

Corner Concerns.

Mr. Jas. Allan had the misfortune to lose a valuable young mare last week. A few hours' sickness did the trick.

Mr. J. Martain, of Hamilton, joined his wife and family on their visit to Mr. Ben Crittenden's last week.

The young people of this neighborhood are holding a private picnic at the Lake on Thursday, and a few invited guests from outside points will also be there.

Mr. J. Greenwood, of Traverston, purchased a handsome new buggy the day of our picnic. Why did it not appear amongst others in the list? Was it an oversight or did it not have the appearance of a new buggy when he got home?

Mr. J. Vessie sold his threshing separator to Mr. Nasmith, of Holstein, last week. He sold the engine to an Ayton thresher some time ago.

Last week when THE CHRONICLE was taking its annual holiday the patron who was to supply the animal for fresh beef in Green Grove ring failed to furnish one, and to be left for a week with nothing but the Review and salt pork was enough to put folks to drinking.

Mr. Jacques started harvesting on Friday with a new Massey-Harris binder.

This week for the first time in our life as a correspondent, we have a railroad accident in our division to report, but if this branch is left in its present condition we will likely be more favored in the future. The afternoon train on Wednesday after it passed the crossing at the old Murdoch P. O. had four of its loaded coal cars, one box car and coach and baggage car leave the track, the four former ones turning over in the ditch with the box car mounted on top of them while the other two remained right side up. Two cars of coal and the engine remained on the track and reached Durham some where in the limited time. A large gang of men was soon at work clearing away the wreckage and repairing the track. The neighbors also turned out to see how it was done. About twenty rods of track was wrecked but was quickly put in repair again.

"How doth the busy bee improve each shining hour" is a matter of great importance to Mr. Wm. Lawrence at present as he is giving his time and attention to the bee industry.

Top Cliff.

Haying is pretty well done, and harvesting will be the next on the program. Crops are fairly good in general. Hay crop was better than expected, and those that sold for $10 a ton of old hay did well to secure that price.

Councillor Sullivan let a number of contracts on our roads which makes a great improvement for which he receives the thanks of the travelling community.

Miss Lydia Hamby, teacher, of Arthur, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thos. Fisher, of this place. Miss Hamby had four pupils at the Entrance and all passed.

We congratulate our teacher, Mr. Dixon, for his success at the recent Examination as he passed three out of five and only a small number to select from as our section is small. We notice that J. L. McKinnon took higher marks than any from the Durham school.

Miss M. McCannel left a couple of weeks ago to visit her sister, Mrs. Neil McLean, Montana, where she intends to stay for some time before returning.

Mr. Donald McDonald, teacher, received the appointment of delegate of Court of Foresters to be held at Barrie on the 18th August.

Rev. Mr. Matheson preached his first sermon last Sunday in Priceville after an absence of two months from his congregation. He will deliver a lecture on Friday evening next, 31st inst., in his church on his trip to the Presbytery Assembly and elsewhere free.

Miss Ida Williams, of Toronto, spent a few weeks visiting friends in this locality.

Miss Kate McIntyre, of Toronto, who was visiting at the old home returned again on Saturday last. Our trustees are re-engaging Mr. Dixon again for 1904.

Misses Jamima and Rachel Sot-hart are spending a while at the old home near Priceville.

Miss Maggie Simpson is at home at her mother's at Priceville at present where she will stay for some time.

Mr. John McKinnon had a stone basement put under his barn a couple of weeks ago. Herbert Watson was the contractor.

Miss Flora Stewart, of Latona, is visiting friends in this neighborhood at present.

Mrs. Alex. McPherson and her mother, Mrs. McLean, visited friends at Dornoch and Walkerton lately.

Mr. Neil McKinnon visited friends at Collingwood a couple of weeks ago.

Miss McDougall, of Bentinck, was the guest of her friend, Miss Tena McDonald, for a few days lately.

Berry-picking is the order of the day at present, and sugar is in great demand for preservation for future use.

Donald Gillis had to kill his dog for biting our late missionary preacher and for other damages done to his clothes. Well, we say there are lots of dogs that should share the same fate as well as Donald's.

THE OFFICE TOWEL.

When I think of the towel,
The old-fashioned towel,
That used to hang up near the printing house door,
I can think of nobody
In these days of shoddy
That could hammer out iron to wear as it wore.

The "devil" who used it,
The tramp who abused it,
The "comp" who got at it when these two were gone,
The make-up and foreman,
The editor (poor man),
Each rubbed some grime off, while they put a heap on.

In, over, and under,
It was blacker than thunder,
Harder than poverty, rougher than sin,
On the roller suspended,
It never was bended,
And flapped on the wall like a banner of tin.

It grew harder and rougher,
And blacker and tougher,
And daily took on a more inky hue,
Until one windy morning,
Without any warning,
It fell on the floor and was broken in two.

Rocky Saugeen.

Our news will certainly be a little stale this week, but the many readers of THE CHRONICLE will surely overlook it as there was no issue of your paper last week. We felt lonesome because the little weekly visitor did not come his rounds.

