THE PRESAGE OF GREATNESS.

My friend, you say "Hallo!" to me
Een soocha kinda way
I know dat you are gonna be
Da greata man som' day.

You are so smarta 'Merican,
You need no speak at all
To poor old dumba Dago man,
Baycause he ees so small
Een deesa beega cesty. Steell
You smile an' speak to me,
An', oh, my friend, you mak' me feel
So proud as I can be!

Wan time w'en I am younga man
An' levee een Eetaly
Ees 'nudder man dat shaka han'
An' say "Hallo!" to me
W'en he ees meet me een da street,
An' he ees not ashame'.
Oh, granda man, but he ees treat
Da reech, da poor da same.
Now, w'at you s'pose baycome of dees
Gran' man I know at home?
Look! See, my friend! Today he ees
Da greata pope een Rome!

Baycause you say "Hallo!" to me
Een soocha kinda way
I know dat you are gonna be
Da greata man som' day.
—T. A. Daly in Catholic Standard and Times.

A Memory Test Indeed!

Golfer (who rather fancies himself)—
I suppose you've been round the links
with worse players than me, eh?
The caddy takes no notice.
Golfer (in his loudest voice)—I say, I suppose you've been round the links
with worse players than me, eh?
Caddy—I heard verra weel what ye said the first time. I'm just thinkin' about it.

The Bright Side.

Mr. Jurgins had been suddenly afflicted with a stiff neck. Not only was it a painful stiffness, but it caused him to twist his head around until he seemed to be trying to look behind him over his left shoulder, and his head was rigid in that pose.

"Of all the confounded trials a man was ever subjected to," he said, "this is the limit. They say to look on the bright side of our afflictions, but I'd like to know how I could make use of this stiff neck."

"My dear friend," said the optimist, "think what a golden opportunity this is to sit for your picture without having to allow the photographer to twist your head around that way and jab those ice cold tongs into the back of your neck."—Judge.

The Conclusion.

A group of workmen were arguing during the dinner hour. A deadlock had been reached when one of the men on the losing side turned to a mate who had remained silent during the whole of the debate.

"Eee, Bill," he said, "you're pretty good at a argumen'. Wot's your opinion?"

"I ain't a-goin' to say," said Bill. "I thrashed the matter out afore with Dick Grey."

"Ah," said the other artfully, hoping to entice him into the fray, "an' what did you arrive at?"

"Well, eventually," said Bill, "Dick 'e arrived at the 'ospital an' I arrived at the perlice station!"—London Tit-Bits.

Self Appreciation.

"Why don't you go to work?" asked the severe looking woman.

"Lady," answered Plodding Pete, "I'm surprised at you. De way t'ings is goin' youse thrifty members of de middle classes ought to be grateful to me fur not bein' an insurance grafter or a bank robber."—Washington Star.

His Preference.

"Always do right, young man," said the parson, "and your friends will stand by you."

"Yes; that's always the way," rejoined the young man, "but what I want is friends who will stand by me when I go wrong."—Chicago News.

In a Hurry.

Little Dimpleton—How long will it take you to give me a working knowledge of jiu jitsu?

The Professor—Oh, say two weeks. "But, heavens, man, I can't wait all that time to get rid of that cook!"—New York Life.

Family Greetings.

A countryman meeting a pretty peasant woman leading a donkey said in passing, "Good day, mother of the donkeys."

"Good day, my most beloved son," was the instant reply.—Il Diavolo Rosa.

An Insinuation Feared.

Clergyman—Madam, you must be consoled with the thought that your husband is at rest.

Widow—Do you mean that he didn't have any before he died?—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Not Particular.

"Doctor, how can I ever repay you for your kindness to me?"

"Doesn't matter, old man. Check, money order or—cash!"—Milwaukee Sentinel.

IMPURE BLOOD

Clogs the Kidneys Slowsthe Heart Fags the Brain.

Weakens Every Part of the Body Causes Organic Diseases.

Just as strength is the natural outcome of pure blood, so is debility and sickness the outcome of impure blood.

To know how quickly how surely Ferrozone cures, to see how it rebuilds and restores, you have only to read the following letters—read them carefully—see if the symptoms resemble yours.

Miss Evelyn M. Gaetz of Kingston, writes: "I have had an attack of blood disorder which broke out in horrid looking pimples. They were ugly red disfiguring blotches that ruined the appearance of my face. I tried all sorts of medicine, but the pimples didn't leave I was recommended Ferrozone and gave it a trial. I noticed an improvement after the second box, and kept up the treatment which finally cleared my skin. As the result of Ferrozone I have a clear healthy complexion and can recommend it to all other young women similarly affected."

Another young lady well known in society circles of Springfield, who derived exceptional benefit from Ferrozone, says: "I felt it my duty to make known the value of Ferrozone. My trouble was poor weak blood, and as a consequence my lips were palid, and my cheeks had no color I wasn't at all strong, and required a bracing tonic. Ferrozone soon brought color to my cheeks improved my appetite and made me stronger than I had been in years. I favor Ferrozone because it is so simple to take and work so quickly.

No blood remedy exists that has the power to cure, to heal, to restore like Ferrozone; try it, 50c per box at any drug store.

CANADIAN HORSE SHOW.

Nearly $7,000, in Prizes to be Distributed on May 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

The Canadian National Horse Show Association is the new organization which will continue the Horse Show in the thirteenth year of its existence. It will be held this year in the St. Lawrence Arena, Toronto, a building excellently adapted for the purpose, on May 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th. As the Spring Stallion Show provided for the breeding classes, the Canadian National Horse Show devotes itself to the Harness, Saddle, Hunters, Roadster and Pony Classes. There are seventy-two different classes, and in cash and cups nearly $7,000, will be distributed. The entries close on Saturday April 20th, and should be addressed to the Secretary, Mr. J. Stark, Sovereign Bank, Market Branch, Toronto. The Chairman is Mr. George W. Heardmore, M. F. H. and the Manager, Mr. Stewart Houston, 182 Victoria Street, Toronto. All prospects point to a splendid entry of high class horses. Reduced rates equivalent to a single fare can be obtained on all railways.

The News—No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is—and has been for 20 years. The National Law now requires that if any poisons enter into a cough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package. For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison-marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chances, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and see. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Simply refuse to accept any other. Sold by MacFarlane & Co

Constipation

Baked sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others, coarse all-wheat bread will have the same effect. Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man, if physicians can but find Nature's way to health. And this is strikingly true with regard to Constipation.

The bark of a certain tree in California—Cascara Sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to this end. But, combined with Egyptian Senna, Slippery Elm Bark, Solid Extract of Prunes, etc., this same Cascara bark is given its greatest possible power to correct constipation. A toothsome Candy Tablet, called Lax-ets, is now made at the Dr. Shoop Laboratories, from this ingenious and most effective prescription. Its effect on Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., is indeed prompt and satisfying.

No griping, no unpleasant after effects are experienced, and Lax-ets are put up in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents per box.

For something new, nice, economical and effective, try a box of
