

Flesherton.

Intended for last week.

The Great Falls (Montana) Daily Tribune of the 11th inst. contains the following interesting news concerning an esteemed young gentleman formerly a resident of this place: "On Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Jos. Smith and Mrs. Jeanette Currie Smith, of Stockett, Miss Isabel Smith and Mr. William C. Irwin were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Mitchell, of the Presbyterian church. Only the members of the immediate family were present, and Mr. Ernest Downing, brother-in-law of Mrs. Irwin, from Great Falls. The bride looked charming in her travelling suit of brown cloth with which she wore an exquisite white waist. The parlor was prettily decorated with flowers and the service was performed in front of the piano, with the traditional wedding ring. Mr. and Mrs. Smith joined in giving away their daughter in to Mr. Irwin's keeping, and after the congratulations and good wishes of the pastor and family were received, the company repaired to the dining room and partook of an elaborate wedding breakfast. Miss Smith has lived since a child in Stockett or Sand Coule and has grown from a sweet lovely girl to a charming, beautiful and lovable young lady who counts all her acquaintances as friends. Mr. Irwin is the popular manager of the company's store and has, like his bride, made his home for many years either here or at Sand Coule, and universally esteemed for his geniality and integrity of character. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin drove into Great Falls to take the train for Havre, and will proceed to Niagara Falls and from there go to Canada. Mr. Irwin's former home. They expect to be gone three or four weeks and carry with them the best wishes of hosts of friends."

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin were joined at Toronto last week by the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Moore of this place, and after visiting Niagara and Wilson, N. Y., arrived here on Saturday and the young couple are spending this week with Mr. Irwin's father, Mr. Charles Irwin of the suburbs. We join Mr. Irwin's numerous friends here in hearty congratulations and good wishes for himself and bride.

The rain storm last week on Wednesday interfered with the garden party under auspices of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid at Jacob Thompson's, east back line. A social was held in the house and about $8.00 realized, which was very good considering the inclement weather. The ladies of the neighborhood were enthusiastic in their work and had gone to great trouble in preparing for the event, which would doubtless have been very successful had conditions been favourable.

foot-ball clubs played a friendly match here on Friday evening last, but the visitors were so late in arriving that there was time only for thirty minutes play. The match, though short, was interesting and resulted in one goal for the visitors. The home team was weakened by two of their best players being away.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lyons, 3rd line Artemesia, have the sympathy of their numerous friends on the loss of their infant son, about a year old, who died on Saturday night last. Interment took place in the public cemetery here on Monday.

On Wednesday evening of last week Mr. John Hargrave, jr., of the Collingwood Road, became a benedict, the esteemed young lady who accepted his hand being Miss Clara Gilliland, daughter of Mrs. T. B. Gilliland, of Eugenia. The interesting event took place at the home of the bride's mother and was attended by about seventy invited guests. The bride, who was prettily gowned in white organdie, was given away by her uncle from Mt. Forest, and Rev. G. H. Hurlburt, of this place, tied the nuptial knot. Mr. Thos. Gilliland and Miss Ida Brownlee discharged the duties of groomsmen and bridesmaid. After the ceremony and usual congratulations a sumptuous wedding supper was served and an enjoyable evening was spent by the company. The bride was the recipient of a beautiful array of wedding presents.

Mr. John Brown, sr., east back line, is under treatment of a specialist for failing sight which has been troubling him of late. Mr. Brown is very fond of reading, and being in a position to now spend his days as leisurely as he may please, we trust he may have preserved sight to long enjoy his favorite pastime.

As we write (Monday) news has been received here by wire from Durham announcing the death of Maud, eldest daughter of Mr. W. Irwin, editor of the Chronicle, who has succumbed to typhoid fever. Maud as many readers know, was a very clever and bright christian girl, whose death is a great shock to her numerous friends, young and old here. The whole community breathes sorrow for Mr. Irwin and his little daughter Rita in the great bereavement that has befallen them. The remains of the poor girl are to be laid alongside her mother here Wednesday.

