is an applicant for caretakership of the new House of Refuge being erected there, and if the County Council are looking for a reliable and efficient man, they could not do better than secure Mr. Blakeston's services. We would be sorry to see Mr. B. leave Dundalk, but would be glad to know that we will be well taken care of when we go "over the hills to the poor house."—Dundalk Herald.

THE garden party under the auspices of the Durham B. Y. P. U. came off very successfully on Friday evening last. The beautiful grounds of Mr. B. F. Warner were again the ideal spot for this annual event, and a large crowd took the opportunity of being present. The grounds were lighted by electricity for the occasion. Tables were dotted over the grounds with pretty bouquets and willing waiters who were kept busy during the evening serving refreshments which consisted of sandwiches, a variety of cake, tea, coffee, ice cream and strawberries. Mr. Alex. McArthur was in the booth and had a sweeping sale of everything in the candy line, not even an "all-day sucker" being left to keep him company. Calls It Hot Air.

Calgary, Alta., June 15th, '03.

DEAR EDITOR:—Kindly have that Poet and Raven put into a box (a cracker box would do for both) and placed on ice for the remainder of summer, as the weather is quite warm enough here without importing such hot stuff as we have been getting lately.

THE CHRONICLE is always a welcome visitor out here, but Charlie Leavens is afraid that if things get much hotter we will be compelled to call out Bob Torry's fire brigade, so we hope our two little birds will be careful in future and give us a little more common sense and not so much bad temper and hot air.

Hoping our education will not be criticised too severely, we remain, Yours truly,

S. H. F.

E. JOHNSON, W. M. W. JORDON, Sec. Harris-on, June 15th.
