

FARMERS' ASSOCIATION.

South Grey, September 30th, 1903.

MR. CHAIRMAN AND GENTLEMEN:—

We are here to combine and we have great reason for so doing. Combination seems to be the order of the day. We have combined above us and around us, but none beneath us. We are looked upon as a lot of useful men; the horny fist—the heaver of wood and the drawer of water—the burden bearer, and truly so when we look at the amount of indirect revenue tax which we have to bear. Above us we have the government and parliament combined and around us we have railroads, manufacturers, iron smelters, ship builders and so on ad infinitum until at last we are forced to combine and form an association in our own defence. The government and parliament combine to give away our money and the man with his hand in the treasury doesn't seem to be horny fist with his friends. You have heard of the Family Compact in 1837 when the famous Lyon McKenzie raised his puny arm, but he failed and had to flee. The sword is a dangerous weapon but we have a safer and more civilized weapon. Let us wield that little bit of paper called the ballot and show to the world that there is power in the arm that can thrust in the sickle and guide the plow. In the Family Compact there are three degrees of affinity. There is a political affinity, a commercial affinity or financial affinity and a blood relationship. But one thing is very strange if not very suspicious and that is the readiness the willingness with which our money is given away by the government and parliament. If it was their own money, very well, or if it was the money of the rich taken and given to the poor, had enough, charity included. But to take the hard earned money of the toiler and the consumer to make rich men richer it is not only robbery but worse. It is like the rich man who spared his own flock but took the poor widow's lambs to feast his friends upon. The great Sir Richard Cartwright was making a speech in the music hall, Toronto, in August of 1900, when a voice came up out of the great throng "What about those 30 years of robbery?" But I would go further back and say those 40 or 50 years. The Conservatives set the example and the Liberals have followed in their track with a nicety that is curious to describe. So liberal are they to what they were 10 or 15 years ago. How long must we submit to have our money taken and given to the rich? Is it not high time that it should be stopped? As we said out at Dromore so let us say now and here in Durham: No more bonuses, no more giving away of land and money by the million, no more piling up of the public debt, etc. We have a petition of over 100 names by our Mr. Geddes, of Egremont, against this giving away, etc. The number is not large, but if we had only one of such men in each township in the riding what an influence, what a power it would be to put in the hands of our representatives to protest against the injustice being done to farmers and working men. The government is not only loading us with a heavy revenue tax even now, but they are piling up for our children and grand-children in the shape of a fast accumulating public debt.

If you organize and combine then you will become a political force if you do not you are like a flock of scattered sheep and they will let in the wolves and they will fleece you as they are doing and will do. Just think how generous the government is to the rich and how niggardly to the poor. If a farmer wants to tile drain his land they will lend and with interest, but not give as they do to corporations and rich men. Let us combine and stand up and raise our voices and our votes and our petitions as a protest against such maladministration. Macaulay, the historian, says that in the reign of Wm. III the politicians stuck to their party through thick and thin. Now, Sir, we want no such men in parliament; they are mere tools, flunkytiles bereft of moral as well as political principle. Can we not have independent Conservatives and independent Liberals? We have even now in parliament some notable exceptions to the common herd of voting machines. Can we not here and now in Durham stand up as such for our own rights and fair play to all and let it be seen that we are the independent electors of South Grey?

The Farmers' Association has already shown its influence for good. We find the great Mr. Ross coming down to the farmers and saying, "That the day of bonuses and subsidies is past." Let us take courage and keep on and be sure to combine and in due time the great Sir Wilfrid with his usual grace will come down and follow Mr. Ross' good example. Now as it appears that we lose 25 per cent. of our income in extortionate railway rates and protected high prices and government bonuses and so on ad infinitum, let us see what that means in plain figures. The average farmer will sell off his 100 acres about five or six hundred dollars worth and 25 per cent. of 600 is 150 so that our income is less by $150 than it would be if we had those grievances removed. Then is it not worth combining to have them removed.

You may ask how it is we never heard of all this before. Well it is the party cry that has kept us in the dark and the party newspapers have kept us in the dark. You may read a party paper from top to bottom and you will be little the wiser as to what a family of bonus fed children the government has. Until I began to read the farmers' paper "The Sun" I was in the dark as well as my neighbor and until my neighbor begins to read he too will be in the dark and pay over his surplus coppers to make rich men richer.