Farmers on the 4th line Artemesia are having trouble some time with colt distemper, which has been for some time prevalent and severe among their young horses.

Rev. Wilson has sufficiently recovered from his accident to supply his pulpit here on Sabbath last. Mrs. F. Nicholson supplied at Ceylon.

Rev. Mr. Cameron, Asst.-Supt. of Home Missions, was the guest of Rev. G. S. Hurlburt on Wednesday of last week and had the very inclement weather not prevented an audience. Was to deliver an address in the Baptist church that evening.

Mrs. Lasset of Preston, and Mrs. Borsch, of Toronto, were the guests of the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. A. S. VanDusen, part of this week. Miss Ella Borsch, of Toronto, is visiting Mrs. VanDusen this week.

Mr. John Gillespie, who has served his apprenticeship with Mr. A. Wilson, barber, left on Tuesday to take a situation in Toronto.

Mr. Everett Hoy, formerly with Mr. Wilson, but now of Brampton, made a short visit here last week.

Mrs. (Dr.) Rosborough, nurse, was in town on Friday last saying goodbye to her father, Mr. Bannon, and sister, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, before leaving this week to again take up her work at Everett, Wash. Her eight year old son accompanied her.

Mr. and Mrs. Karstedt, attended the marriage of the latter's cousin, Mr. Hargrave, at Eugenia last week.

Mr. W. Ritchie and sister, Miss Gertie, of Dundalk, spent Sunday at Mr. M.K. Richardson's. Mr. Ritchie occupied his old place in the Methodist choir on Sunday evening and favored the congregation with a well rendered solo.

Mrs. John Stewart and her aunt, Mrs. W. Neil, who is recovering from a severe illness, visited friends at Markdale Monday.

Miss Ada Cleland, of Barwick, Rainy River, is visiting her uncle, Mr. Jos. Blackburn, here, and other relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw, of Markdale, spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bellamy.

Sackett's Corners.

Harvesting is a thing of the past in this vicinity, and the steam thrasher is heard from morning till night.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Mr. James McDonald which occurred on the 15th inst. Deceased was at the Corners the day before he died in his usual health. On the day of his death he was assisting in loading some lambs for market when he complained of a pain around his heart. He went in the house, and in a short time afterwards was dead. The bereaved widow and children have our sincere sympathy and also the aged father and mother in the loss of their only son.

There was a fine turnout at the annual Orange picnic which took place on the 16th in Hardy's bush, but owing to the heavy rainfall of that afternoon it was a complete failure as far as carrying out the program was concerned. We hope to be avored with better weather next year.

We understand that Mrs. J. Renwick has invested in a knitting machine.

Mr. James Renwick has purchased Mr. J. C. Caldwell's barn at the corner and intends moving it onto his own farm. Mr. Renwick did well in securing it as he would not get a barn of the same soil with less trouble or expense.

Mrs. A. Ernest has gone to visit her mother who is dangerously ill at Walter's Falls.

Mrs. J. Smith, of New England, spent Sunday at Mr. G. Sackett's.

Catarhal Poisons and Their Remedy.

The poisonous secretions from Catarrh are dangerous because they affect the stomach and bowels, giving rise to an unhealthy condition of these organs. Catarrh is the source of much ill health and was considered practically incurable until it was demonstrated to the satisfaction of the medical profession that by the use of Catarrhazone any case of nasal or throat trouble can be permanently and quickly cured. Catarrhazone by its unusual merit has enlisted the support and endorsement of the most prominent medical authorities who freely state that any one giving it a trial is sure to receive permanent benefit. Sold for $1. Small size 25c. At Druggist or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Spring Bank.

Mr. Alex. Maine, of Holstein, visited his cousin, James Maine, the beginning of the week.

Mrs. John Wallace and her three children, of Walkerton, visited their cousins, the Watsons, since our last budget.

