Flesherton.

This Week's Budget.

East Gray Fair held here on Thursday and Friday last was a grand success. The exhibits were good the weather was fine and the crowd large the gate receipts being $280.00, over $105 larger than last year. The exhibits in the hall were, on the whole, not as full as last year but better in quality. Outside the show was better than last year. Mr. McTavish made a firm exhibit of carriages and J. Weber had something special in a spraying apparatus. The speeding in the ring attracted the usual attention and the results were as follows: Single driver—1st, Geo. Edwards; 2nd, S. Edgerton. Single driver for appearance and value—1st, A. S. VanDusen; 2nd, S. Edgerton; 3rd, Rev. L. W. Thom. Farmers' speeding—1st and 2nd, J. A. McMillan; 3rd, S. Edgerton. Best lady driver—1st, Miss Mabel Munshaw; 2nd, Miss E. Stephens; 3rd, Mrs. J. Walker. Saddle horse—1st, J. B. Holmes; 2nd, T. Bells. Open trot, $75 purse—1st, J. K. Vicks; 2nd, J. C. Reid. 2 min. 40 sec. trot, $50 purse—1st, J. C. Reid; 2nd, A. B. Cheeseman; 3rd, George Edwards. Named race—1st, S. Edgerton; J. E. McMillan; 3rd, C. Patterson. Men's bicycle race—1st, J. Turner; 2nd, E. Best. The Markdale Citizens' Band furnished excellent music during the afternoon. One of Mr. Reid's horses met with an accident on the way here and wasn't in a condition to go on the track.

Miss Rita, youngest daughter of Mr. Jeremiah Thompson, Collingwood Road, is suffering from terrible burns received in her own home on Tuesday of last week. While engaged at the stove a broom in the young girl's hand caught fire, from which her clothing ignited and before the flames could be extinguished she was terribly burned in the back and down one limb. Dr. Carter is doing what he can to relieve her distress and we trust will be successful in saving her life. The girl's eldest sister had her hands considerably burned rescuing her from her perilous condition.

After a few months of rapidly failing health Magdalene Bentham, relict of the late Richard Bentham, passed away on Thursday last at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Wm. Wilcox, west back line. Mrs. Bentham, who had reached the good age of 78 years and 5 months, was a very active and energetic woman until about a year ago when her strength began to fail and she, with her husband, who died less than 5 months ago, went to live with her daughter, who gave her most affectionate attention. The funeral took place on Saturday to the cemetery here and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Wilson conducted an appropriate service at the house speaking words of comfort to the family of the deceased, who, like her husband, had been for many years a professing christian and faithful member of the Methodist church.

It is with feelings of sympathy for the suddenly bereaved family that we chronicle the death of Wm. Kells McMullen, the third son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. McMullen, west back line, who on Sabbath morning last, despite the best efforts of his physicians, succumbed to a brief attack of peritonitis. The grief stricken parents and brothers and sisters have the sympathy of the wide circle of friends in their sorrow, but greater comfort than this is afforded them in the resignation to the divine will of their dearly beloved son and brother, who peacefully passed away to the better land. The deceased, who was but a little over 17 years of age, will be greatly missed in the family circle as well as by his young friends. The funeral took place to the public cemetery here on Tuesday forenoon, the burial services being conducted by Rev. L. W. Thom. Among the floral offerings was a beautiful wreath from the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor here.

The esteem in which Mr. Wm. Irwin and his deceased daughter, Maud, is held was shown in the turn out of the forty or more friends who followed her remains from Durham to the public cemetery here on Wednesday of last week. On the arrival of the funeral a short service was held in the Methodist church, the deceased's pastor, Rev. Wray Smith, being assisted by Rev. Mr. Wilson, of this place. Mr. Smith, under feelings of deep emotion, paid a touching and fitting tribute to the memory of the deceased, who, though so young, had been so active and so useful in the church, and who, though now dead, by her beautiful christian life yet speaketh. At the close of the service the friends here were given an opportunity of viewing the remains of the dear young girl born here nearly 16 1/2 years ago. The casket was covered with beautiful floral offerings from friends in Durham, to which was added a beautiful wreath from her young school friends here. Messrs. E. Watson, F. Vickers, A. Staples, W. Glass, A. Cook and E. Wolfe, of Durham, all members of the Epworth League, in which the deceased was an officer and very active worker, acted as pall bearers. Among those who joined the funeral here were the deceased's grandfather, Mr. John Irwin, uncles Christopher, Charles and Isaac Irwin, aunt, Miss Annie Irwin, and cousin, Miss May Irwin, all of Heathcote, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. C. Knott, of Kimberley.