The Garden Party of the 14th on the grounds of Mr. Hugh McKechnie was a grand success. Although the afternoon wore a threatening aspect, the evening turned out to be fine and a large crowd gathered to enjoy the splendid program which had been prepared for the occasion. It consisted of fine addresses from several Rev. gentlemen, music and singing by the Durham choir, and several other ladies and gentlemen of talent took part and won the applause of the crowd. Total amount of proceeds $52.

We regret very much to learn that death has again visited the community and taken from among us another of the pioneers in the person of Mr. Donald McArthur, who passed away on Tuesday morning, the 14th. Deceased had been ailing for some time past. His remains were interred in the Durham cemetery whither they were followed by a large procession of relatives and friends. The sympathy of the community goes out to the afflicted ones in this their sad hour of trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, of your town, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. McLean week ago Sunday.

The Timmins brothers have now finished the building of the barn foundation of Mr. Wm. Vessie, Sr., and a first class job is the result.

We learn later that another camping party is tenting on Mr. John Ferguson's property north of the river; Inspector Harris and family we believe.

Berry picking is all the style at present, and an excellent crop is looked for when they are all ripe, but the fair ones are busy gathering what are rosy red.

ANOTHER shipment of those fast selling Tudhope Buggies just arrived at Barclay & Bell's showrooms. Also beautiful Stoves and Ranges for sale at Barclay & Bell's.

Glenmont.

At present it is so quiet around our corners that it seems a hard task to get any news that would interest your readers, but as it is too hot to work I thought I would jot down a few items.

Mrs. John Weir visited her mother, Mrs. Binnie, of your town, last week.

Our new pastor, Rev. Mr. Roach, has not been able to take his work on the circuit yet on account of sickness in the family, but we are pleased to know that his child is recovering.

Mr. Joseph Snell took the service at Ebenezer on Sunday and preached an excellent sermon.

Mr. Binnie McGirr and sister, Miss Maggie, were welcome guests of the Dixons the beginning of last week.

Richard Halpenny is engaged with A. Tucker, and John Wells with T. Hornsby to help with the haying.

Many of the young folk who wrote at the recent H. S. entrance exams are happy at having passed and few are disappointed. So far as we have heard the following teachers living or teaching in this neighborhood have been successful in passing pupils:—James Coleridge, W. L. Dixon, Miss E. J. Wilson. All may congratulate Mr. N. W. Campbell for getting out the results so early in the month.

Mrs. Chas. Long and little daughter, of Toronto, are spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. C. Watson.

Mrs. W. L. Dixon and little Miss Edna visited many of their Glenelg friends last week.

London's Great Fair.

Sept. 11th to 19th.

In a living picture of light so beautiful that the whole effect harmonizes in a bewitching luxury of color, you can see the fortifications built by Araba Pasha before the ancient city of Alexandria, over which floats the rebel flag. Within gun shot lie the rugged warships of Great Britain. Soon the "Condor" steams from their midst, pours a withering fire into the Egyptian artillery and receives crashing volleys in return. The good ship's concentrated shots prevailing, the nearest fort is reduced to silence and the rebel flag tumbles to the ground. Now the great guns of the whole British fleet boom forth in all their majesty, the enemy replies bravely, high explosives hurtle through the air, and for the nonce victory perches on neither banner. But right, justice and courage win out, the forts are blown up and the historic city levelled to ashes. This then is the mighty battle of Alexandria, the most awe inspiring triumph of modern pyrotechny, and withal one of the big attractions of the Western Fair, London. To miss seeing such a marvelous fireworks display and its attendant illuminations in the air and on the ground will be to cause a life-long regret.

But the directorate of the famous exposition are not resting their laurels on this one big feature even though it be as tremendous and far-reaching as any fete ever conceived for public entertainment. The balloon ascension of Prof. Bonnette is to be a sight of equal magnificence as a kindler of the imagination. After attaining a dizzy height by hanging to a trapeze with his teeth, the daring navigator of the upper air will execute a double parachute drop, leaping first from the big hydrogen bag, and then again from the initial parachute. The manifold dangers of the act make it a spectacle at once grand and thrilling.

"La Perche Equivoise" is the name of an acrobatic event credited with being unparalleled the world over, performed by the great Villions. This turn is rivalled in interest, however, by the eminent aerial team, Humes and Lewis. Miss Lewis makes the atmosphere her home, doing one of the cleverest trapeze performances known to athletic art, concluding with a drop head foremost to the platform.

Performing animals of all kinds have ever been popular with Canadian audiences and hence Prof. Ryder's celebrated troupe of performing monkeys should excite wonderment in a high degree. Their mirth-provoking antics never fail to create thunders of applause and explode mines of merriment.

In the Athos troupe (six in number) of acrobatic comedians the management has secured a faultless feature, the work of these talented people having been praised far and near. Orville & Frank are equilibrist of renown; Seymour & Dupra, one of the most novel acts ever witnessed; and the best in vaudeville, while but to mention the Pantzer trio is sufficient notice for all pleasure seekers the world over, and this will not be all as the attraction committee has about secured one of the world's best aerial troupes.

With these attractions and the additional ones to be booked between now and the opening day, the Western Fair cannot possibly fail of victory.

All the regular departments may be counted upon to excel their best previous efforts and to sweep the exposition of 1903 on a high tide of success.
