Flesherton.

Dr. Joseph Stafford, of McGill University, Montreal, met with sudden and very sore bereavement last week in the death of his beloved wife, who in the early hours of Monday morning while she slept, expired with heart failure. Mrs. Stafford had recently returned from a three months' visit with her brothers at Denver, Col., and, in the best of health and spirits, was visiting Montreal friends at their country residence waiting the return soon of her husband, who, during her absence, had been at the biological station at Malpeque, Prince Edward Island. The sad news was telegraphed to Dr. Stafford, who reached Montreal on Wednesday and found already there his sister, Mrs. J. P. Ottewill, of this place, and his brother, Prof. John Stafford, of Lataona College, Southern Cal., who is visiting here. The remains were brought here on Thursday evening to the home of Dr. Ottewill for interment in the Flesherton cemetery, but in deference to the wishes of the deceased's brothers of Denver, who did not reach Toronto in time to intercept the mourners, the body was taken back to Toronto on Saturday and interred alongside her parents in the family plot, in St. James' cemetery. The casket was covered with beautiful flowers from sorrowing friends. The deceased—nee Miss Kate Linton-Clark, of Toronto,—was in her 37th year, and leaves two little daughters aged 9 and 7 years respectively. She was an attractive and highly esteemed lady, whose death is mourned by a wide circle of friends. The sorrowing husband, who is the third son of the late Chas. Stafford, Esq., of the 4th line, Armesia, is well known here, and his many friends sincerely sympathize with him in his season of grief. Miss Stafford, teacher, Rockvale, accompanied her brothers to Toronto on Saturday. Rev. John Neil, B. D., of Westminster church, Toronto, who ten years ago married Dr. and Mrs. Stafford, assisted by Rev. Mr. Lawton, conducted an appropriate service in the cemetery Chapel before interment.

Many here have heard with regret the news received on Saturday evening that Mr. J. R. Anderson, formerly of this place, had early in the week passed away at his home at Manor, N. W. T. In May last Mr. Anderson was bereft of his amiable and beloved wife. Since then he has been in failing health and his call home so soon has made their separation brief. Mr. Anderson had many traits of character which made him a desirable citizen. He had good business ability, was genial in disposition, temperate in habits and religious in spirit. Known as the Scottish vocalist, he was much sought after for entertainments, and with his fine voice and Scotch songs stirred many an audience. For several years he led the service of praise in the Presbyterian congregation here and also served with much acceptance in the office of elder. On Sabbath Rev. Mr. Thom referred to his death, and the tribute paid to his memory was no doubt the sentiment of the entire congregation. Mr. Thom spoke of meeting Mr. Anderson on his recent trip to the West and at a social gathering hearing him sing with his usual effectiveness "My Ain Country," to which it was then little thought he would so soon be gone.

Mr. A. Munshaw has this summer expended a large sum in improvements on his hotel. The work is now completed and the building internally and externally presents a new and up-to-date appearance.

"Sabbath, July 19, was," says the Presbyterian of last week, "a red letter day with the Presbyterians of Rosemont. On that day their beautiful new church was dedicated to the worship of God, and Rev. A. Wilson and his people are to be congratulated on the success of their opening services. The congregations were large and enthusiastic. They have a neat, comfortable brick church free from debt, and are now equipped to do better work for the Master than ever before. Mr. Wilson's pastorate has been a very successful one at Rosemont." The Presbyterian church here was built during Mr. Wilson's successful pastorate, and though

Coughing

"I was given up to die with quick consumption. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I improved at once, and am now in perfect health."—Chas. E. Hartman, Gibbstown, N. Y.

It's too risky, playing with your cough. The first thing you know it will be down deep in your lungs and the play will be over. Begin early with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and stop the cough.

many changes have taken place since his removal he has still many old friends who are pleased to learn of his continued success in the vineyard of the Lord.

Flesherton Police trustees have done well in enacting a by-law prohibiting obstructions on the streets and animals running at large. The latter have been a great annoyance and the action of the town officials will doubtless meet with general approval.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Cullen, back line, was the scene of a happy but quiet matrimonial event on Wednesday afternoon of last week when their second daughter, Eliza, was joined in marriage to Mr. J. J. Little, of Wareham. The bride's pastor, Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, B. D., of this place, performed the ceremony in the presence of only a few immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The groom's brother, Mr. W. G. Little, and the bride's sister, Miss Sarah Cullen, discharged the duties of groomsmen and bridesmaid. The bride and bridesmaid wore pretty and becoming gowns for the occasion. After the wedding repast the happy and very highly esteemed young couple drove to their new home near Wareham, where we hope they may long enjoy happiness and prosperity.

At the close of the prayer meeting in the Methodist church last week Messrs. R. J. Sproule, W. J. Bellamy, Jos. Blakely and Robt. Best were re-elected to the congregation's representatives on the Quarterly Board. The trustees have let the contract of repainting the exterior woodwork of the church to be done forthwith by Mr. Tyron.

Sacramental services were held in the Methodist and Baptist churches on Sabbath morning last.

The Flesherton and Markdale football clubs played a friendly match at the latter place last week, but neither clubs made a goal.

Mr. Jos. Armstrong, of Toronto, who had been on a holiday up the lakes, visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hickling.

A very heavy thunder storm accompanied by a heavy downpour of rain passed over this part on Tuesday night. One of the important features of the storm was its violence and long duration. No harm as far as we can learn was done in this vicinity, but within our range of vision there were three or four large fires visible.

Haying is about over in this burg. Fall wheat and barley harvest is now the order.

Our farmers are feeling full to the neck with spirits over the fact that they are to reap another so abundant crop. Everything is looking excellent and every farmer has good reason to be jubilant.

Hounds have been playing havoc among sheep in this neighborhood of late. Messrs. Jacques and George Lawrence have been heavy losers in this way. Such destructive brutes are no use at best and should never be allowed to run at large.

Every person is in loving sympathy with Mr. Abraham Crutchley over the loss of his mammoth frame barn, so neatly and handsomely constructed only one year ago, which was burned to the ground by lightning on Tuesday night of last week. It was only through Mr. Crutchley's prompt action that the fine brick house was saved from also going up in smoke. It came near completely destroying one of the most beautiful homes to be found anywhere in the township. A quantity of hay and part of the implements were also destroyed by the fire. The insurance, we understand, is small compared with the loss.

The Lawrence Hall Sunday school picnic held in Ector's grove on Friday last was well attended by a crowd of jolly good natured pleasure seekers, the afternoon being pleasantly spent in playing baseball, football and games of all sorts. The Bussan Cor. being head engineer will be able to give a more definite account.

G. A. Watson has had his badly damaged buggy replaced by a new one.