The 26th anniversary of the opening of the Methodist church was successfully celebrated on Sabbath last. Rev. Wm. Johnston, of Havelock, who was pastor when the church was built, occupied the pulpit morning and evening, and in his old time earnest manner preached thoughtful and deeply spiritual sermons, which we are sure must have been enjoyed by the congregations that in the evening notwithstanding the rain being large. The thank-offering was over $100. The choir rendered special music. Mr. Johnston also preached at Meaford Road in the afternoon and was also a speaker at their fowl supper on Monday evening. The Methodist choir, Miss Christine Richardson and Miss Bunt were also there to entertain.

Ye concert of ye olden tyme given under the auspices of the Methodist Ladies' Aid in the town hall on Friday evening last was a very gratifying success, the proceeds being $56.60. Nearly all who took part were uniquely costumed in the dress of olden days and the very pleasing program was in harmony with the gone days represented. We haven't space to enumerate other than to say the home talent—W. Barnhouse, J. A. Boyd, Dr. Murray, Rev. Wilson, Mrs. Thom, Mrs. Blackburn, Miss Christine Richardson, Miss Ethel Trimble—who took leading parts, all acquitted themselves well and were ably assisted by Miss Bunt, of Woodbridge, in very pleasing recitations, and Mrs. Lucas and Mrs. Hill, of Markdale, with beautifully rendered vocal numbers, Mr. J. Dundas, accompanist. Mrs. Lucas and Mrs. Hill both possess very sweet voices, and should they again favor a Flesherton audience they will receive as hearty a token of appreciation as that recorded them by the delighted audience on this occasion. Mr. M. K. Richardson, Y. P., attired in 17th century garb, presided in a very affable manner.

Sabbath last being Children's Day throughout the Presbyterian church in Canada, the Sabbath School of that denomination here observed the day and was specially addressed by the superintendent and pastor.

A trotting race took place on the agricultural track on Monday between Chris. Paterson's and Dr. Ottewill's roadsters. The race was to be three out of five heats, but ended with two only, which were won by Paterson's horse. The wager was ten dollars a side.

The millinery openings took place here the last days of last week and were largely attended by the fair sex. Many and beautiful were the creations that were shown, and in trimming novelties the stocks were very complete.

Mr. Thorp Wright, of Toronto Junction, took in the fair here on Friday and visited old friends till Monday. His daughter, Miss Emma Wright, is spending a week with Mrs. Hickling and other old friends here.

Miss Maud Richardson, of Toronto, is holidaying for a couple of weeks with her mother here. Miss Richardson, who is now devoting her time to sketching, painting and drawing, exhibited some beautiful works of art at the fair.

Rev. J. L. and Mrs. Simpson, of Thornbury, were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Thom Thursday and Friday last.

Mr. F. W. Hickling went to the city on Saturday to meet his sister, Miss Hickling, of London, England, who is going to pay him a visit and take in some of the sights of Canada.

Mrs. (Dr.) R. H. Henderson, of Toronto, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jos. Blackburn.

Mr. Wm. Irwin, of Durham, spent from Wednesday last till Monday among his old friends here, who deeply sympathize with him in his sorrow.

Miss Minnie Munshaw left on Monday, accompanied by her father and sister to Toronto, to spend a few months with relatives at Acheson, Kas.

It Has Been Proven

To our satisfaction at least a dozen times the past week that our Ready-to-wear Clothing has the lead in style and finish, and only on Saturday night last we were told by several who had never visited our store before that had they only known they could have saved at least $3.00 by buying their fall Suits and Overcoats from us they would have been happy to call.

We can't go out on the street and drive you in.

All we can do is ask you to ask those who have bought their Clothing from us. If that won't do, come in and let us convince you then by inspecting our stock and prices. If we can't do that we are the losers and run the risk of having our advertisements disregarded.

You Know

To be up-to-date in Clothing and not so in Men's Headgear would be "like exhibiting a horse with only one ear." We are right up-to-date in Men's Hats and Caps. The very newest fashions at the very lowest prices.

YOUR FEET

Must be shod. We carry a stock of Gent's Fine Shoes and Working Shoes, amongst them SLATER'S INVICTUS. Now, when you want anything in Men's wear, don't forget that this is the only purely Gent's store in Durham. We cater to that trade and that trade only. Our stock is new, our goods are up-to-date and our prices cannot be beat if equalled.
