ROUND ABOUT US.

Fergus has the oldest curling club in Canada, but it is evidently a has-been; they used to have a lacrosse club of some pretensions but it has gone in fragments to Rat Portage, the Soo or oblivion mostly the latter. The curling club has adopted a new game called eucher, played it is said mostly with clubs and spades instead of with sticks and stones and brooms like the old games. The have beaten Guelph at the new pastime—but Guelph is easy anyway.—Harriston Review.

Learn one thing, learn it early in life, and learn it well, that the man who does not always believe as you do is not always a fool. The fact that you hold views not in accord with your neighbor is not proof positive that you are right and he is wrong, nor is it any evidence that your neighbor is insincere. If this were not true, then all smart men would belong to one party, and all good men to one church, and if all belonged to one party and one church they would break up both party and church.

The Toronto News says:—There is reason to think that the experiment with local option in West Toronto has been successful. There is no evidence that the business interests of the community have suffered, that rents have decreased or that any class of property has deteriorated in value. It is certain, however, that labor has benefited, that order has been better observed and that illicit drinking has not been common. It is no doubt difficult to enforce prohibitory legislation in a town which practically constitutes part of a great city.

Christian Reinhardt, formerly proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, Guelph, died on Friday last. Deceased was one of the best known hotel-keepers in Western Ontario. Kidney trouble was partly the cause of his death in addition to his enormous weight, 425 pounds, to reduce which everything was done. It is said that on entering the hotel his weight was only 125 pounds. The casket was the largest ever used in Canada. With the body it weighed 1,200 pounds, and in order to place it in the hearse the inside fittings of the vehicle had to be removed.—Ayrton Advance.

The editor sat in his office whence all but he had fled, and he wished that every last dead beat was in his grave—stone dead. His mind then wandered far away to the time when he should die, and his royal editorial soul got scooting to the sky; when he'd roam the fields of paradise and sail over Jasper seas and all things glorious would combine his every sense to please. He thought how then he'd look across the great gulf and dream, that'll yawn between his happy soul and those who swindled here and when for water they would call, and in agony they'd caper, he'd shout to them, "Just quench your thirst with the due that's on your paper."

A woman comes into a newspaper office, comments on the condition of the weather, removes her gloves, raises her veil, gets out her $4 lace handkerchief, digs into her chate-laine bag, brings out a little scrap of paper upon which is written a simple advertisement for a hired girl. She then inquires the price which is to run at the head of the want column 213 days in the year, asks for the best location possible, expresses the hope that she will get a good girl this time, puts her gloves back on and picking up her skirt, says: "Well, I guess that's all," and departs leaving her handkerchief on the counter. When she trots her ten-year old boy on an errand he dashes in, drops a quarter on the counter, says: "Mam wants this in the paper," and is gone, after having slammed the door. But he has transacted the same business.

As we go to press the town is full of sousie chieft wearing broad bonnets and broader accents. They are the curlers of group 8 engaged in the competition for the Ontario Tankard. At time of writing a phone from the rink conveys only a confused jumble of shouts and hoots and the rumble of the stanes, compared with it the Falls of Niagara is a mere murmur, and the Tower of Babel mix-up an intelligent conversation; truly curling is properly called the "roaring" game. However, the jolly gentlemen are having a good time. An odd thing is that though curling is an essentially Scotch game, a large sprinkling of English, Irish and Dutch are gradually butting in, and while they can acquire the proper twist for the stones and the orthodox method of manipulating a broom, they utterly fail in their efforts to turn their tongues around the laughing ye ken. A rumor reached us from the scene of conflict that Fergus Thistles had been mown down by the Southampton fishermen.—Harriston Review.

NOVEL CURE FOR COLDS.

Healing Medication That is Breathed, Giving Quick Relief.

It seems just as ridiculous to put medicine into the stomach to cure a cold in the head or lungs as it does to go out in the rain if we want to keep dry.

The fact that many people right in Durham cough and hawk and snuffle for days and weeks after they treat a cold with the usual stomach dosing, shows how valueless are the ordinary cough and cold cures.

The right way to cure a cold in the head or a cough and irritation in the throat and lungs, is by breathing Hyomei's medicated air. Put a few drops of Hyomei in the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit and breathe this healing air for a few times and immediate relief will be noted. The medication goes right to the spot where the disease germs are located and renders them harmless in the future.

At the same time the soothing and healing effects of Hyomei on the irritated mucous membrane give quick relief, and the cough or cold is broken up.

A complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of a bottle of Hyomei, the inhaler and a medicine dropper, costs but $1, while extra bottles of Hyomei, if needed, can be obtained for only 50c.

All druggists should be able to supply you with Hyomei, or we will send it by mail on receipt of price, and every package is sold with the distinct understanding that it costs nothing unless it cures. Write us to-day for a symptom blank, which we will send you free, together with treatise on Catarrh and how to cure it.

When you fill in and return to us the symptom blank, our consulting physician will give your case the best care and attention, and write you a letter of advice without charge. Booth's Hyomei Company, Buffalo, N. Y.

CHANGED THE WEIGHT.

Young Farmer Sent to Jail for Seven Days.

A young farmer named William A. Cook, who lived at Richview Post-office, near Lambton Mills, appeared before Magistrate Denison yesterday on a charge of theft and was sent to jail for seven days, with hard labor. Cook's father explained that his son had just launched into the farming business, and was making his first visit to the city with a load of hay. At Lambton Mills he had the hay weighed, the weight being 2,225 pounds, but on the way to the hay market he changed the second figure from a 2 to an 8, and received payment for six hundred pounds more than the actual weight.—The Globe.

Losing Muscular Power?

The First Sign of Mental Decay—The Warning of General Break-Down.

Changes in the nervous system manifest themselves slowly.

They show first by muscular weakness—a feeling that threatens paralysis, or by a fullness in the head that indicates approaching apoplexy.

It seems like stiffness but you soon discover there's a lack of power—that the endurance of this or that muscle is not what it ought to be.

Your friends may notice a slight thickness of speech or that your memory is decidedly failing.

These symptoms may grow worse very quickly if they are not treated by Ferrozone. You must build up the nervous system. This can be accomplished in no other way as thoroughly and permanently as by the use of Ferrozone.

This remarkable remedy, which has cured tens of thousands of Canadian people, increases enormously the digestive power, stimulates the formation of blood, the rich red kind that puts new life into the nerves.

The first result of these changes is increased strength.

Natural circulation quickly follows, and that fullness in the head, so disturbing and alarming, too, quickly passes away.

These changes are wrought in a natural way, for the reason that Ferrozone treats the causes that excite these troubles.

For the aged and weak who need strength—for those run-down and thin,—for the sickly and nervous who lack staying power—nothing compares with Ferrozone.

No tonic gives such lasting good health; try it yourself. Sold by all dealers in 50c boxes.
