They Shrunk Out of Sight

That is many a person's experience with ordinary wool underwear—to have them shrink and shrink until it is impossible to get into them without strangulation. There is a way to avoid this unpleasant experience by going to "Burnett's" for your underwear—the kind that don't shrink or irritate you. Our underwear sell on sight—as a consequence our stock which was big when we opened out here is fast disappearing. But still there's more to follow. We have all sizes and prices in both heavy and light weights. Don't shiver when you can buy Underwear here.

Flesherton.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilcox, west back line, was the scene of a happy event on Wednesday evening of last week when in the presence of a large number of invited guests their second daughter, Ella, was united in marriage to Mr. George W. Alton, of Markdale. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ivison Wilson, B. D., of this place, and the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Wilcox, and the groom was supported by his brother, M. Alton. The bride and bridesmaid were both prettily gowned in white organdie trimmed with applique and lace. The bride's travelling suit was navy blue broadcloth with stylish hat to match. After the ceremony and usual congratulations to the happy couple a choice wedding supper was served and afterwards till a late hour the time was enjoyably spent with games, music and social intercourse. The numerous and beautiful wedding gifts to the bride betoken the esteem in which she is held by her many friends. On Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. Alton left on the early train for Toronto and on their return will settle in their new home at Markdale. We join their numerous friends in wishing them a long and happy life.

At the annual election of officers last week of the Gray County Old Boys' Association in Toronto we notice Flesherton and vicinity old boys were much in demand the following being among the elected: Dr. R. H. Henderson and Thorpe Wright, honorary presidents; J. W. Armstrong, vice president; C. W. Chadwick, recording secretary and Harry Hooper financial secretary. We congratulate our old boys on being in such favor among their fellows and we graciously acknowledge the honor that comes to us through them. Markdale is also to be congratulated on its worthy representative in the person of Mr. W. J. McFarland, honorary president, and likewise our esteemed neighbor, Feversham, the energetic and popular young president, Dr. Edgar W. Paul.

Jos. Crow, driver of the Patterson bus, was before Magistrate Van Dusen last week charged by Mr. W. Trimble with having used abusive and insulting language. In answer to the charge Crow said he was drunk and did not remember anything he said. The magistrate gave him some wholesome advice for his future conduct and fined him $5.00 and costs, in all $11.66, which he paid.

Some weeks ago while speaking on military matters in the House of Commons Mr. M. K. Richardson, M. P., referred to the large sums of money that were being expended on drill halls and armories in the cities while the drill sheds throughout the country built thirty or more years ago were being allowed to go to ruin. He instanced the one here stating that again and again the officers of the district had made appeals for sufficient money to make the much needed repairs, but without success. Seeing these conditions the young men of the country said Mr. Richardson must be impressed with the thought that the government have but little interest in the rural corps. Mr. Richardson was pleased to learn that the Minister of Militia would give this matter his attention. On Wednesday of last week Colonel Galway of Toronto inspected the armoury and drill shed here and for the needed repairs got estimates from some of our mechanics which he has submitted to the department of Militia.

On Saturday last sudden and sore bereavement befell the home of Mrs. Mary Jamieson, widow of the late James Jamieson, 8 con. Artemesia, when her second son, William John, aged 17 years, died unexpectedly after but a few days' illness with inflammatory rheumatism. Interment took place on Monday at Salem cemetery where the deceased's father was laid nearly two and a half years ago. Rev. W. Sinclair, of Eugenia, conducted the burial services. Many friends sincerely sympathize with Mrs. Jamieson and family in their renewed sorrow.

Mr. John Flynn, an old resident, is at the time of writing (Monday evening) very low, not expected to revive many hours.

Evangelist Kennedy arrived from Prescott on Saturday and commenced his special work in the Methodist church here with two earnestly delivered sermons on Sunday. In addition to the evening meetings there will be services on the afternoon of Tuesday and Friday each week.

Rev. L. W. Thom exchanged pulpits with Rev. Peter Fleming, of Maxwell, on Sunday and by order of Presbytery declared the pulpits of that charge vacant. Mr. Fleming having resigned to accept a call to Minto, Man.

Mr. J. P. Bunt, of Hanover, spent from Saturday till Monday with his brother W. H. here.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell visited the latter's parents at Feversham on Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Murray visited friends at Feversham on Monday. The Dr. is investing in a driving outfit which will doubtless be much enjoyed by himself and family.

Mr. Lew. Karstadt and bride, of Moorfield, on their wedding tour made a short visit at the home of the former's brother here last week and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Karstadt to Elmwood on Saturday.

Mr. T. Bulmer returned from an extended stay with friends at Southampton.

Miller Ross is more than busy these days. He is making a reputation for the mill in the flour department.

Bronzed and hearty with his three months out West, Mr. Thos. Jack arrived home on Saturday evening. There is general rejoicing in the home and neighborhood.

Calmly and peacefully, after an illness of seven months, Mr. Robt. Jardine passed away at the noon tide hour on Monday of last week. The deceased was born in Dumfries, Scotland on August the 12th, 1819 and was thus over 84 years of age. In 1847 he came out to Canada and for several years lived in Nassa, where he wedded, Miss Ann Petrie who died 17 years ago. To them were born four children, one being laid to rest in 1869, the remaining ones are John, supposed to be in British Columbia, Miss Janet in Toronto and Miss Annie, who has so devotedly nursed him through the tedious months. With Spartan courage, she has tended to him and helped to run the farm as well; but Miss Lizzie Pirth has stayed with her through it all and proved the true and faithful friend. The neighbors have proved most kind and helpful; but Mr. Chas. Arnott, wife and family deserve special notice. In politics, Mr. Jardine was in early years a Reformer; but for some years he was an out and out Independent and an ardent admirer of the Toronto Sun. Though not closely identified with any church, yet, was he a true believer and we have seldom seen such trusting faith. Most thankful for God's mercies here, yet, he longed to pass over to the other side. Kind, obliging, industrious honest to the heart's core, he was a true neighbor during his 43 years of residence in the neighborhood. The funeral took place on Wednesday and was largely attended, Rev. Wray R. Smith conducting the service, eloquently and impressively. Messrs. John McArthur, Donald McGillvary, George Blair, Thos. Cook, John McNally and James Nelson were pall-bearers and as they lowered the handsome coffin into the white lined ever-green decked grave, many thought of the kind life and the sympathetic heart of the departed. That is four of our pioneers, lying within a mile of Zion, who have been laid to rest during a year. The sympathy of the neighborhood goes out to Miss Annie in these her hours of bereavement.
