NEWS AROUND TOWN

STALLION Show at Holstein on Tuesday, April 16th.

MASTER Foster Saunders is getting much praise for a solo he gave last Sunday in Trinity Church.

FRED GLASS got his hand cut at the factory on Tuesday morning and Dr. McLaurin put some stitches in it. He will be off work for a week or so.

WHEN you hear a person finding fault with everybody else it isn't generally necessary to look to him for perfection.

Good pasture on a well watered farm may be secured for the season by applying to James Matthews, lot 1, Con. 1.—Egremont. 2 pd.

MR. ALEX DUNCAN had the misfortune to get his arm injured while assisting to raise the smoke stack at the Cream Separator factory.

MR. THOS. MCFADDEN, Reeve of Glenelg has purchased a lot in town where he intends to build and become a citizen perhaps next year.

MR. T. N. WALPOLE, who was committed for fraud by a Markdale Magistrate demanded a speedy trial and was acquitted with costs by the Judge in Owen Sound. The trouble grew out of a horse trade.

The Firemen's concert on Thursday and Friday nights last was quite a success. Prof. J. C. Green as a moving picture man is ahead of anything on the road and in a class by himself. The proceeds amounted to about $120.

PEOPLE want a Varnish Stain that will stain and varnish furniture and woodwork without covering up or obscuring the grain of the wood. In these days of pigment varnish stains, which are in reality varnish paints, it is worth while to remember that Campbell's Varnish Stains give a beautiful color and varnish effect without obscuring the handsome grain of natural woods. Sold by A. Russell, Durham.

The first issue of the Tiverton Watchman was received here last week. It was quite natural that we should view with interest the product of Mr. McDougall, who was for so long identified with the staff of The Chronicle. His maiden bow to his constituents is very nicely put, and the promises it contains to stand by the town and community for their mutual benefit are quite timely and appropriate. He starts out with a good advertising patronage, which for his sake and the advertisers we hope to see continue. After all there is nothing that so well measures the energy of a town as the advertising columns of its newspaper.

WE understand the Methodist Church choir is making considerable progress under the leadership of Mr. Midford. From this it must not be inferred that Mr. McCrae did not do good work. Mr. Midford makes a business of singing and can devote his energies in that direction. With Mr. McCrae it was different. He had his regular work to attend to and when a man is tired out with physical labor it isn't expected of him to go to choir practice towards the end of the week with as much energy, as if he had been practising music all the time. Mr. McCrae is all right.

LAST week we referred to an effort to start a pool room, and our opinion was properly construed as unfavorable. Like most other amusements and games there is no harm in the billiard table in itself. Some think it would be a benefit to the town if properly conducted. Young people, they claim, would be safer in a billiard room than they would be in a hotel. We are not going to dispute any such statement. If hotels had always been properly conducted and carried on in strict accordance with the license system under which they were supposed to be governed, there would be much less temperance agitation than we hear at present time. We know as a matter of fact that the license laws are violated. So it would be with a pool room. Generally the man who applies for a license to run a pool room isn't what is usually regarded as a good man in the community. His ideals and morals are not of a high order as a rule, and his general conduct does not usually inspire confidence.

RAILWAY operations are going on in town now, having been commenced on Monday last.

PRINCIPAL ALLAN has been ill for the past couple of weeks and is still confined to the house.

THE B. Y. P. U. Social will be held in the Baptist Church this Thursday evening. Admission 10c.

WE understand that a vigorous campaign is to be set on foot to vote on local option at the time of the next municipal election.

WE regret to Chronicle the very sudden death of Mr. Alfred Corbett on Wednesday last week. Our Vickers correspondent gives particulars.

A SUCCESSFUL auction sale of Farm Implements and Machinery, property of N. G. & J. McKechnie was held on Saturday last. John Clark was auctioneer.

SUNDAY was rather a dreary day and many will be disappointed in having to postpone the wearing of their new spring bonnets. There was a slight snowfall.

MR. JOHN BACKENHAUER of Bentinck, near Allan Park, died last week after five days illness from pneumonia. He is reported to us as a man of excellent qualities straightforward and honest almost to a fault. He was about forty-five years of age.

THE regular meeting of the Council was held on Monday night. The jangle over the Treasurership was continued and finally disposed by Mr. Bean resigning a position he never had and the appointment of Mr. Jackson at a remuneration of $125, twenty five dollars less than last year.

MILLINERY OPENINGS.

MORLOCK'S Miss Dick's millinery parlors were thronged with ladies from town and out of town visitors who were cordially received and conducted through her well appointed display room.

Here were shown specimens of all the hats in vogue this season. High and bright colors were predominant and natural grasses, also wild flower effects were shown in the make up of the many exceedingly stylish hats.

A pretty hat was shown made of a combination of roses, white grapes and large purple velvet pansies, with trimming to match.

Another much admired was the Copenhagen blues trimmed with Dutch roses and Japanese pops, ribbons to match. Large hat pins are used this season and come in large balls studded with agates and paste diamonds, large black jet and gilt.

A rare variety of shades and hats will be worn this season and almost every known shade combination is shown.

Miss Dick's stock is immense and so complete that there is not a style of hat on the market which she has not on show.

Large crowds are taking advantage of the fine weather to visit her show room where the prevailing styles are on view.

MISS DICK'S.

Wednesday and Thursday were Opening Days at S. F. Morlock's and lovelier things were never more alluringly displayed. The exquisite color schemes of the hats are difficult to describe. Color was never more lavishly used and yet the soft tone so beautifully arranged result in simply delightful effects.

The long stem beauty roses on many of the hats are very beautiful.

A design in one of the dull green shades of soft braid had a soft fold of tulle around the crown coming over brim to side. The whole crown being covered with roses.

While the delicate pinks and blues are tones to be greatly used for early wear much interest attaches to the delightful colors in the mixed braids.

Another new and very odd shade of soft dark blue gave distinction to a large model in a mushroom shape with tulle and flowers around the large crown and wild grasses hanging from underbrim toward the back.

Another much favored design was a medium large and slightly drooping shape of soft braid and cowslips caught on either side in the long stem effect and dresden ribbon on band.