Mr. and Mrs. James Maine spent Sunday week in the vicinity of Holstein.

Mr. Allan Kennedy has returned from the lower settlements where he has spent the summer.

Mrs. Joe Lawrence has been somewhat indisposed of late. Hope to see her enjoy her usual health soon.

Some of our young people took in the Orange picnic at Swinton Park on Wednesday of last week and say they had a delightful time despite the fact that the season's heaviest downfall of rain fell that day.

Little Miss Mary Hooper, who has been staying with her aunt, Mrs. Joe Lawrence, is ill with appendicitis.

Mr. George A. Lawrence, who has been suffering from heart affliction, is now in Toronto undergoing treatment. It is our sincere hope that Mr. Lawrence may soon be able to make his return home fully restored to his old time health, vigor and activity.

Mr. George Ingham and three children, of Ingersoll, are visiting the former's parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jacques.

The people of this neighborhood, who never fail to show their kindness when seeing a neighbor in want, have turned out and assisted Mr. Abraham Crutchley in getting home lumber for his new barn which he intends to have pinned together before winter draws nigh.

A very interesting event and one that attracts the attention of this community took place at the Baptist Parsonage, Durham, on Thursday, the 17th ult., it being the marriage of Mr. Simeon Wilder to Miss Maria Wilson. The Rev. Mr. Newton performed the nuptial knot.

Holstein.

W. D. Seaman has gone West to enter upon his duties as teacher. He has secured a situation near Yorkton at the handsome salary of $540 per annum. He left on the 11th inst.

Mr. W. T. Petrie is still seriously ill. A specialist from Toronto, Dr. McPhedern, was called on Wednesday of last week and gave some encouragement to the anxious friends and the patient, however, but little change for the better has taken place.

Mr. Thos. Brown, who was visiting friends in Regina and vicinity for the past couple of weeks, returned on Monday of last week.

Miss Delia Carson, of Grand Valley, spent a week with Mrs. A. Hunt and other friends. At the morning service in the Methodist church on Sabbath of last week she rendered a most beautiful solo entitled "Lord be merciful to me." Miss Carson is a blind girl and is deserving of great praise for ability as a vocalist.

Mr. George F. Schwalm was over to see us on Saturday. No doubt it was a business trip.

Mr. W. J. Sharp has been re-engaged in our school for 1904.

The Rev. D. L. Campbell occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church here last Sabbath.

Mr. P. Dickson has sold his farm to W. Waddell, of Carman, Man., who is now on a visit with friends here, and whose object in coming here was to secure a home in old Ontario.

Mr. A. Durrant and family moved into our village on Thursday of last week.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all but it is certain a cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get this reliable remedy at Darlings Drug Store.

Traverston.

Mr. Abel Wright paid Owen Sound a business visit the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Glencross had a pleasant time over with friends at Thornbury and Clarksburg for a few days lately.

Since we last wrote for THE CHRONICLE, Mr. and Mrs. George Peart had a fine boy added to the household. Miss Mabel Bradley is fast regaining her old strength and vigor; 'tis over two weeks since she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. T. Flynn (nee Miss Maggie Robson) with baby came up from Toronto on Tuesday of last week to spend some time in the old home.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cook drove out to Maple Hill on Saturday to visit Mr. Joseph Cook and family.

Good men are in demand. Mr. Will Jack was recently offered $45 a month and board with expenses paid to place of work. 'Twas to go as liner for a timber gang.

Zion-Sunday School has added over thirty new books to its library, thus making 456 volumes on its list. Not a bad record for a country place.

It was with saddened hearts and words of sorry that our people heard on Monday of the sudden call to Miss Maud Irwin. She was most popular with old and young out here, and her winning manner and intellectual cleverness had won her a warm place in all hearts. The winsome, bright, young life has passed into a wider realm of usefulness; but all hearts go out in deepest sympathy to the loving father so bereft and the young sister left so lonely.