R. LEGATE.
The above is the address delivered by Mr. Legate at the meeting of the Farmer's Association held here on September 30th.

Evil Effects of Whiskey.

The advance in the price of whiskey does not appear to have lessened its consumption or the evil effect of imbibing too freely. At the Police court on Wednesday J. Culligan, a stone mason hailing from Toronto, was charged with stealing a stone-hammer from Solomon Thaler and a spirit level from John Bannister, which he had disposed of to a Jew for about 20c. The charges were proven and Culligan was sentenced to jail for two months on each charge the terms to run concurrently. The prisoner had been working on the extension to the McLouehlan factory, now under construction, where he was getting 37½ cents an hour. He drew big pay Saturday night and went on the spree. Owen Sound whiskey crazed his brain and he committed the theft alleged. This is the whole story in much shorter space than the novelist would take to tell it.—O. S. Sun.

The following letter was handed by a lady teacher to a Peterboro paper for publication: "Dear Sir, You write me about whipping Sammy. I hereby give you permission to bear him up any time it is necessary to learn him his lessons. He is just like his father—you have to learn him with a club. Pound nolego into him. I want him to get it, and don't pay no attention to what his father says. I'll handle him!"

The Feminine Side.

The other day the announcement was made that a daily paper, devoted solely to the interests to women had made its appearance in London, Eng. This is a fair indication of the development which has been taking place in daily journalism the world over. The Toronto News is one of the papers which looks well to the interest of women. Each day a chapter of an absorbing serial story appears as well as a column of interesting chat for the home. In the Saturday News generous space is allotted to the women's department, conducted by Jean Belevant, whose name is familiar in thousands of Canadian homes. In addition, a column of reasonable recipes is given, and a whole page is devoted to a description of the latest fashions—dainty creations which touch the feminine heart—with appropriate illustrations. Events in the musical and dramatic world are interestingly written about, and the latest books and magazines are reviewed. Every Saturday number of The News is of absorbing interest to every Canadian woman.

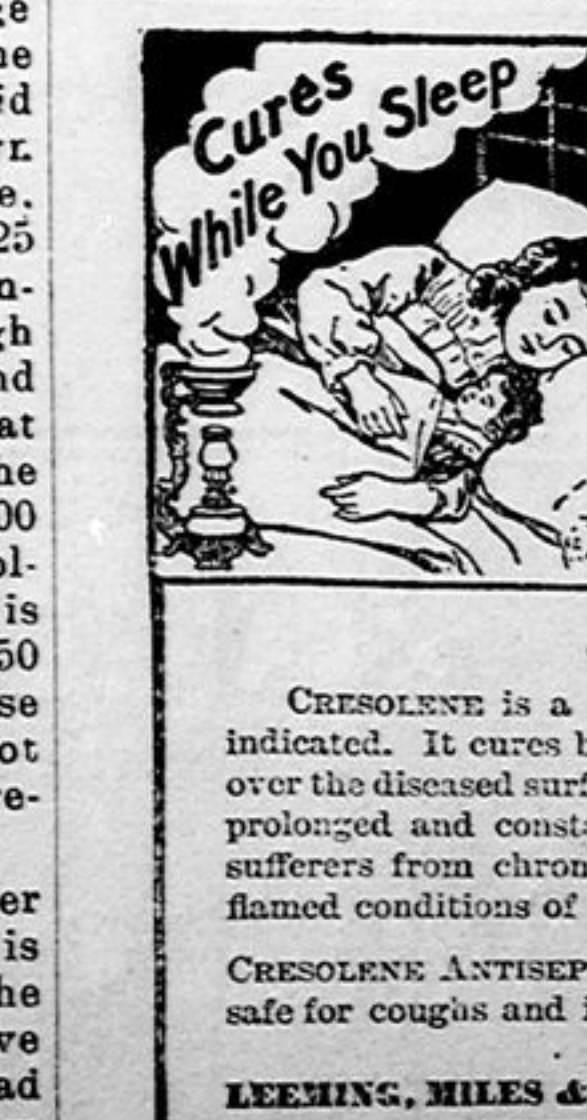

Nor is The News a paper for women alone. The husband and brother will find in its columns a terse but comprehensive record of the day's events, with well-conducted sporting, commercial and financial departments.

