Glenroaden.

Miss Maud Banks was visiting the parental home Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Theodoe Leeson was visiting Glenroaden friends for a few days last week.

Mr. Mike Kenny lost a valuable pig lately. Cause, heart failure.

Mr. Gillen Boyd has been making some improvements in the building line.

Mrs. Bailey has returned to Glenroaden and is now installed as house-keeper for Mr. M. Kenny.

Mr. George Bailey was visiting his sister, Mrs. John Quinn, Sr., for a few days last week.

Threshing is about over with a good yield and happy farmers which makes the wheels run smoother.

Mr. Allan Boyd is now the happy possessor of a fine driver with all the appliances such as buggy, cutter and harness.

Miss Alice Banks, of Dundalk, was visiting her home and other friends here one day last week.

Mrs. Richard Banks was on the sick list for a few days last week but we are glad to report her all right again.

Little James Vaughan, son of Mr. Hugh Vaughan, got badly kicked on the face while trying to catch one of the horses in the field. But under Dr. Macdonald's care he is progressing favorably.

Old Mr. Quinn says, it must be a very poor man that cannot get 100 pounds of shoris on time. Very true.

Mrs. Wm. Kingston has been on the sick list for a few days. It is to be hoped she will soon be herself again.

Mr. George Duncan, of Riverview, was visiting Glenroaden friends on Saturday and Sunday and was accompanied back by Miss Maud Banks. Tug-of-war in the near future between two stalwarts!

Spring Bank.

Miss Maggie Moore, of Toronto, spent a few pleasant days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, lately.

Miss Ellen Lawrence visited her friends in Bentinck last week.

Mason Jim Boaks is assisting the Watson Bros. to build a cellar.

Mr. Abraham Crutchley raised his new barn on Tuesday last. Messrs. Phos. McFadden and George Binnie were selected as Captains and after some time of heaving and lifting, pinning and nailing the task was completed. Binnie, by the aid of a dozen extra men or more, was successful in winning the race. Mr. Neil McFayden is contractor. After tea was served the floor was cleared and a few pleasant hours were whiled away in music and dancing. Mr. Jas. Maine raised a large L to his barn on the Tuesday previous which will give him ample room for stock fodder and implements. Mr. George Moore had the contract and of course everything was done up in the right way. That evening after the inner man had partaken of its wants the floor of the spacious kitchen was cleared and evening pleasantly spent in plays and music.

Mr. Jas. Wilson, of Vancouver, B. C., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lawrence last week.

The people in this part who are ever ready to show their generosity assembled at Mr. Geo. Lawrence's on Thursday last with teams and ploughs and before night about 20 acres had changed its color. Some who could not be on hand that day will yet fall in line and lend a helping hand.

We again refer to the fact that the members of L. O. L. No. 1192 will have their Pie Social on the night of November 5th. Admission 15c; Ladies bringing pies, free.

The Sunday School in Lawrence's Hall was brought to a close on Sunday for the present year.

Nerviline Gives Satisfaction.

Polson's Nerviline, the new and certain pain cure, is used with satisfaction in every instant. There is abundant reason for this, for it performs all that is claimed for it. Nerviline is never failing cure for cramps, pains in sides or back, sore throat, lumbago, chilblains, toothache. Nerviline is in fact a sure remedy for all pains, both internal and external. Medicine dealers everywhere.

Glascott.

Since our last budget of about 3 weeks ago the grim reaper has been busy in this neighborhood. On Oct. 5th, Wm. Kirk, at the ripe old age of 78 years, passed away at his son's residence here. Mr. Kirk never knew what sickness was till about three weeks before his death and could do a man's work on the farm up till that time. He leaves a family of five sons and three daughters, all of whom have the sympathy of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coyle and family have the sympathy of the community in the loss of their youngest son, Joseph Daniel, at the age of seven months. The funeral took place on Tuesday, Oct. 20th, to Latona cemetery. Rev. Acheson conducted the services at the home and grave.

On Friday, Oct. 16th, Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan received the sad news by wire of the death of their eldest son John, who succumbed to an attack of Typhoid fever at Rat Portage Hospital. His remains were accompanied home by his two brothers, Charlie and Isaac, who had gone west for the harvest months. The funeral took place on Saturday, Oct. 24th, to Latona. The services at the house were conducted by Rev. Hunter of Markdale and Acheson of Dornoch. A large floral wreath was presented by the Methodist Church of Berkeley, of which he was an active member. A beautiful arch with gates ajar, by his intended bride, Miss Maud Bowers, music teacher of Markdale, who feels the loss very much. The grief stricken family have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

Mr. T. Sowerby's little boy has been very ill for some days, but is now on the way to recovery.

Mrs. T. Moran spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Ryan of Irish Lake, recently.

Mr. Will Bell bought a fine pair of two year old colts last week to replace the team he sold.

We notice in several papers that some people think they have big potatoes. Your scribe has two potatoes that weigh 5 lbs 8 oz., one of those tips the scale at 3 lbs and has a small piece taken off it with the plough.

There's a Story in Morning Tiredness.

A story of blood, weakened nerves, of a starved brain. Plenty of food, mind you, but perhaps poorly prepared and too poorly digested to maintain a vigorous body. Ferrozone quickly makes blood, gives strength to the nerves, cures the fagged feeling that prevent vigorous thought and action. Use Ferrozone, it make blood, and good blood feeds the nerve. Strong and vigorous nerves are just another name for good health. If you seek health, and a relief from the tired morning feeling, use Ferrozone. Sold by all druggists.

Glenmont.

Mr. John Jones, Owen Sound, is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity for a few days.

Miss Lilly Jack-on of North Carolina was visiting her aunt Mrs. F. Hargrave last week.

Mr. Thos. Kennedy is not recovering as rapidly as might be expected.

Messrs Chesley Cheslette and Isaac Hooper left last week to fill appointments in the lower settlements. We wish them success.

It was with sorrow that the friends and acquaintances of the late J. W. Stephenson learned of his unexpected death, which took place at his home on Monday the 19th inst. He leaves a wife and two small children to mourn his loss. Some three or four weeks ago Mr. Stephenson became the victim of Typhoid Fever, but with good nursing and good medical aid he was seemingly recovering rapidly and expected to be up in a few days, but on the Monday morning he became suddenly and fatally ill and died after enduring intense suffering for about an hour. He was taken away in the prime of life at the age of 33 years, and he will be very much missed both at home and by his many neighbors by whom he was always held in high estimation.

The funeral took place on Wednesday. The funeral sermon was preached in the Ebenezer church, by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Roach, after which the remains of the deceased were followed to the cemetery by a large number of friends. In the procession the Workmen and Orangemen went in separate bodies, the Orangemen and pall-bearers marched immediately in front of the hearse. After the burial ceremony by the pastor, the Orangemen gathered around the grave and performed their own burial service; paying a last tribute to their deceased brother and friend. Among the relatives who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin and daughter from Muskoka, Mrs. Thos. Hymers and son from Donigal, Messrs John and Abraham Jones from Owen Sound, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tiff, Hanover.

The grief stricken widow, her two children and the sorrowing friends have our sympathy.
