DURHAM. — — ONTARIO.

Flesherton

The annual business meeting of the Methodist Ladies' Aid Society was held at the parsonage on Wednesday evening of last week when the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. (Dr.) Caldwell; 1st Vice President, Mrs. Geo. Mitchell; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. Joseph Clinton; Sec., Mrs. Fred Hickling; Treas., Mrs. W. A. Armstrong; Parsonage Committee, Mrs. Wm. Moore, Mrs. W. H. Bunt and Mrs. W. J. Boyd. The Secretary reported a large increase in membership during the year and the treasurer's report showed the receipts to have been $104.20 and expenditure $37.84.

Mr. David McMullen has, through the agency of R. J. Sproule, sold his brick residence in the village to Mr. Albert Stewart, who intends giving up farming. Mr. McMullen purposes making his home with one of his sons.

Mrs. Bulmer has sold her photograph outfit and leased the gallery to Mr. W. E. Hawkin, of Markdale. This is an old established business and will doubtless continue to prosper with Mr. Hawkins, who is an enterprising young man with artistic taste and ability.

Dr. Murray and his associates have their handsome gasoline boat ready for the water, and her launching at Wilcocks' lake on Friday next, the 24th, will be an event of interest. Many have inspected the boat during its construction, and the general verdict is that it is a beauty. Dr. Murray's skill in boat building is equal to his dexterous manipulation of the forceps. The boat is to be christened "Shirley M." after Dr. Murray's little daughter. The little craft will be decorated with a neat flag presented by Editor Thurston.

Mr. L. H. Wilkes, student McMaster University, arrived last week to assist Rev. L. F. Kipp in his work for the summer. Mr. Wilkes will devote most of his time at the preaching stations at Ceylon and Kimberley.

Rev. Crawford Tate, whom we intimated last week would have been acceptable as pastor in the Presbyterian church here, is not available, having accepted a call to Delhi where he preached a Sabbath before coming here. Mr. W. H. Smith, B. A., a graduate this year of Knox College, preached on Sunday last and delighted the congregation with his pleasing delivery and very able sermon. Mr. Smith is a clever student and his exceptional gifts as a preacher make him much sought after, several calls from good churches having been offered to him.

Markdale Epworth League paid the League here a fraternal visit on Monday evening. The visitors furnished a pleasing programme, after which the home League served refreshments, and an enjoyable time was spent.

Mr. W. Trimble purchased a valuable roadster last week. We understand he bought the animal in Mono.

Mrs. Bulmer is improving her residence by adding a new kitchen at the rear.

Mr. and Mrs. Runstadler were at Linwood last Saturday week attending the funeral of the former's father who died at the age of 76 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Riley, who live near Alliston, visited over Saturday and Sunday with the latter's brother, Mr. John Hales, here, and brother-in-law, Mr. W. J. Caswell, Toronto line.

Dr. Ottewell was in Toronto last week and was accompanied home by his little nieces, Minerva and Valeria Stafford, of Montreal, who will hold day for the summer with their auntie here.

Mrs. (Dr.) Sproule, of Markdale, was in town on Saturday calling on old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank VanDusen and Miss McConnell, of Dundalk, spent Sunday at Mr. A. S. VanDusen's.

Mrs. Harry Quigg was at Shelburne last week visiting an aunt and uncle both very ill.

Mrs. Hickling, Mrs. Trimble and Mrs. T. W. Wilson took in the excursion and visited friends in the city over Saturday and Sunday.

Darkies' Corners.

Here we are again Mr. Editor after a long silence, which we hope you will pardon, owing to the fact that at this season of the year we are so busy.

Miss Bella McGirr, who has been very ill of late, we are pleased to learn is again on the mend.

All the farmers in this vicinity are well on with the process of seeding. Some are already done.

The advance of spring has been very backward, but at time of writing the indications point to a rapid growth.

The railroad automobile is again going its rounds, which makes things lively, especially horses.

Mr. Thos. Meenagh left for Dauphin a couple of weeks ago, where he will remain for the summer.

Meers, Alex. Livingstone and R. G. Hewitt, of Priceville, visited the home of the latter's parents two weeks ago Sunday.

Mr. James Allen visited the Meenagh family one Sunday recently.

Mrs. Thos. Meenagh, who has been seriously ill during the past couple of weeks, we are glad to say is recovering rapidly.

Miss Kate Ritchie visited at the home of her uncle, Mr. Thos. Ritchie, Edge Hill, for a few days recently.

The Lindsay boys, of Bentinck, are busy seeding on their uncle's farm here.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wiggins, of your town, spent a week ago Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Hewitt.

Sabbath School opened a week ago last Sunday for the summer with an excellent day and a large attendance.

The motor cycle, more commonly called by people who when driving on the public highway happen to meet it the go devil, passed through this burg Sunday at a high speed.

Mr. Wm. Jacques, accompanied by his sister, Miss Josephine, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Staples a week ago Sunday.

Master Joe Staples, we are pleased to learn, is again able to be up and around although not very strong yet.

Mr. M. J. Staples, accompanied by his lady friend, spent a week ago Sunday visiting friends on the south line.

Mr. Alex. Aljoe has started to work on the railroad near Spring Bank.

Varney.

Mr. McCabe bought a mare and colt from R. Pettigrew. Two days after he hitched her up with Wm. Long's horse, and she being a very excitable creature kicked and cut up so that in a few minutes they took the harness off her when she fell down, and before the Vet., Dr. Wolfe, could be got she died. It is supposed that the excitement was too much for her and that she burst a blood vessel. Alf. is raising the colt by hand which, if he can do, will lessen the loss considerable.

The Epworth League social held on Friday night was a grand success. A good program consisting of readings, recitations, solos, duets, instrumental, etc. An interesting feature was a contest of making out words. Each one had the name of a flower, place or person with the letters all mixed up. Wilbert Blyth was the successful one, winning the prize—a Methodist Hymn Book—by making out 24 names. Miss Stewart, of Durham was a close 2nd, having 17, and Mrs. Watt 16, and a great many others of a less number. The collection amounted to $4.

Miss Flossie Dickson, of Orchard, visited at McCabe's over Sunday.

Ethel Pettigrew visited at home again last Sunday.

Mrs. Borne, of Grand Valley, was visiting at her brother-in-law's, Geo. M. Leeson, a few days lately.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCabe, of Holstein, visited with his brother Alf. on Sunday last.

Herbie Gizle has engaged as an apprentice with our village blacksmith.

R. Pettigrew had the misfortune to lose a fine five-year-old horse by lockjaw, which is no small loss.

Those same two boys were visiting in Egremont on Sunday again. We will use to reprimand them.

J. W. Blyth attended the District meeting held in Mt. Forest on Wednesday as lay-delegate for the Varney circuit.
