SCORED ANOTHER WONDERFUL VICTORY

One More Added to the Long List of Cures Effected by Psychine.

This young lady, who lives in Brownsville, near Woodstock, Ont., tells her own story in a few effective words of how she obtained deliverance from the terrible grip of weakness and disease.

I have to thank Psychine for my present health. Two years ago I was going into a decline. I could hardly drag myself across the floor. I could not sweep the carpet.

If I went for a drive I had to lie down when I got home. I went for a mile on two on my wheel I was too weak to lift it through the gateway, and last time I came in from having a spin I dropped utterly helpless from fatigue. My father would give me no peace until I procured Psychine, knowing it was excellent for decline or weakness. I must say the results are wonderful, and people remark my improvement. Instead of a little, pale, hollow checked, listless, measurably girl, I am to-day full of life, ready for a side-saddle, a skating match, or an evening party with anyone, and a few months ago I could not struggle to church, in roads from my home. I have never had the slightest cause to fear any return of the disease.

ELLA MURIEL WOOD, Brownsville, Ont.

Thousands of women are using PSYCHINE, because they know from experience that in it they have a safe friend and deliverer. Psychine is a wonderful tonic, purifying the blood, driving out disease germs, gives a ravenous appetite, aids digestion and assimilation of food, and is a positive and absolute cure for diseases of throat, chest, lungs, stomach and other organs. It quickly builds up the entire system, making sick people well and weak people strong.

STRAY SHOTS FROM SOLOMON. (The Shoe and Leather Journal.)

LOW MINDED BLACKGUARDS. When you hear a man impugning the honor of all the rest of his fellows, shift your pocketbook to a safe place. When you find a man claiming that chastity is a name only, and that virtue is an unknown quantity in women, give the leprous creature a wide berth. "Honi soit qui maly pense"; "as a man thinketh in his heart so is he," is the scripture translation of this old French proverb. It is the scoundrel always who desires to see everything brought to his own dead level, that cynically sneers at good and sniffs at purity. It is the polluted rotten heart that scents carrion in every other life. The pure hearted and true find everywhere wholesomeness and truth; the honorable and just find plenty of probity and righteousness even in this world. My friend, condemn not thine own self by the estimate thou puttest upon the worth of thy fellows.

AN EGREGIOUS ASS. The man who thinks he knows it all is a fool, who shuts the door of success against himself. The man who is satisfied with himself, and who concludes he has nothing more to learn from his fellows, may look at himself in the glass and say with Balaam's faithful servant: "Am I dot thine ass?" When a man acknowledges himself a learner, only then is he in the path of true greatness, no matter what her sphere. "Be not wise in thine own eyes," is the suggestion of a man who was the wisest not only of his times but of all times. The surest way to wisdom in the sight of others is a consciousness of personal insufficiency. There are plenty of people whom if you could only buy at their real worth in wisdom and sell them for the estimate they put on themselves, you would not need to go to the Yukon to get wealth.

DON'T GO CHASING TROUBLE.

The Book says: "Man is born to trouble as the sparks fly upwards," nevertheless there are people who are always on the hunt for more than their allotted share. A man has not to go far nor hunt long to bag plenty, and that is probably what makes the game so popular. You can get all you want across the back fence with your neighbor, or if you are more fastidious you can run up against enough to satisfy the most ambitious along this line in a church meeting. Those pugs who go about trailing their coat-tails on the ground and flourishing a shillalah in the air, whether in an Irish fair, a town council or a Methodist conference are the despair of those to whom life means something more than a continuous round of physical, intellectual or spiritual conflict. The kicker is a useful member of society until his kicking becomes captious, narrow or personal, when he loses the sympathy of right-thinking people. There are some people who would rather fight than eat. They prefer a business row any time to business success, and would rather stand up to a religious controversy than sit down with their neighbors at the Lord's Supper. This is a spirit fatal to everything that goes to make a man full, true and round in character. It takes infinitely less ability to find fault than to find worth in anything. The merest fool can make more mischief in a minute than seven wise men can undo in a lifetime. The Wise Man says: "He that searcheth after mischief, it shall come unto him," and it does. Just look around you, and note the fate of the quarrelsome men that you have known. There is a man who owned one of the

The Best Physic.

When you want a physic that is mild and gentle, easy to take and pleasant in effect, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price 25 cents. Every box warranted. Get a free sample at Parker's Drug Store and try them.

Heaviness, Lassitude, Drowsy and Dull.

DO YOU FEEL THAT WAY?