The price of The News is interesting, too—$1.00 a year by mail—which is about the value of the Saturday edition. If you would like to see The News, drop a card to Toronto and ask for a sample copy and particulars of their generous clubbing offers.

LIFTING THE BURDEN

With a Gentle Hand—ANTI-PILL.
Woman's life is a battle with nerves that sap strength and energy. Shattered nerves aggravate and promote chronic troubles. There is no time in a woman's life Anti-Pill fails to do good.
When the sleep is restless, food causes distress, headache or dizziness, pains in the side or back, indigestion, palpitation, appetite poor, constipated, all tired out, depressed—just one trial of Dr. Leonard's ANTI-PILL will "lift the burden" that is dragging you down. It begins its work in the stomach from which the blood is fed and the nerves controlled.
ANTI-PILL embraces a new principle. Its effects are different from anything else, and there is no mistaking its wonderful influence. Dr. Leonard has prepared the formula entirely free from the injurious ingredients common to present day Pills, etc. It is the ideal system treatment. Price, 50 cents per box of dealers, or by addressing WILSON-FYLE Co., Niagara Falls, Ontario, who will also mail free sample to any address.

Vapo-Cresolene

Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, Coughs, Grip, Asthma, Diphtheria.
Cresolene is a boon to Asthmatics.
CRESOLENE is a long established and standard remedy for the diseases indicated. It cures because the air rendered strongly antiseptic is carried over the diseased surfaces of the bronchial tubes with every breath, giving prolonged and constant treatment. These of a consumptive tendency, or sufferers from chronic bronchitis, find immediate relief from coughs or inflamed conditions of the throat. Descriptive booklet free.
CRESOLENE ANTI-SEPTIC TABLETS dissolved in the mouth, are effective and safe for coughs and irritation of the throat. 10c a box. ALL DRUGGISTS.
LEEMING, MILES & CO., 1651 Notre Dame St., Montreal, Canadian Agents.

NO MORE PAINS IN THE STOMACH.

Because the Greatest of Stomach Remedies was Used.

Ferrozone.

Mr. R. Harris of Rockwood, Ont., writes: "In regard to Ferrozone, I am glad to say it is the most excellent remedy for stomach trouble. Before using Ferrozone I was in a poor state of health, but after taking a few boxes I was cured of pains in the stomach and a soreness in the back. I am enjoying the best of health to-day, thanks to Ferrozone."

Mr. Earnest V. Jordan of Trenton, writes: "I had a severe attack of stomach trouble and indigestion, which completely upset me. I was advised to try Ferrozone, and did so. Since using Ferrozone I have not had any further trouble, and can recommend it as a positive cure. My wife also found Ferrozone a good tonic and nerve strengthener."

Everybody that ever used Ferrozone speaks just as highly of it. It strengthens the stomach and digestive organs and assists them in carrying on their work. Ferrozone purifies the blood and gives new energy to the nerves. It is the best tonic and re-builder and good for young and old alike. Just try Ferrozone; results will astonish you. Price 50c per box, or six boxes for $2.50 at druggists, or the Ferrozone Company, Kingston, Ont. Don't delay. Get Ferrozone to-day.

Faith Cures.

The New York Court of Appeal has rendered a severe blow to the practice of Egotism, Dowdism and other forms of the faith-cureists of that state. Three years ago a father named J. Luther Pearson allowed his child to die of pneumonia for want of medical attendance. He was prosecuted and the case has been hanging fire since. His defence was that the law does not order the use of medicine, that confidence in doctors has been lost through their discharging as to the methods of curing, and the Constitution guaranteed religious liberty, and he conscientiously believed a doctor's services would be harmful. The Court in rendering its decision said: "The peace and safety of the State involves the protection of the lives and health of its children, as well as obedience to its laws. Full and free enjoyment of religious profession is guaranteed, but acts which are not worship are not. A person cannot, under the guise of religious belief, practice polygamy, and still be protected from our statutes constituting the crime of bigamy. He cannot, under the belief or profession of belief that he should be relieved from the care of children, be excused from punishment for slaying those who have been born to him. Children, when born into the world, are utterly helpless, having neither the power to care for, protect, nor maintain themselves. They are exposed to all the ills to which flesh is heir, and require careful nursing, and at times when danger is present, the help of an experienced physician."

