C. L. GRANT DURHAM.

Flesherton

Word was received here last week of the death at Winnipeg of Mr. John Higginbotham, who passed away on the 17th ult. at the home of his son, Mr. George Higginbotham, son-in-law of Mr. E. J. Sproule, of this place.

Mr. Wm. Johnston, of Durham, was in town last week in the interests of the I. O. F. Court, and as a result eighteen new candidates were initiated and others are yet to be initiated.

Born—On the 21st ult., to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Quigg, west back line, a son; on the 23rd ult., to Capt. D. D. and Mrs. McLaughlin, Ceylon, a daughter; on the 24th ult., to Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart, west back line, a son.

Flesherton Base Ball Club organized for the season one evening last week, when officers were elected as follows: Hon. President, Mr. John Runstadler; President, Mr. J. A. Boyd; Manager, Mr. Ed Thompson; Captain, Mr. Ed Bentham; Sec. Treas., Mr. C. H. Munshaw; Managing Committee, Ed. Bentham, Herb Smith and C. N. Richardson; Mascot, Master Herb Sullivan.

At the close of the morning service in the Methodist church on Sunday morning society representatives on the Official Board were elected for the ensuing year as follows: F. W. Nicholson, W. J. Caswell, J. A. Heard and E. J. Sproule, Mr. Wm. Clayton was appointed representative with the pastor to a meeting of ministers and laymen at Markdale to-day (Tuesday) when the question of circuit boundaries affecting Markdale, Flesherton, Eugenia and Ephrasia circuits is again to be considered.

At the meeting of the Mission Band in the Methodist church on Sunday afternoon last officers were elected for the ensuing twelve months as follows: President, Miss Florence Thurston; Vice Pres., Mrs. Joseph Clinton; Rec. Sec., Miss Edna Patton; Treas., Miss Lillian Armstrong.

The mire at the Boyne bridge wash-out has become so deep that the spot has become almost impassible. A team with a load of travellers trunks got stuck on Monday, and it was with difficulty a number of men got the team and load out.

Rev. W. S. Wright, B. A., formerly of Newcastle, who preached in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, made a very favourable impression. His pleasing delivery and excellent gospel sermon was much enjoyed by the congregation. Mr. Wright will again occupy the pulpit next Sabbath.

Mr. James Carse has returned from Montreal to take his former position in E. J. Sproule's Conveyancing and Insurance Office for a short time, after which he intends going on a holiday tour.

Work has been begun on the foundation of W. E. Richardson & Son's new drug store. Work is also progressing on Mr. Ed. Thompson's basement for his new bakery.

Mr. Wes Lyons was in town a day or two last week on his way from Collingwood to Durham where he has taken a position.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Douglas, of Collingwood, were visitors at Mr. A. S. VanDusen's on Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. J. P. Bunt, of Orangeville, is spending a few days with his brother here.

Mr. John Thistlethwaite left on Monday to ply his brick laying trowel in Toronto.

Mrs. J. J. Mills, of Spokane, Wash., is visiting her mother, Mrs. James Sullivan.

His Belt Saved Him.

Brantford, April 27.—Oliver Woodhouse, a Bell telephone lineman, was up a pole near the Imperial Hotel the other day, when he laid his hand on an uncovered live wire. He could not let go until he fell back exhausted. In this condition he would have fallen to the ground, but his safety belt was around the pole, and it saved him. He hung suspended until another lineman went to his rescue. Although many volts passed through Woodhouse's body, he escaped with a badly burned hand.

CAME TOO LATE.

Ottawa, April 29.—At the session of the Ontario Legislature which closed last week an Act was passed dividing the judicial district of Nipissing into two parts, with a judge for each. It remains for the Dominion Parliament to make an appointment to what will be known as the Sudbury district, and to provide the necessary salary for the same. The statute of the Ontario Legislature on the subject, however, only reached Ottawa on Thursday or Friday last, and there was not time to put the matter through before prorogation, and the appointment accordingly will have to stand over till next session. The Cabinet Council will be in session from day to day until certain matters claiming the attention of the Government have been disposed of.