How provoking these symptoms are! You sleep well, but when you waken there is none of the exhilaration that sleep and rest should confer.

Instead of being alert, having quickness of apprehension, there is languor, dullness, a disinclination to do things.

Three causes for this feeling. Lazy liver, lazy kidneys, and a mighty lazy stomach which does its work very poorly and compels the other organs to do things they are unequal to for any length of time.

Note the consequence—blood is filled with wastes—poisons weigh down the nervous system—rebuilding processes are absolutely stopped.

You'll note an instant change when you take Ferrozone.

Appetite improves, digestion becomes good as ever—skin grows ruddy and clear, all sense of languor, unsteadiness and depression fades away and finally disappears.

Ferrozone clarifies the brain, supplies tone and vigor, imparts clearness and strength. You feel like a new person, full of life, full of ambition, ready to do things,—and able to do them also.

Think it over. Ferrozone is a tonic that uplifts, rebuilds, that nourishes and restores the sick by supplying the elements their weakened system need.

It can't help but do you good. For men women and children, in fact anyone seeking strength and health, Ferrozone is invaluable; try it, sold by all druggists in 50c. boxes.

largest wholesales establishments in this city, but who quarrelled with everybody, from his creditors to his family, and is now in the street. There is another who owned a farm of a couple of hundred acres who "lawed" everybody in reach of him, and is now sawing wood for a living. Don't go hunting for trouble. You will get enough laid at your door every morning.

KEEP SWEET.

Solomon says, "Keep thy heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life." Plenty of men can keep their mouths and restrain the expression that their lips would sometimes give to the forwardness of their secret thoughts. Many seem to be able to compel their minds to follow certain channels, and so discipline them as to keep them employed in the particular direction they choose. How few, however, give heed to the controlling of their deeper self, which is the mainspring of thought, word and act. The secret of keeping sweet is little understood, or at all events little practised. There are, however, some who seem to have brought the art to some degree of perfection. We all know people whose presence to us is a calm, peaceful influence with banishes unrest, distrust, and evil as with a magic spell. A man thus poised is fit for any position in life. At the bottom of such a condition of heart must be personal truth, charity for others, and a desire to do good unto all men. A man may never be great in the generally accepted sense of the term, but anyone can be sweet—wholesome.

DON'T BE WEAK.

Some people don't know the difference between meekness and weakness. A meek man is not an ass who lets everybody saddle and ride him, nor a door mat that lets every clod-hopper wipe his boots on him. The creeping, wobbling weakling that adapts his posture to every new surrounding is not a meek man but a weak man. A meek man has backbone enough to keep his head up, and yet of such flexibility as to allow him to get through an ordinary doorway. No one admires the aggressive nuisance who disturbs and annoys everybody and everything with which he comes in contact, but we have no patience with the simpleton who has no opinions or convictions of his own, and who hasn't enough self assertion to wipe his nose without asking somebody's leave. Don't go apologizing for being on earth. If you are a man that is enough, stand out for the treatment a man should receive and get it. Beware of being made a tool of by those who will traffic in your innocence or softness if they get the least chance. Remember "the simple believeth every word, but the prudent man looketh well to his going." This does not mean that you should be suspicious of everybody, but keep your weather eye open. Don't be fooled with sugar sticks or fox talk. Be meek in the sense of being above giving or receiving wrong, but beware of being weak. There is all the difference in the world between the two.

IF!

Everybody knows that Cod Liver Oil is a wonderful flesh producer, IF you can take it. Nobody doubts that Iron is the greatest enricher of the blood, IF you can digest it. It is well known that Phosphorus is the ideal nerve and brain tonic, IF it is properly administered. "IF," ah! there's the rub. But everybody does not know that Cod Liver Oil, Iron and Phosphorus have at last been combined in an emulsion so palatable that anybody can take it, so easily assimilated that the smallest infant can digest it without difficulty and so perfectly and scientifically prepared that the value of the original ingredients is enhanced fourfold. This emulsion is known as

FERROL

(Iron and Oil)

"FERROL" has wiped out the "IF." "FERROL" has brought the wonderful and universally recognized virtues of Cod Liver Oil, Iron and Phosphorus within easy reach of the multitudes who need them. "FERROL" is the only perfect emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, because it is the only one that contains IRON and no emulsion is perfect without it. That is why FERROL is an unequalled system builder.

FERROL is not a patent mystery. The formula is freely published. It is prescribed by the best Physicians. It is endorsed by the most eminent Medical Journals. It is used in the prominent Hospitals, Sanitariums, etc.