Corns Grow Between the Toes

But can be cured without pain in one day by Putnam's Corn and Wart Extractor. This standard remedy never burns the flesh—it is entirely vegetable in composition and does not destroy the flesh. Use only Putnam's it's the best.

TWO STOCK EXCHANGES.

Differences Between the New York and Berlin Institutions.
If any member of the New York Stock Exchange who is entirely unacquainted with German speculation should visit the Berlin bourse he would find at every point the most striking divergencies from his home experience. He would be surprised to see the bourse attended by quite 2,000 persons including clerks of banks, newspaper men and even visitors like himself. Also, he would be interested in the immense size of the hall—300 feet long, divided by colonnades into three sections, one of which is assigned to the Produce Exchange. On one side of the hall several doors open into a grassy court, shaded by trees and surrounded by a pillared lobby, where brokers sit in dull summer days and float their latest stock of anecdotes.

That shaded court is suggestive of deeper differences between the New York Stock Exchange and the Berlin institution. In New York the number of members is fixed and is small in proportion to the immense volume of business done. In Berlin there is a great horde of small dealers, and the amount of trading is much less than in New York. Owing to the easy terms of admission, the bourse becomes a mere place where traders meet to effect their transactions. There is no sale of seats. In fact, no membership fee exists, but only a small yearly tax is collected, which varies from time to time as the expenses of the organization require. Contrary to New York practice, membership is largely held by companies and firms. Nearly all the banks of the city, for example, are members, and the more important ones keep above a score of their employees on the floor. Thus the individual New York broker, as a rule, counts for vastly more than a member of the bourse. New York is concentrated, is intense, Berlin disperses its energy, and is comparatively dull. It knows nothing of those great days of triumph or disaster that render the annals of Wall street picturesque. And it lacks our large daring operators who startle the country with their bold schemes.—William C. Dreher in Century.

FRUITS AND FLOWERS.

Rolling ground is the best for an orchard. Blighted leaves and branches on fruit trees should be cut off and burned.

That a tree does not bear well in the early stages of the orchard's growth.

One advantage in pruning during the summer is that the wounds heal very quickly.

Dead branches are often the means of conveying decay to an otherwise healthy trunk.

In pruning roses cutting back closely produces, as a rule, fewer blossoms, but of a finer quality.

Never prune a tree unless there is good reason why a limb or branch should be taken off.

A moderately heavy soil that has been underdrained and subsoiled and then carefully worked is capable of producing the heaviest crops of fruit.

Deceptions of Wild Birds.

Falcons, hawks—the largest species—can compress their feathers and look very slim if they think it necessary to do so. As to the owls, they can hump up into any position they think most suitable. It is useless to look for these self preserving traits in any of the family kept in zoological collections, for the birds are so accustomed to see large numbers of people passing and repassing or standing in front of them that they treat the whole matter with perfect indifference. They know that at a certain time their food will be brought them and that they are otherwise perfectly safe. Then the raptors in a wild state have a bloom on their plumage like the bloom on a bunch of grapes, which is not often seen when in captivity.

Disenchanted.

"Until I met you, Matilda," he murmured in a voice husky with emotion, "I believed that all women were deceitful, but when I look into your clear, beautiful eyes I behold there the very soul of candor and loyalty."

"George," she exclaimed with enthusiasm, "this is the happiest moment I have known since papa took me to the London oculist!"

"London oculist?"
"Yes, dear; you never would have known that my left eye is a glass one." Then the moon went under a cloud, and George sat down and buried his face in the sofa cushion.—London Answers.

Didn't Dare.

"Why don't you try to demonstrate to your constituents that you are capable of an unselfish action?"
"My dear sir," answered Senator Sorghum, "if these people who have known me for years were to find me doing something in which I had no apparent interest they'd get suspicious and decide that I was engaged in a deep and diabolical plot."

Alas, Too Late.

Kitty—What did you do when he threatened to kiss you?
Blanche—I didn't do anything. Why should I? I just waited until he had committed an overt act.
Kitty—And then?
Blanche—Why, then it was too late to punish him.