Burned Eyebrows off.

Woodstock, April 27.—Robt. Kerr, janitor of the Post-office, burnt ashes one day recently. The result was a clinker as big as a wheelbarrow, and Robert is disgusted. Another citizen had an even more disastrous experience. He evidently used oxalic acid in his mixture, and demonstrated to a finish that it was "rich in carbon and oxygen, and will certainly burn," as the scientists say. He touched a match to his compound, upon which it flared up so unexpectedly that his hands were blistered and his eyebrows burned off.

NARROW ESCAPE

Wm. Dodson, a well-known farmer of con. 2, Normanby, had an experience last Friday night he will not soon forget. He was going home from town about nine o'clock in the evening, alone in his buggy, and arrived at the G. T. R. crossing, Main st., North, just as the north bound passenger train came along. Dodson says he did not hear the train coming, and had no idea it was near, until he was on the crossing when the horse, hearing the rush of the train, wheeled suddenly on the track and the engine struck the buggy throwing man and horse and buggy into the ditch. There they lay, Mr. Dodson says, for an hour and a half, when Mr. Joseph McDermott going home from his greenhouse heard the groans of man and horse and went to their aid. Remarkable to state, neither had a scratch to show for what they had passed through and only one hind wheel of the buggy was damaged and the shafts broken, the wheel appearing as if it struck from behind on the tire which with the rim was bent in but not completely broken. As the train did not stop it is evident none of the crew knew they had collided with the rig, and the engineer and fireman when first told of it at the station, here, by our reporter the following Monday morning, said they had no knowledge whatever of anything happening at the crossing that night, an investigation of the pilot did not show the least scratch. The conclusion arrived at is that the horse on becoming frightened at the approach of the train got clear over the cattle guard, which is filled in at this point, and sufficiently to one side of the track until only the wheel remained near enough to be struck by the projecting cylinder of the engine, with merely sufficient force to upset the outfit, including man and horse, easily into the ditch. It is difficult to tell just how it did occur, but one thing is certain, Mr. Dodson had a miraculous escape. Strangely enough he is next neighbor of Mr. Felix Curran, whose wife and daughter were killed by the train at this spot, being the only accident there since then.—Mt. Forest Representative.

Committee for Three Months.

(O. S. Times.)

Alex. Kerr, the young man arrested recently in Elderslie township on the charge of stealing portions of the harness from horses tied in the sheds at Kilsyth while a box social was in progress, appeared before Judge Hutton for trial at the court house here on Monday and was committed to gaol for three months. His brother was acquitted.

BE ON TIME.

It is not safe when you go to the station to see your friends leave, to go on the train with them. The train is not held a moment longer than is absolutely necessary, and as a rule those who go into the train to say good bye to friends have to jump from the train as it is moving off, which is always dangerous. Three ladies passed through this experience at the station here Monday morning, and onlookers held their breath as the ladies came off the train together and fell in a heap dangerously near the edge of the platform.—Mt. Forest Rep.

DILLON HINGE-STAY FENCE On common fences the continuous wire stays are sure to bend and the locks to lose their grip under continual pressure of your horses or cattle. The Dillon Hinge-Stay Fence. The short, stiff hard steel wire in our hinge-stays cannot bend when the lateral wires are weighted down, owing to their being so short and jointed at each strand wire. Nothing like that can happen to our Dillon Hinge-Stay Fence. The short, stiff hard steel wire in our hinge-stays cannot bend when the lateral wires are weighted down, owing to their being so short and jointed at each strand wire. Pressure of a horse on the top wire brings the "hinges" in the stays into action and prevents them from bending, and when pressure is relieved the fence springs back into place again. The lateral wires are High-Carbon Hard Steel and coiled to provide for expansion and contraction by heat and cold, and are also crimped at the intersection of the stays and strands to prevent the stays from slipping sideways—therefore no locks are needed. Buy the Dillon Hinge-Stay Fence. It's "twice as strong." Twice as good an investment. Catalogue free. The Owen Sound Wire Fence Co., Limited, Owen Sound, Ont.
