J. C. TELFORD, DURHAM

Flesherton

On Thursday evening last the school room of Chalmers church was the scene of a very interesting event being the farewell and presentation to the pastor Rev. L. W. Thom and wife who are going to a new field of labor. Notwithstanding the bad roads there was a good turnout of the congregation and also a good representation from the sister churches here. At the beautifully spread tables the ladies served a delicious tea and an enjoyable social time was spent after which Mr. M. K. Richardson was unanimously elected chairman and presided in his usual pleasing manner. After the singing of a hymn Mrs. W. H. Thurston gave an excellent rendered reading which was followed by a very pleasant surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Thom who were presented by the congregation with half a dozen handsome dining room chairs and to Mrs. Thom with a very pretty silver pudding dish. The presentation was made by Mrs. Archie Boyd and the appropriate address accompanying was read by Mr. T. R. McKenzie. Mr. Thom replied in fitting terms thanking the congregation for the beautiful gifts and the address so full of kindly sentiment towards himself and Mrs. Thom. Mr. A. S. VanDusen Rev. Dr. Caldwell and W. H. Thurston were then in turn called on by the chairman and their addresses were in keeping with the occasion and enlogistic of the esteemed minister and his wife so soon to leave the community. The proceedings closed with the doxology.

One Monday evening of last week deep sorrow entered the home of Mr. Leonard Betts, Collingwood Road, by the death of his beloved wife who had been ill only about a week with lagrippe. Mrs. Betts who was a native of Engand was 79 years of age. She was a very highly esteemed chrisan woman and will be much missed by her family and the community in which she lived for many years. On Wednesday the funeral which was largely attended took place to Salem church where service was conducted by the officers of the deceased was identified. She is survived by her husband, two sons, Thomas and Levi and five daughters Mrs. Robt. Akitt, Mrs. Thos. Atkinson, Mrs. Ed. Bennington, Mrs. J. Robertson and Mrs. J. Porteous.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid held a successful social at the residence of Mr. W. J. Stewart, east back line, on Tuesday evening of last week. A number from the village attended and report a good time. The proceeds were $13.00.

Although the roads prevented many outside members from being present at the service in the Presbyterian church there was a large congregation, many visitors being present from the sister churches. It was Rev. Mr. Thom's farewell and feeling that he could not trust his emotional nature in a sermon he had prepared he gave an appropriate and feelingly delivered address reviewing his pastorate and referring fittingly to the various organizations in connection with the church. Harmony existed and he was sorry to part with the congregation from whom he had received great kindness, but felt now that the Lord had work for him to do in a new field. Mr. Thom received many warm hand-clasps at the close of the service.

Mr. James Love, one of the pioneers of Artemesia, township died at his home near Mt. Zion Methodist church on Friday last after but a few days illness with pneumonia. The funeral which was largely attended took place to Mt. Zion church on Sunday afternoon when the pastor, Mr. W. Gaudin, conducted an impressive service. Mr. Love had been an Orangeman for about sixty years and his remains were interred with Orange honors by a large turnout of the members of No. 244 L. O. L. Proton Station, and other lodges in the district. He was one of the oldest members of No. 244. The deceased who as nearly as we can learn was over 80 years of age was born in the north of Ireland. On coming to Canada he lived for some time at Sandhill, Ont. where he taught school About fifty years ago he came to Artemesia and settled on the farm which has been his home since. For some time he taught in S. S. No. 8, near his own home in politics he was a conservative, and in the early days of the township he was active in municipal matters and received honors at the hands of the people, being elected in 1865 and 66 to the position of deputy reeve and in 1867 to that of reeve. We have known Mr. Love for many years and feel that we cannot say anything more fitting his character than that once written of him by the late Dr. Christie who said:—"He was a man possessed of more than ordinary ability, a fair scholar but of a quiet retiring nature. Very few persons excel him in probity and sound judgement; moreover his neighbors attribute to him kindness of disposition, generosity, and the quality of an excellent peacemaker." He is survived by his aged partner, one son Wm. J. on the homestead and three daughters, Mrs. Taylor in the United States and Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Colquett in the North West.

An emergent meeting of Prince Arthur Lodge A. F. & A. M. was held on Friday evening last to receive an official visit from Rt. Wor. W. H. Wright, of Owen Sound, D. D. G. M. of District No. 9. The inspecting officer witnessed the initiation of a candidate and afterwards in his excellent address to the lodge complimented the officers on their proficiency and the very satisfactory manner in which the degree was conferred and the work of the lodge generally done. A hearty vote of thanks was upon motion by Wor. Bro. M. K. Richardson and W. J. Bellamy tendered. At the conclusion of business an adjournment was made to the dining hall where a beautiful spread was in waiting prepared by the wives and daughters of the members in the village. An enjoyable time was spent at the festive board.

At a meeting of the directors of the East Grey Agricultural Society, held in the town hall on Friday last it was decided to hold a spring stallion and bull show here on April 12th at which expert Judges are to be employed.
